Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over

THIS WEEK

BLESSING OF FATHERS

God and Father of all creation,
we come before you today with humble hearts.
You are our model of a loving father.

When we fail and fall short of your expectations,
you are always there at the end of the day with open arms,
ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children.
Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures.
Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance.
We ask all this in the name of Jesus.

Amen.

FROM THE PASTOR

FEAST OF THE CORPUS CHRISTI —C—

“When it rains it pours” so goes the saying. Truly these past few weeks have been grace-filled and God’s blessings have been pouring upon us like rain. Recently we celebrated the Pentecost, then the Feast of the Trinity and now the Corpus Christi. These are clear indications that God is with us and He will remain with us forever.

Today’s feast is a reminder that Jesus has consigned the gift of his Body and Blood into the hands of the Church. We have become the ministers of the gift which brings life to all who would approach the table of the Lord.

While Jesus welcomes all who comes to him as he brings healing and relief, the Twelve Apostles seem to adopt the opposite attitude. They were so worried and pessimistic that they wanted to send the people away because of the insufficient resources they had.

Jesus was telling them an important message: Just as he looked after them on their need, the Apostles must also do the same. The Apostles must not even be afraid despite the limited resources because Jesus is in charged and through his intervention all are satisfied in their hunger.

Father Ed

FIESTA DEL CORPUS CHRISTI —C—

“Cuando llueve a cántaros”, dice el dicho. Verdaderamente estas últimas semanas han estado llenas de gracia y las bendiciones de Dios se han derramado sobre nosotros como lluvia.

Recientemente celebramos Pentecostés, luego la Fiesta de la Trinidad y ahora el Corpus Christi. Estas son indicaciones claras de que Dios está con nosotros y permanecerá con nosotros para siempre.

La fiesta de hoy es un recordatorio de que Jesús ha puesto el don de su Cuerpo y Sangre en manos de la Iglesia. Nos hemos convertido en ministros del don que da vida a todos los que se acercan a la mesa del Señor.

Mientras que Jesús da la bienvenida a todos los que vienen a él mientras trae sanidad y alivio, los Doce Apóstoles parecen adoptar la actitud opuesta. Estaban tan preocupados y pesimistas que querían despedir a la gente por la insuficiencia de recursos que tenían.

Jesús les estaba diciendo un mensaje importante: Así como él los atendió en sus necesidades, los Apóstoles también deben hacer lo mismo. Los Apóstoles ni siquiera deben tener miedo a pesar de los recursos limitados porque Jesús está encargado y por su intervención todos son satisfechos en su hambre.

Padre Ed

SPECIAL THANKS FROM THE PASTOR: I can only say thank you Lord for sending laborers into the harvest. While we acknowledge that there is really a shortage of workers, our community is blessed with more people who are willing to get involved in the mission of the Church in different areas of ministries. I wish to thank MRS. GIRLIE MARTINEZ who serves as pianist in the Tagalog Mass every last Sunday of the month. Truly your gift of music helps in the liturgical celebrations. May God replenish your kindness!

Solo puedo decir gracias Señor por enviar obreros a la cosecha. Si bien reconocemos que realmente hay escasez de trabajadores, nuestra comunidad está bendecida con más personas dispuestas a involucrarse en la misión de la Iglesia en diferentes áreas de ministerios. Quiero agradecer a la SRA. GIRLIE MARTINEZ quien se desempeña como pianista en la Misa Tagalog todos los últimos domingos del mes. Verdaderamente tu don de la música ayuda en las celebraciones litúrgicas. ¡Que Dios colme tu bondad!

You're invited to contribute to the worldwide Synod!

Pope Francis has called a synod on synodality, a two-year process where the People of God (that means you!) are being invited to reflect on what it means to journey forward together as a Church. You're being asked to participate because you are a valuable member of our Church. In this intentional process of mutual listening, Pope Francis wants us to rediscover the joy of being the People of God who journeys together, listening to everyone. For those who were unable to join us in person, we wanted to let you know there will be an online questionnaire sent out in the coming Fall 2022 so that your voice is still included in this synodal process! In order to include as many voices as possible, please follow the steps you see here to sign up for our Flocknote messages if you are not already signed up.

