Sunday, June 15, 2025 — The Most Holy Trinity

Trinity Sunday ~

In the first reading we hear today of the relationship of the Holy Spirit to the Father, that He was there from the beginning before all was created. He was God's delight on earth.

The second reading also shares the insight of our relationship with our Lord, we are justified by the practice of our Faith. It involves our belief in God, the Holy Trinity. Hope is all part of this, because without hope, especially hope in the Resurrection, we can't part of the proven character that God has poured into our hearts, the magnificent grace/gift of the Holy Spirit, which enlivens us and educates us in the ways of God.

In the Gospel, we hear Jesus tell his disciples that what He has to tell them, they could not bear it. This is the same as when Jesus questioned His disciples. Many still could not or would not believe what He was telling them. The same can be said of today. Many hear the Word of God but chose not to believe. Is it the hardness that is in our hearts, much like that of the Jewish people? Even God Himself was there at Jesus' baptism, and the people who were there heard His voice. "This is my Son in whom I am well pleased; listen to Him."

Please remember that where Jesus is, the Father and the Holy Spirit are there. The same is true with God, where He is, the Son and the Holy Spirit are there. Remember that you are temples of the Holy Spirit, 1Cor 3:16, that dwells in us; The Father and Jesus are there with us as we journey to the Father in heaven.

All glory be to the Father, to the Son and to the Holy Spirit!!! Amen!

~ Fr. Tom

La Sagrada Trinidad

En la primera lectura de hoy, escuchamos sobre la relación del Espíritu Santo con el Padre: Él estuvo presente desde el principio, antes de que todo fuera creado. Él era el deleite de Dios en la tierra. La segunda lectura también comparte la perspectiva de nuestra relación con nuestro Señor: somos justificados por la práctica de nuestra fe. Esta implica nuestra creencia en Dios, la Santísima Trinidad. La esperanza es parte integral de esto, porque sin esperanza, especialmente la esperanza en la Resurrección, no podemos participar del carácter probado que Dios ha derramado en nuestros corazones, la magnífica gracia/don del Espíritu Santo, que nos vivifica y nos educa en los caminos de Dios.

En el Evangelio, escuchamos a Jesús decirles a sus discípulos que lo que les decía no lo podían soportar. Esto es lo mismo que cuando Jesús cuestionó a sus discípulos. Muchos aún no podían o no querían creer lo que les decía. Lo mismo puede decirse de hoy. Muchos escuchan la Palabra de Dios, pero eligen no creer. ¿Será la dureza de nuestros corazones, como la del pueblo judío? Incluso Dios mismo estuvo presente en el bautismo de Jesús, y los presentes oyeron su voz. "Este es mi Hijo en quien tengo complacencia; escúchenlo".

Recuerden que donde está Jesús, allí están el Padre y el Espíritu Santo. Lo mismo ocurre con Dios: donde Él está, allí están el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo. Recuerden que son templos del Espíritu Santo (1 Corintios 3:16), que mora en nosotros. El Padre, Jesús y el Espíritu Santo nos acompañan en nuestro caminos hacia el Padre celestial.

¡Gloria al Padre, al Hijo y al Espíritu Santo!
¡Amén!

~ P. Tom
