FOR BY GRACE YOU HAVE BEEN SAVED
THROUGH FAITH...

Every year Lent is a time of reflection, it is a time to rediscover ourselves where we are with respect to God's desire. Today, the gospel puts the person of Jesus at the center, and us before the person of Jesus.

The letter to the Ephesians (Eph 2, 4-10) reminds us that God's love for humanity is so great that God does not reserve the Son for himself, but is able to offer the Son so that through his sacrifice humanity can find salvation and enter eternity in God. But, as in the past, many of us still resist believing and accepting the person of Jesus as our Lord and Savior. This is because many of us are so distracted by the things of this world. We investing all our effort and time in achieving fame, fortune and power that we forget that there is something more, something greater.

This world tricks us into believing that we will have enough time to leave eternal things for later. Christ and his gospel are not the center of the lives of many, and yet Christ is elevated before everyone's gaze, as Moses once did with the serpent in the desert, for those who know how to look, they can discover the love of God. In Jesus, they can have life, health and holiness. For this Christ was sent and delivered... Not being able to recognize this truth is the cause of condemnation, as today's gospel tells us (Jn 3, 14-21).

I invite you to pray and meditate this Lent with the Way of the Cross, and let us contemplate Christ's sacrifice for us. Thus, before Him, who appears weak and obedient to the Father, we can achieve the grace of knowing how to respond with love and fidelity to the gift that Christ has offered to us all: Redemption. Fr. Carlos Flores, OSA

USTEDES HAN SIDO SALVADOS POR LA
GRACIA, MEDIANTE LA FE...

Cada año la cuaresma es tiempo de reflexión, es tiempo para redescubrir de nosotros mismos en dónde estamos respecto al deseo de Dios. Hoy mismo, el evangelio pone en el centro a la persona de Jesús, y a nosotros ante la persona de Jesús.

La carta a los Efesios (Ef 2, 4-10) nos recuerda que el amor de Dios por la humanidad es tan grande que Dios no se reserva para sí mismo al Hijo, sino que es capaz de ofrecer al Hijo para que por su sacrificio la humanidad pueda encontrar salvación y entrar a la eternidad en Dios. Pero, tal como en otro tiempo, muchos aún nos resistimos en creer y aceptar a la persona de Jesús como nuestro Señor y Salvador. Esto es así por que muchos estamos tan distraídos con las cosas de este mundo. Estamos invirtiendo todo nuestro esfuerzo y tiempo en conquistar fama, fortuna y poder que olvidamos que hay algo más, algo más grande.

Este mundo nos engaña haciéndonos creer que tendremos tiempo suficiente como para dejar las cosas eternas para después. Cristo y su evangelio no son el centro de la vida de muchos, y sin embargo Cristo al ser elevado ante la mira de todos, como en otro tiempo lo hizo Moisés con la serpiente en desierto, para quienes sepan mirar, ellos pueden descubrir el amor de Dios en Jesús, esos puedan tener vida, salud y santidad. Para esto Cristo fue enviado y entregado... No poder reconocer esta verdad es la causa de la condena, como nos lo dice el evangelio de hoy (Jn 3, 14-21).

Los invito a orar y meditar en esta cuaresma con el Viacrucis, y contemplemos el sacrificio de Cristo por nosotros. Así, ante Él, que se nos muestra débil y obediente al Padre, nosotros podamos alcanzar la gracia de saber responder con amor y fidelidad al regalo que Cristo nos ha ofrecido a todos: Redención. P. Carlos Flores, OSA