¡Está invitado a contribuir al Sínodo mundial!

El Papa Francisco ha convocado un sínodo sobre la sinodalidad, un proceso de dos años en el que se invita al Pueblo de Dios (¡eso significa usted!) a reflexionar sobre lo que significa caminar juntos como Iglesia. Se le pide que participe porque es un miembro valioso de nuestra Iglesia. En este proceso intencional de escucha recíproca, el Papa Francisco quiere que volvamos a descubrir la alegría de ser Pueblo de Dios que camina junto, escuchando a todos. Para aquellos que no pudieron unirse a nosotros en persona, queremos informarles que se enviará un cuestionario en línea en el próximo otoño de 2022 para que su voz aún esté incluida en este proceso sinodal. Para incluir tantas voces como sea posible, siga los pasos que ve aquí para suscribirse a nuestros mensajes de Flocknote sin aún no lo está

GIVING IS A BLESSING: Sacred Vessels

Have you ever paid attention to the purification of the sacred vessels after Holy Communion? If you haven't, I highly recommend doing so this Sunday. See the care with which the priest handles the chalice and the paten, pouring water into them to cleanse any loose particles of the Body and Blood of Christ. Observe the loving reverence he uses in wiping them dry with a special purificator. It's a ritual unto itself, and a powerful moment for reflection.

These vessels begin as earthly objects. They are made by human hands. There is nothing special about them — not until they go about the work for which they have been created. Until they contain the Body and Blood of Christ, they are only ordinary objects. But after they have carried within them the Eucharist, they are never the same. They will always be special and deserving of special care.

That's why partaking of the Eucharist is, for us, an evangelical undertaking. It is both a transformation and a declaration. When we accept this tremendous gift, we are proclaiming what we believe, and we are accepting the grace to follow through on that commitment.

When we are receiving the Eucharist, it is not possible for us to be passive. We become the vessel. We carry Christ into the world with us.

But do we act like it? Do we treat ourselves — our bodies, our souls — with the same respect as the priest cleansing the chalice? Do we treat one another with the reverence we would reserve for a sacred object? When we look at another person with anger or irritation or envy, do we acknowledge the change that we have willingly undergone by receiving Christ's Body and Blood into ourselves?

MINISTRY OF CONSOLATION & HOPE

Wednesdays 10am to 11:30am in Parish Library

Did you know that mental health issues are NOT a result of personal weakness, a lack of belief, failure to pray enough, a character defect or poor upbringing. Mental health issue is a condition that disrupts the ability to work (gainful productive work); relate (healthy relationships); live (perform activities of daily living).

If you are having mental health issues, please come to the parish library to talk to our ministers of Consolation and Hope. We have a variety of resources that we can recommend to assist you. We are on campus every Wednesday from 10 am to 11:30 am. If you can't come please call our parish office and one of our ministers will contact you.

MINISTERIO DE CONSOLACIÓN Y ESPERANZA

Miércoles 10am a 11:30am en la Biblioteca Parroquial

¿Sabías que los problemas de salud mental NO son el resultado de una debilidad personal, falta de fe, falta de oración suficiente, un defecto de carácter o una mala educación? El problema de salud mental es una condición que interrumpe la capacidad de trabajar (trabajo productivo remunerado); relacionarse (relaciones saludables); vivir (realizar actividades de la vida diaria).

Si tiene problemas de salud mental, venga a la biblioteca parroquial para hablar con nuestros ministros de Consolación y Esperanza. Tenemos una variedad de recursos que podemos recomendar para ayudarlo. Estamos en el campus todos los miércoles de 10 am a 11:30 am. Si no puede venir, llame a nuestra oficina parroquial y uno de nuestros ministros se comunicará con usted.
