7th SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come. Give glory to your son, so that your son may glorify you." - Jn 17:1

MISSION STATEMENT

Our Community of St. Joseph Catholic Church endeavors to continue the mission of Christ, the salvation of souls. We do this by sharing our gifts of service and stewardship while reaching out and nourishing our families with Christ-love.

Fr. Regidor Carreon, Parochial Administrator

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Divine Power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer our prayers. Amen.

BE AWARE:

If you receive an email or text that appears to be from Fr. Reggie asking you to take some kind of unusual action—click a link or download an attachment you didn't request, wire money to a specified account, purchase gift cards, etc., please disregard as this is a scam/phishing attempt. ALSO, there have been reports of a man who is aggressively approaching women after Mass asking for money. Please be aware of your surroundings and alert someone if you feel unsafe. When in doubt, contact the Parish office. Stay Safe!

PASTORAL REFLECTION

GONE, BUT STILL WITH US WITH HIS LOVING PRESENCE

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension of the Lord. It marks the end of the Lord's Public Ministry. The work of Christ was indescribably hard and challenging – to live the ideal life, to serve others, to teach, to suffer and die, and to start and establish the CHURCH. Hence the theme might well be: MISSION ACCOMPLISHED.

His Ascension, however, does not mean that Christ is no longer with us. In fact, Matthew, the only evangelist who did not have an account of the Ascension; writes: "I am with you always until the end of the world." Although Matthew set the scene of the Ascension, he stopped short of actually saying that Jesus ascended. Perhaps this is Matthew's way of stressing the 'staying' of Jesus with us instead of 'going away' to heaven. This is calling attention to the Lord's invisible presence in our midst – his sacramental presence transcending barriers of time and space that's opposed to the historical, visible presence limited by space and time when He was still in the world. With this we are confronted with the paradox or mystery that Jesus has gone away but, in another sense, is still with us here on earth. Our Lord's Ascension to Heaven teaches us that our final destiny is not in this world but in the next life. WHERE HE WENT, WE WILL FOLLOW. As important as Christ's teaching of our heavenly destiny is his abiding presence in our world. Although, He had left, He is still very much with us. Thus, the name "EMMANUEL" which means "God is with us". (Mt. 1:23)

Some people say they find God to be silent and distant, but He is with us though we are not aware of his presence. He is with us when we read his Words in the Bible, when we gather together in his name in the EUCHARIST. We experience his being his being with us here and now and when we care and minister to the least of our brothers and sisters. That is the meaning when we say: "When we love – God acts." Finally, as others attest, God is with us when we experience his presence and power in our lives: in peak moments of joy and success as well as in the ebb of life's trials and difficulties. But what we need are the eyes of faith to see his abiding presence in all the circumstances of our lives. Please never forget this...! Amen! God Bless!

26. A MESSAGE FROM ST. JOE: "THE PROMISE OF JESUS' ASCENSION" In Ascending into Heaven, Christ brought with Him the souls of the OT which had been waiting for Him in Limbo – the souls for all these many centuries had died but could not enter heaven – the souls who had waited so many centuries for the Messiah to come and save them.

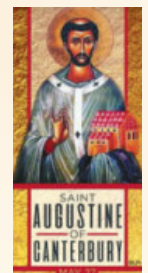

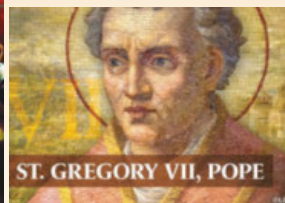

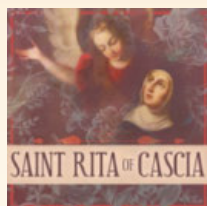

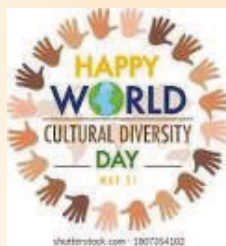

Now at last their longing and their prayers were answered. The Messiah had come, Christ in reentering Heaven, opened the gates of heaven to all mankind. Now once again man could attain eternal happiness. He led a glorious procession of saints of the OT into heaven with Him. Among was ST. JOSEPH, his foster father, who died some time before.

His Ascension into heaven with his human body is a pledge of our own ascension on the day of the last judgment. Heaven is now the home of his human body, we can rely on his PROMISE that it will become the home for us on the day of general judgment. An Insurance and a sure guarantee!

This Sunday is the World Communications Day and a World Day for Cultural Diversity. On the 22nd, we remember St. Rita of Cascia, Religious and patron saint of those in desperate situations. It is also Victoria Day (Canada). On the 25th, we have three optional memorials of Ss. Bede the Venerable, Priest and Doctor of the Church; also known as the "Father of English history." then Gregory VII, Pope; Mary Magdalene de' Pazzi, Virgin and Carmelite mystic of Florence. On the 26, we have the feast of St. Philip Neri, Priest and Founder of the Congregation of Priest of the Oratory (C.O.) also known as the "Apostle of Rome". On the 27, we have the optional memorial of St. Augustine of Canterbury, Bishop and known as recipient of a pallium as Primate of England. This is all for now, watch for the next bulletin. God Bless!

Your Priest-Servant and Parochial Administrator,

Fr. Reggie

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL PRAYER

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of Your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, who promised to stay with us always, until the end of the age.

Reawaken our wonder at His presence in the Most Holy Eucharist. May our hearts burn within us as He opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread. Give us the eyes of faith to recognize His presence in our brothers and sisters, especially in the face of the poor and the suffering.

Nourished by the Eucharist, send us forth to walk faithfully as missionary disciples, proclaiming the Gospel to every heart and extending Your kingdom to every land. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
