INTRODUCTION TO TODAY'S READINGS

Everyone needs to explore their own heart. It is there that the world is changed, because it is in the human heart that evil begins and that evil can be brought to an end.

First Reading Deuteronomy 4:1-2. 6-8

The laws of God are a sign of God's presence and offer us God's life.

Second Reading James 1:17-18. 21-22. 27

Goodness is all gift, because all goodness comes from God as a gift.

Gospel Mark 7:1-8. 14-15. 21-23

The Gospel is concerned with uncovering what is hidden, especially the secrets of the human heart.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK -

INVITE PARISHIONERS TO REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading: As Moses prepared the Israelites to settle and live in the Promised Land he urged them to stay close to God's commandments and statutes in order to become a "great nation." Why do you think so many nations stray from this idea?

Second Reading: In the opening verses of his letter, James urges his readers to be "doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves." Why do you think this is wise advice?

Gospel: In returning to the Gospel of Mark, we hear today how the religious leaders from Jerusalem questioned Jesus about keeping "the tradition of the elders." Jesus responded with the importance of being clean of heart. Why is this such a challenging spiritual exercise?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Give it all Back—Pop culture has given us a unique idea of the term justice. Justice, we often think, is about taking. Taking what's owed. Taking revenge. Taking what we deserve. This worldview tends to make mincemeat of our Catholic social teachings. Seeking the good of the poor, a call to community and participation, solidarity — on the face of it, in a society where everything must be earned and we are encouraged to hoard for ourselves whatever success we can achieve, these principles look a lot like highway robbery.

But when you remember the presence of an omnipotent, all-loving and all-merciful God, it turns our gunslinging sense of justice on its head. For how does justice inhabit the same universe as a God who is so quick to give and indeed to forgive?

Well, very easily, when we remember Who exactly is the source of every good and perfect thing in this world. There is no law that cannot be traced back to the Word. And the Word saves our souls.

Is that justice? No, that is a gift. It is the reckless, indulgent gift of a father whose love is greater than His anger. What is justice in the Biblical sense?

The answer is simple. Look at your life. See the hours in your day? See your spouse, your kids, your grandkids? See the house they live in, the money in your wallet, the food in your fridge, the breath in your lungs?

Calling it all your own, refusing to share any of it — that's robbery. Giving it all back to the One who gave it to you — that's justice.— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS @LPi

Domingo 22 del Tiempo Ordinario

LECTURAS DE LA SEMANA

Primera lectura Deuteronomio 4: 1-2. 6-8

Las leyes de Dios son un signo de la presencia de Dios y nos ofrecen la vida de Dios.

Segunda lectura Santiago 1: 17-18. 21-22. 27

La bondad es todo don, porque toda bondad viene de Dios como don.

Evangelio Marcos 7: 1-8. 14-15. 21-23

El Evangelio se ocupa de descubrir lo que está oculto, especialmente los secretos del corazón humano.

Todo el mundo necesita explorar su propio corazón. Allí es donde el mundo cambia, porque está en el corazón humano que el mal comienza y que el mal puede terminar.

ANUNCIO DE ETIQUETA

Recuerde que nuestro celebrante es ultimo en entrar y el primero en salir

ANUNCIOS DE LA SEMANA

Primera Lectura Mientras Moisés preparaba a los israelitas para establecerse y vivir en la Tierra Prometida, los instó a permanecer cerca de los mandamientos y estatutos de Dios para convertirse en una "gran nación". ¿Por qué crees que tantas naciones se desvían de esta idea?

Segunda Lectura En los primeros versículos de su carta, Santiago insta a sus lectores a que "pongan en práctica esa palabra y no se limiten a escucharla, engañándose a ustedes mismos." ¿Por qué crees que este es un buen consejo?

Evangelio Volviendo al Evangelio de Marcos, escuchamos hoy cómo los líderes religiosos de Jerusalén cuestionaron a Jesús acerca de mantener "la tradición de sus mayores." Jesús respondió con la importancia de tener un corazón limpio. ¿Por qué es este un ejercicio espiritual tan desafiante?

¿Qué hace que una persona sea sabia e inteligente? Ciertamente, no es la capacidad de memorizar hechos o detalles minuciosos sobre una situación. Lo que hace a una persona sabia e inteligente es cuando sus palabras y acciones se unen armoniosamente y producen virtud. Una persona puede conocer muchos hechos e incluso realizar las acciones correctas, pero aún así tener un defecto grave en su carácter. A veces queremos engañarnos a nosotros mismos pensando que mientras "hagamos" todo correctamente, automáticamente estaremos en la relación correcta con todos. Lamentablemente, ese no es el caso en el reino de Dios. Estamos llamados a no ser solo oidores de la Palabra, sino también hacedores. Eso significa llegar al corazón de lo que las leyes y los rituales deben significar y nutrir. Si no llevamos las acciones a casa, donde pertenecen, y les permitimos hablar de la bondad, la misericordia, la compasión y el amor de Dios, entonces son simplemente gestos vacíos e inútiles. Acoge la Palabra que ha sido plantada dentro de ti para que puedas ser un discípulo verdaderamente sabio e inteligente de Jesucristo.
