Remember in Your Prayers

ALL THOSE AFFECTED BY THE CORONAVIRUS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

Compassionate and Loving Father, In the face of confusion and concern impart to us the calm of Your presence. In You allow us to find hope and healing. Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands. Be with those who lead and give them Your spirit of wisdom. Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart. Wrap Your arms around our world and hold us in Your love. Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love to all we meet. We ask this in Your Name. Amen

MISSION STATEMENT

Our Community of St. Joseph Catholic Church endeavors to continue the mission of Christ, the salvation of souls. We do this by sharing our gifts of service and stewardship while reaching out and nourishing our families with Christ-love.

Fr. Regidor Carreon, Parochial Administrator

PASTORAL REFLECTION

WELCOMING JESUS AND MARY IN OUR LIVES (JN. 2:1-11)

All weddings must be beautiful, meaningful and memorable. This is because it is really a solemn moment between TWO PEOPLE IN LOVE. It is their solemn moment with God. That is why MARRIAGE IS A SACRAMENT, and a sacred sign that bestows Sanctifying Grace. Both the New and the Old Testaments use the picture of a wedding banquet to portray the joy of the Kingdom of God.

For us, Catholic Christians it pays to cast a new look at the Sacrament of Marriage. Today, people hastily enter into it. Some enter into it without the sacrament. Some no longer believe it is necessary to get married, they just live in sin together because of love especially in America and many other countries. And this is a sad situation that many Christians experience in their relationship.

This Sunday's Gospel beautifully shows that the Wedding at Cana was so blessed because Jesus was invited there. Because of his Presence, grace filled the occasion. Grace filled the lives of the couple and all the people. WINE, a symbol of the joy that comes from God, flowed freely even after it already ran out. This happened because Jesus – together with his disciples – were invited to take part in the celebration.

This is a serious invitation to people who love each other and are contemplating marriage. This is also a daily challenge to couples who are already married and want to sustain the love relationship they have for each other. Let us then always invite Jesus to be part of all our relationships so that He can work out his miracles of love and his power to give joy, in spite of the challenges.

There was another presence, though subtle, that was not mentioned in the wedding. MARY, the mother of Jesus, was also there. She too, was invited. As Catholic Christians, we express our attachment to Mary because she is a constant and faithful companion who leads us to Jesus and obtain for us graces. Let us now confidently invite Jesus and Mary to journey with us in our everyday lives. JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH GUIDE, PROTECT AND SAVE US ALWAYS! AMEN!

#111. A STORY OF A POWERFUL GUEST AT HOME. Some time ago a woman wrote a fascinating article about redecorating her family's home. Things went well until her husband overruled the interior decoration and hung a 16-by 20- inch picture of Jesus in the most prominent place in the home.

The woman tried to get her husband to reconsider, but he absolutely refused. Then, during the discussion with him, she recalled these words of Jesus: "Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my Heavenly Father." (Mt. 10:32) That settled it. Her husband won. Now she says she is glad her husband won, because she thinks that picture of Jesus has had a remarkable effect on her family and on her visitors.

This week on Monday we have the feast of St. Anthony, Abbot, hermit and early founder of religious life, called the "Patriarch of Monks". It is also the birthday of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. (U.S.A.) On January 18-23, we have a week-long prayer for Christian Unity. On the 20th, we have the optional memorials of Ss. Fabian, Pope and Martyr and Sebastian, Martyr and patron of archers, soldiers and associations. On the 21st, we have the feast of St. Agnes, Virgin and Martyr. The 22nd is a Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. This is all for now, watch for the next bulletin.

CHURCH REBUILD UPDATE

The Dedication Mass on January 8th with Bishop Olmsted, Fr. Reggie and many other Priests and Deacons was amazing and well attended.

Most of the attendees stayed to enjoy the delicious food and refreshments, and the beautiful music of the quartet in the courtyard.

Keep in mind that there are still things to be done to bring the building to substantial completion, so please be patient.

The UPDATED Giving Opportunities list of interior, liturgical and iconic items that are still available is below. You can also still donate to the general Building Fund.

ST. JOSEPH,
PRAY FOR US

January 16: Second Sunday in Ordinary time
 In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus reveals himself to his disciples and they began to believe in him. Everyday, God also gives us signs of his love and so we also can respond in faith and trust.

Last month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brought the love and care of Jesus to the poor by assisting over 147 adults and children, providing $5,256.06 in food, shelter, utility bills, and Christmas gift cards. Thank you and God Bless you for your support!

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them reason to believe and to trust.
