Have a Wonderful Time!

Fall Festival is here! Thank you to everyone who has been working to make the Fall Festival happen. It has become a North Park tradition, and each year the Festival is a very positive experience for school families, parishioners, returning alumni, and other members of the wider community. Please join us at this community-centered celebration where you can enjoy great music, delicious food, beverages, dance performances, and more. All proceeds raised will benefit the operation of our school, so don't feel bad eating that extra taco or burger.

This year the annual Fr. Michael McFadden, OSA School Fund will have an official kick-off with a booth accepting donations. The annual fund this year has been themed "Keep it Safe." Parents have responded that safety is high in the number of reasons of why they choose St Patrick School, and we would like to Keep It Safe by adding security cameras, installing an additional gate between the hall restrooms and the school classrooms, purchasing a new fire alarm, improving the visibility in front of the school office by removing the trees there, and other security related projects.

If you happened to come to Mass today for the first time, welcome! Today, the Gospel reading presents us with the healing power of God in Jesus Christ, and the gratitude of a Samaritan, who in contrast to nine ungrateful others, thanked Jesus. We give thanks and praise to God at every Mass. Please see the front of this bulletin for the schedule of Mass times. Each Sunday Mass has a different choir or cantor, so you might want to come back to experience the different styles.

God bless,
Fr. Carlos, OSA

Parish Office Closed

Please note that the office will be closed on Monday, October 14, for the Columbus Day Holiday. Our morning Mass will be at 8:00 AM.

Maintenance and Repairs Update

The project in the basement of deepening the sump basin, and adding two more basins and a french drain along one wall has been completed. We now need to wait for the Winter and Spring rains to see if the ground water does not saturate anymore. For now, the work is done. Thank you to a major donor of the project, and to all who volunteered! Other projects started: repairs to the stained glass window and window frame in the confessional; repairs to the Easter processional cross, which is originally from Oberammergau in Germany; cleaning out the rain drain drainage in the parking lot; painting of the railings, and installing security cameras for the church entrances. Your donations to the building fund are very much needed and appreciated!

Next Sunday Is World Mission Sunday

There will be special envelopes for a special collection supporting missionary dioceses around the world.

El Corazón Agradecido

Muchas gracias a todos los que están apoyando a la escuela sirviendo en el puesto de la comunidad hispana de la parroquia. El festival es uno de los eventos que más recauda fondos para nuestra escuela.

Hoy día, en el Evangelio, Jesús observa como solo uno de los diez que recibieron sanación, se devolvió a darle las gracias. Jesús se pregunta, ¿Qué pasó con los otros nueve? Pienso, que esa pregunta puede hacer eco en nuestro corazón, y llevarnos a reflexionar sobre qué agradecidos somos.

Algo que últimamente estoy predicando en las Misas de 15 años, con la esperanza de que les quede una semilla a las jóvenes por quienes sus padres han hecho gran sacrificio para celebrar sus 15 años, es que todos tenemos muchas oportunidades todos los días para estar agradecidos. Empezando con lo mas básico, a veces no nos damos cuenta de que recibimos bendiciones como el poder levantarse en un nuevo día, y el tener lo suficiente para comer. Pensamos a veces en lo que no tenemos, pero no nos damos cuenta de los que sí tenemos. Y el siguiente paso después de darnos cuenta de estas bendiciones diarias, es darle gracias a Dios. Cuando hacemos esto, tal vez podemos darnos cuenta que hay personas que no tienen nada de esto: personas que no pudieron dormir porque están con dolor en un hospital, o personas que no tienen suficiente para comer. Dios nos ayude a reconocer todas sus bendiciones, e incluso poder conectarnos a Él en los momentos difíciles.

P. Carlos Medina, OSA
