Bishop McElroy on the death of Bishop Brom:

"It is with great sadness that I announce the death of Bishop Robert Brom at his home this morning. Bishop Brom was a pastor, teacher and servant leader of the Catholic community in San Diego and Imperial Counties for 23 years. He oversaw the building of many beautiful churches in our Diocese, as well as the establishment of two magnificent high school campuses. He was a natural teacher who constantly labored to bring the ecclesiology of the second Vatican council into the heart of the Diocese of San Diego. This dedication to the Council also framed his life-long service in forming men for the priesthood.

"Bishop Brom's deep love for our parishes and pastoral vision were complemented by a keen administrative capability in guiding San Diego through years of joy and hardship. In his retirement years Bishop Brom intensified the prison ministry that he began as Bishop and his service to the Missionaries of Charity."

Bishop Robert Brom was born in Arcadia, Wis., on Sept.18, 1938. He was ordained a priest of the Winona, Minn., diocese on Dec. 18, 1963. In 1983 Saint John Paul appointed him to be the bishop of Duluth, and then to be Coadjutor Bishop of San Diego on April 22, 1989. Bishop Brom became Bishop of San Diego on July 10, 1990 and retired on Sept. 18, 2013. The funeral for Bishop Brom will be held Tuesday, May 17, at 11 a.m., at Saint Thérèse of Carmel Church in Del Mar Heights. Burial will be at Holy Cross Cemetery.

Obispo McElroy sobre la muerte de Obispo Brom:

"Es con gran tristeza que anuncio la muerte del obispo Robert Brom en su casa esta mañana. El obispo Brom fue pastor, maestro y líder servidor de la comunidad católica en los condados de San Diego e Imperial durante 23 años. Supervisó la construcción de muchas iglesias hermosas en nuestra Diócesis, así como el establecimiento de dos magníficas escuelas secundarias. Fue un maestro natural que trabajó constantemente para llevar la eclesiología del Concilio Vaticano II al corazón de la Diócesis de San Diego. Esta dedicación al Consejo también enmarcó su servicio de toda la vida en la formación de hombres para el sacerdocio.

"El profundo amor del obispo Brom por nuestras parroquias y la visión pastoral se complementaron con una gran capacidad administrativa para guiar a San Diego a través de años de alegría y dificultades. En sus años de retiro, el obispo Brom intensificó el ministerio carcelario que comenzó como obispo y su servicio a las Misioneras de la Caridad".

El obispo Robert Brom nació en Arcadia, Wisconsin, el 18 de septiembre de 1938. Fue ordenado sacerdote de la diócesis de Winona, Minnesota, el 18 de diciembre de 1963. En 1983, San Juan Pablo lo nombró obispo de Duluth, y luego obispo coadjutor de San Diego el 22 de abril de 1989. El obispo Brom se convirtió en obispo de San Diego el 10 de julio de 1990 y se jubiló el 18 de septiembre de 2013.

El funeral del obispo Brom se llevará a cabo el martes 17 de mayo a las 11 a. m. en la iglesia Saint Thérèse of Carmel en Del Mar Heights. El entierro será en el Cementerio de la Santa Cruz.

FROM THE PASTOR

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER —C—

Back when I was in the seminary formation, many years ago, I happened to learn about the so-called 'ACTION-IDENTIFICATION' which talks about being able to identify the person by his action or demeanor. For instance, we say, most likely that a person could be a teacher, if he or she displays a refined demeanor, someone who is caring and who manifests self-confidence. Similar things can be said of doctors, lawyers and other professionals who display a unique aura of their own.

In our Gospel for the fifth Sunday of Easter, Jesus wanted that Christians be identified by the manner they love one another. He said: "I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples." True enough, love is the hallmark of Christianity.

The kind of love that the Gospel tells us is not the sentimental kind of love, but something that is God-centered and service-oriented. This kind of love was shown in the 'Washing of the Feet' that preceded this gospel. It emphasized love associated with service.

In our faith community, we are encouraged to show this kind of love where God is reflected in the manner we serve others. Let us be faithful stewards by showing our love through the kind sharing of our gifts.

Father Ed

5 DOMINGO DE PASCUA —C—

Quando estaba en la formación del seminario, hace muchos años, aprendí por casualidad sobre la llamada 'ACCIÓN-IDENTIFICACIÓN', que habla de poder identificar a la persona por su acción o comportamiento. Por ejemplo, decimos que lo más probable es que una persona pueda ser maestra si muestra un comportamiento refinado, alguien que se preocupa y que manifiesta confianza en sí mismo. Algo similar se puede decir de los médicos, abogados y otros profesionales que muestran un aura única propia.

En nuestro Evangelio del quinto domingo de Pascua, Jesús ha querido que los cristianos se identifiquen por la forma en que se aman. Él dijo: "Yo los he amado, así también ustedes deben amarse los unos a los otros. Así conocerán todos que sois mis discípulos." El amor suficientemente verdadero es el sello distintivo del cristianismo.

El tipo de amor que nos dice el Evangelio no es el tipo de amor sentimental, sino algo centrado en Dios y orientado al servicio. Este tipo de amor se mostró en el 'Lavatorio de los pies' que precedió a este evangelio. Enfatizó el amor asociado con el servicio.

En nuestra comunidad de fe, se nos anima a mostrar este tipo de amor donde Dios se refleja en la forma en que servimos a los demás. Seamos mayordomos fieles mostrando nuestro amor compartiendo amablemente nuestros dones.

Padre Ed

GIVING IS A BLESSING:

Loving as New Creations

"There's something different about you."

Think about the times in your life when this has been said to you. Maybe it was after someone complimented you on a job well done, and you realized that you were walking through life with a little more confidence. Maybe it was after meeting someone special, as you carried the glow of that relationship wherever you went. Chances are, if someone has noticed something different about you, it's because, inwardly, you've been changed by the loving or respectful actions of another person. Love, you see, can make us into new creations. From the love of God flows the grace to tackle any challenge, including the biggest challenge of all: loving each other well. Christ knows what a big request this is. He was human, too. He came and lived among us. He knew intimately what it was to love people in the chaos of their own flaws. He knew what he was asking of us when he said, "As I have loved you, so you should also love one another."

In essence, this is the call to stewardship: loving as Christ loves, amidst the messiness of everyday reality. Loving with accountability, challenging ourselves and our brothers and sisters to be faithful even when it is hard. Loving with an unflinching sense of hospitality that welcomes even those we do not agree with or understand. Loving with gratitude, giving thanks for the great variety of ways that Christ can make himself known to us through others.

It isn't easy — we all know that. But if we ask God for the grace to remain steadfast in this greatest commandment, we will be given what we need to live as new creations.
