PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH DURING CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

O St. Joseph, husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Foster Father of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, we turn to you in our time of need knowing fully that you are a source of consolation, comfort and solace. Comforter of the Afflicted and Hope of the Sick, help those throughout the world who have coronavirus; bring them strength, perseverance and healing. Patron of the Dying, deliver the souls of those who are dying of the coronavirus into the merciful arms of your Son, Jesus Christ. Joseph Most Courageous, help those on the front lines of this pandemic with health of mind and body and assist them with their challenges and strife. And finally, in times of fear and anxiety, take us under your loving protection and aid us from on high. Amen

MISSION STATEMENT

Our Community of St. Joseph Catholic Church endeavors to continue the mission of Christ, the salvation of souls. We do this by sharing our gifts of service and stewardship while reaching out and nourishing our families with Christ-love.

Fr. Regidor Carreon, Parochial Administrator

Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal. Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.

PASTORAL REFLECTION

“SEEING JESUS IN A WHOLE NEW WAY”

During His Transfiguration, the disciples saw Jesus in a whole new way. For the first time they saw from the outside what Jesus was on the inside: the glorious, handsome Son of God.

This raises the question: Why is the Transfiguration of Jesus placed among the Lenten readings, which are usually somber, instead of being placed among the Easter readings, which usually deal with the agony of Jesus. The answer to this question lies in the context in which we find the Transfiguration in the Gospel. It occurred right after Jesus told his disciples that He must go to Jerusalem to suffer and die. When Peter heard Jesus say this, he cried out, “God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you.” Jesus rebuked Peter and said: “Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do.” Peter, James and John probably needed a spiritual shot in the arm after that shocking experience.

Perhaps that’s also why the Church puts the Transfiguration in the Lenten readings. The Church wants to give us a shot in the arm before it turns our attention to the suffering of Jesus on Good Friday. But there’s another reason why the Transfiguration is placed among the Lenten readings. It’s because the Transfiguration bears a striking similarity to the agony in the Garden. Like the agony in the garden, which took place on a mountain – the Mount of Olives, the Transfiguration also took place on a mountain – Mount Tabor, and was also witnessed by only the three disciples, Peter, James and John. The Transfiguration took place at night, as did the agony in the garden, and in both instances the disciples fell asleep while Jesus remained awake, praying.

Finally, here’s the important reason, these two events – the agony in the garden and the Transfiguration – complement each other. On Mount Tabor the three disciples saw Jesus in a moment of ecstasy, when His Divinity shone through in a way that it had never done before. On the Mount of Olives, on the other hand, they saw Jesus in a moment of agony, where His humanity shone through in a way it had never done before. The Mount of Olives and Mount Tabor reveal in striking contrast the humanity and the Divinity of Jesus. The two mountain events are inseparable sides of the same coin. They show us the total Jesus in a total way: His humanity and His Divinity.

And it’s right here that these two mountain events contain an important and practical message for us. Like Jesus, we also have a twofold dimension about us. There is in each one of us something that is human and something that is divine. There is in each one of us a spark of Adam and a spark of God. Like Jesus, on the Mount of Olives, we too experience moments of agony. During these moments, the spark of Adam surfaces so sharply in us that the spark of God flickers and almost dies.

During these moments, life is miserable. We feel that no one loves us. We find fault with our friends, and we curse our enemies. We question whether God actually exists. On the other hand, like Jesus on Mount Tabor, we also experience moments of ecstasy, when the spark of God shines through so brightly it almost blinds us. We feel so close to God that we almost reach out and touch Him.

During these moments, we marvel at how beautiful life is. We love everyone. We hug our friends and forgive our enemies. When these moments of agony and ecstasy come, we should recall that Jesus too experienced these same high points and low points of His life. We should remember something more important, on both occasions, during His ecstasy on Mt. Tabor and during His agony on the Mount of Olives, Jesus Prayed.

If prayer was the way Jesus responded to these moments in His life, then prayer should also be the way we respond to the high and low points in our lives. In every Mass we are present for a mountaintop experience, for the Risen Christ is truly present in our midst as we read the Sacred Scriptures and share His Body, Blood and Divinity in Holy Communion. In each and every Mass God is saying to us as surely as He said it from the cloud on the transfiguration mountain: “THIS IS MY CHOSEN SON. LISTEN TO HIM.”

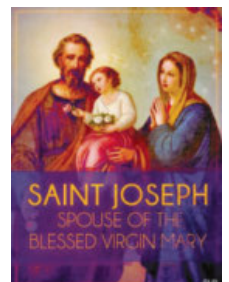

This Sunday Daylight Savings Time begins. On the 17th, we have the feast day of St. Patrick, Bishop, patron of Nigeria, and apostle and patron of Ireland. On the 18th, we have the optional memorial of St. Cyril of Jerusalem, Bishop and on the 19th, we celebrate our Patronal Feast Day of St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and Patron of the Universal Church, of workers and carpenters and Guardian of the Redeemer. This is all for now, watch for the next bulletin. God Bless!!!

March 13: Second Sunday of Lent

Lent is a call not just to “give up something” but more important to “give something for the poor.” Wherever you live in the parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they ring the rectory bell. They are, in effect, ringing your doorbell.

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help the poor, the suffering, and the deprived.
