From the desk of Fr. Tom ~
16th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Today's readings have us take a look at how we might perceive God's Word. The first reading from Wisdom mentions That God's mercy is real... "that those who are just must be kind. That God is lenient." That God gave good ground for hope permitting though repenting we can be forgiven of our sins. With the various readings about soil and seeds lately, I love the hope this reading gives.

The second reading is how the Holy Spirit, because of our weaknesses, intercedes for us according to God's will. The Holy Spirit knows our hearts.

I truly believe that the Father's intention is that He wants all of us to follow His will for us. We must be open to that, because the intention of repentance is to reflect, Learn and change how we live our lives. Remember the message at Ash Wednesday, "Turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel" then in a sign of repentance we received ashes on our foreheads. Ashes are not a talisman or anything else but a call and witness to our faith and the call to witness to it in our lives.

The Gospel is a continuance of this instance of our faith Journeys. Yes, our Lord always sows good seeds; and he allows them to grow with the weeds. This is because good plants will remain good plants and weeds will always remain weeds. A Good Plant that God tends in His Garden will always remain a good plant. When it's time for the harvest. They will be separated, much like the parable of the sheep and the goats who also live together. So our understanding is that the Lord is indeed kind and merciful. What we need to do is like the farmer, sow good seeds.

Fr. Tom

Las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a reflexionar sobre cómo percibimos la Palabra de Dios. La primera lectura, tomada del libro de la Sabiduría, menciona que la misericordia de Dios es real: que los justos deben ser bondadosos y que Dios es indulgente. Dios nos da motivos para la esperanza al permitirnos obtener el perdón de nuestros pecados mediante el arrepentimiento. Dadas las recientes lecturas sobre la tierra y las semillas, me encanta la esperanza que transmite este pasaje.

La segunda lectura nos habla de cómo el Espíritu Santo, consciente de nuestras debilidades, intercede por nosotros conforme a la voluntad de Dios. El Espíritu Santo conoce nuestros corazones.

Creo firmemente que el deseo del Padre es que todos sigamos la voluntad que Él tiene para nosotros. Debemos estar abiertos a ello, pues el propósito del arrepentimiento es reflexionar, aprender y transformar nuestra forma de vivir. Recordemos el mensaje del Miércoles de Ceniza: "Conviértanse y crean en el Evangelio"; como signo de arrepentimiento, recibimos ceniza en la frente. La ceniza no es un talismán ni nada por el estilo, sino un llamado y un testimonio de nuestra fe, así como una invitación a dar testimonio de ella en nuestra vida cotidiana.

El Evangelio da continuidad a esta etapa de nuestro camino de fe. Sí, nuestro Señor siempre siembra buena semilla y permite que crezca junto a la cizaña. Esto sucede porque las plantas buenas seguirán siendo buenas, mientras que la cizaña siempre será cizaña. Una planta buena, cuidada por Dios en su jardín, permanecerá siempre como tal. Llegado el momento de la cosecha, se producirá la separación, tal como ocurre en la parábola de las ovejas y las cabras, que también conviven. Así pues, comprendemos que el Señor es verdaderamente bondadoso y misericordioso. Lo que nos corresponde hacer es, al igual que el agricultor, sembrar buena semilla.
