MISSION STATEMENT

Our Community of St. Joseph Catholic Church endeavors to continue the mission of Christ, the salvation of souls. We do this by sharing our gifts of service and stewardship while reaching out and nourishing our families with Christ-love.

Fr. Regidor Carreon, Parochial Administrator

Remember in Your Prayers

ALL THOSE AFFECTED BY THE CORONAVIRUS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

Compassionate and Loving Father, In the face of confusion and concern impart to us the calm of Your presence. In You allow us to find hope and healing. Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands. Be with those who lead and give them Your spirit of wisdom. Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart. Wrap Your arms around our world and hold us in Your love. Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love to all we meet. We ask this in Your Name. Amen

PASTORAL REFLECTION

JESUS, THE WISDOM OF GOD

Just yesterday we came to this holy place to celebrate the Lord's birth. Today we return to expand that celebration to his immediate family, the HOLY FAMILY, Mary and Joseph cared for their Son, raising Him in the religious tradition of their faith. In this loving environment, Luke says, "Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man." Let us pray today that our families may provide fertile ground for our children to grow similarly.

In the Wisdom Books of the Bible, Proverb 22:6 states the following: "Instruct a child in the way he should go, and when he grows old he will not leave it." Today's Gospel seems to illustrate these words.

Luke tells us that after the family had journeyed to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover, unknown to his parents, Jesus stayed there. It was only after three days that Mary and Joseph found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.

This in itself tells a great deal, mainly, that Mary and Joseph had been doing a very great job fostering Jesus' love of Scripture and his knowledge of Jewish laws and customs, so much so that even at the age of twelve He was able to converse with the Jewish intelligentsia about such matters.

In the latter part of the Gospel, Luke makes the point that Jesus was obedient to his parents after they returned to Galilee. This suggests that his decision to stay in Jerusalem was not really an act of rebellion or disobedience. Most likely, besides enthralled by his discussions with the priests and scribes, Jesus wanted to make a point. "Did you not know that I had to be in my Father's house?" His ties to Mary and Joseph were as deep as any parents would desire and yet, when it was time, He had to follow a higher calling in obedience to a greater authority.

There is one more point. Whenever I have the chance, I always tell parents to instill in their children a love for God. Children respond to such teachings very well if it is done wisely – even more so when they see their parents doing what they teach them. Then, as the proverb puts it so well, as the children grow older, the chances are high that they will remember and practice what they have been taught. Amen!!!

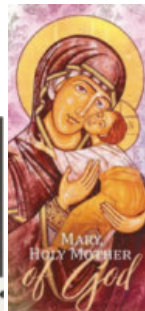

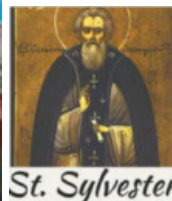

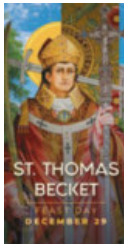

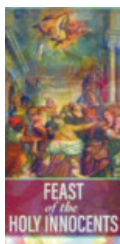

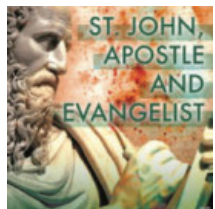

#108. A STORY ON FAMILY PRAYERS: Once a little boy of five was left alone with his father at bedtime. It had never happened before. After some maneuvering and a lot of fun, the father finally got the little fellow into his night clothes and was about to lift him into his bed when the child said, "But Daddy, I have to say my prayers."

So he knelt down beside his bed, folded his hands, raised his eyes to heaven, and prayed the usual: "Now I lay me down to sleep." But tonight he took another look at his Dad, and then continued to pray, "And dear God, make me a great big good man like my Daddy, Amen." In a moment he was in bed and within five minutes, asleep. Then, the father knelt by his son's bedside and prayed: "Dear Lord, make me a great big good man, like my boy thinks I am."

This Sunday in Canada is Boxing Day. On the 27th, we have the feast of St. John, Apostle and Evangelist and Patron of Asiatic Turkey. He is known as the 'disciple whom Jesus loved' and he is brother of St. James the Great. The 28th, is the feast of the Holy Innocents, the children who saved Jesus from the massacre of Herod. On the 29th, we have the fifth Octave of Christmas and the optional memorial St. Thomas Becket, Bishop and Martyr and considered the most famous martyr of the Middle Ages. On the 31st, we have the seventh day of the Octave of Christmas and the optional memorial of St. Sylvester I, Pope. This day is also our New Year's Eve, we have an evening Mass at 5:30PM. On Jan.1 we have the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God. It is also World Day of Peace. On this New Year's Day we have our Mass at 9:30AM only. There is no confession at 2:00PM and no Mass at 4:00PM. This is all for now watch for the next bulletin. A HAPPY, HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ONE AND ALL!!! GOD BLESS!

Today is the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, and so we can celebrate that we all belong to the holy family of God which makes us brothers and sisters to each other.

At Christmas this year, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring the joy and hope to our "brothers and sisters" who are poor by assisting families, providing in food, in gifts, and for utility and rent bills. Thank you!

MONTHLY COLLECTION

St. Vincent de Paul will take up their monthly collection THIS weekend, December 24th, 25th and 26th, following all Masses.
