SUNDAY OF LENT

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil.

- Lk 4:1-2a

Remember in Your Prayers

ALL THOSE AFFECTED BY THE CORONAVIRUS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

Compassionate and Loving Father, In the face of confusion and concern impart to us the calm of Your presence. In You allow us to find hope and healing. Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands. Be with those who lead and give them Your spirit of wisdom. Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart. Wrap Your arms around our world and hold us in Your love. Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love to all we meet. We ask this in Your Name. Amen

MISSION STATEMENT

Our Community of St. Joseph Catholic Church endeavors to continue the mission of Christ, the salvation of souls. We do this by sharing our gifts of service and stewardship while reaching out and nourishing our families with Christ-love.
Fr. Regidor Carreon, Parochial Administrator

LENTEN DISCIPLINES OF FASTING & ABSTINENCE

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.

Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.

PASTORAL REFLECTION

WHY WORSHIP THE DEVIL?

Back in 1971 our newspaper brought us a horrible and almost unbelievable news story. In Vineland, New Jersey, a 21 yrs old Mike Newell persuaded his two best friends to tie his hands and feet and drown him. Yes, you heard correctly. Mike convinced his two friends to push him into a pond and watch him die. Why? Mike was a worshipper of the devil. As such he had the wild idea that if he was murdered by his friends, he would be reborn as a leader of 40 legions of devils.

Today, a growing number of Americans are turning to worship the devil. On California St. in San Francisco there is a church of Satan with more than 10,000 dues-paying members. The movement is so important that Fordham, a catholic University in New York, has enrolled a class of 35 students to study all about the devil.

Why would human beings want to worship the devil? One reason is that many have given up the true religion and worship of the true God. Men must have some kind of religion. They turned to the opposite of God – the devil. Others are mentally unbalanced. Another reason is our modern urge to violence, to the unusual, the striking and shocking idea. Devil worship involves all of this. The young man who persuaded his friends to bind him and drown him, had conducted a service in honor of Satan in which he crushed two hamsters in the hands and wiped the blood on his sleeves.

How does a Catholic Christian look at this startling and abnormal honoring of the evil one? Worship of the devil is a complete flip-flop from the opinion of so many that there is no devil at all. Many refuse to believe anything that cannot be fully explained and understood. Put it in this way. Those who refuse to worship and serve the Good One, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, turn to the worship of the evil one.

In today's gospel Jesus meets the devil face to face. Christ answers all his so-called arguments and false promises. As followers of Christ you and I began our life in Christ, by rejecting Satan in the ceremony of Baptism. Again and again we are invited to repeat that renunciation of the devil. Reject him today. Reject him at the end of Lent as we repeat in the ceremonies of Easter Vigil, "I do reject Satan." In this Mass or celebration of Christ's victory over Satan which we just witnessed in the Gospel, we renew our loyalty to Jesus and our rejection of his greatest enemy Lucifer.

Instead of turning stones into bread, as the devil tempted Him to do, Jesus turns bread into His own living body. Instead of falling down and worshipping the evil one, we honor Christ with all our mind and all our heart. How the devil hates the Holy Mass! No wonder some of the most shocking ceremonies in the devil worship take the form of ridiculing and making fun of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Keep the picture in today's Good News clearly in mind during this Mass and all during Lent. The devil wants murder and cruelty, selfishness and hatred. Christ wants kindness and life, generosity and love. Which one will you honor – the Good One or the evil one? The answer is in you... God bless!

#118 A JOKE FROM ST. JOE. 'PRIESTS ARE HUMAN' There was once a young and pious priest waiting for a ride at a street corner. It was raining hard and he was getting soaked to the bones. Suddenly a car came along. He flagged it down in order to hitch a ride. As he boarded, he found out that the one behind the steering wheel was a young and very attractive lady.

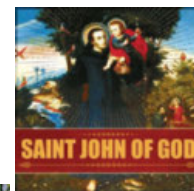

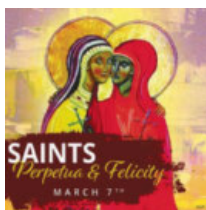

For spiritual protection the devout priest prayed to himself: "Lord. Deliver me from evil." As they ride on, a freak accident happened causing the car to slide and swerve off the road falling into a ditch. The vehicle overturned, knocking the two unconscious.

When the young priest regained consciousness, he saw his hand resting on the smooth tender hand of the lady (by accident, of course). Seeing the compromising situation, the pious priest looked up to heaven and prayed: "Lord, Thy will be done."

This week, on the 7th, we have the feasts of Sn. Perpetua and Felicity, a noble lady and a slave, both martyrs. On the 8th, we have the feast day of St. John of God, Religious and patron of hospitals and the sick, of nurses and booksellers. It is also International Women's Day. On the 9th, it is the feast day of St. Frances of Rome, Religious and patroness of widows and motorists. On the 13th, Daylight Saving time begins. This is all for now, watch for the next bulletin.

Your Priest-Servant and Parochial Administrator,

Fr. Reggie

PARISH UPDATE

Join us in praying for our first responders, healthcare professionals, elected officials, and all those who are working tirelessly to serve us during this pandemic.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, patroness of the Diocese of Phoenix, pray for us.

Guidelines are important – especially amidst a pandemic, but we can never forget the Encounter of the Living Jesus Christ!

CHURCH REBUILD UPDATE

There are still things to be done to bring the building to substantial completion, so please be patient.

The audio visual system company has been on-site to complete the install. We are hoping to have the remaining stained glass windows installed this month or beginning of next month. The baseboards are being installed. The Adoration Chapel has an electronic sign-in system.

Candles are again available for purchase in the parish office or from the ushers at weekend Masses. We will be using battery-operated votive candles, $2/each. After purchase, place in an empty wall sconce by the Saints. Parish staff will remove & recycle the candles as the battery dies.

The UPDATED Giving Opportunities list of interior, liturgical and iconic items that are still available is below. You can also still donate to the general Building Fund.

All dinners include fries, coleslaw, dessert and drink.

PRAYER. FASTING. ALMSGIVING

"As one of the three pillars of Lenten practice, almsgiving is "a witness to fraternal charity" and "a work of justice pleasing to God." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2462)."

Catholic Charities invites you to pray and fast for those we walk alongside during this Lenten season.

- Children in Foster Care
- Homelessness & Homeless Veterans
- Refugees and Immigrants seeking a better life
- Families working to stay together
- Victims of domestic violence and their children
- Mothers in need
- Individuals needing counseling services

Give alms by simply purchasing a gift card for groceries/gas/food/clothing, write your parish name, who you want to help and mail it to: Catholic Charities, 4747 N 7th Ave, Phoenix, AZ 85013.

Easily donate online at CatholicCharitiesAZ.org and click on Ways To Give.
