Can You Walk the Walk?

I've met and talked with enough people to feel confident that if you polled 100 fallen-away Catholics about why they didn't want anything to do with the Church, the term "accountability" would pop up in almost all of their answers.

And to be fair, a lack of accountability isn't just a Catholic problem. Talking the talk but not walking the walk has been a shortcoming handed down throughout the ages, across all creeds and nationalities.

Loving our neighbor, welcoming the stranger, clothing the naked, feeding the poor — it all sounds fantastic, especially when we're the ones saying it. But the doing — well, that's a different story, isn't it? We would do well to remember that Christ calls one of his best friends "Satan" when Peter tries to convince Jesus to stray from his destiny.

Have you ever been called Satan by one of your good buddies? I'll bet it's not a great feeling. But think about what Peter was doing. He had just said, "You are the Christ." And now, mere moments later, he's saying: "Don't say these things. Don't say you're going to suffer. Don't say you'll be killed."

He was telling Christ to squander what the Lord had given him. He was telling him that having faith was fine, but being faithful? It's just a little too hard. God has a destiny for you, too, and He's asking you to be open to it. Maybe it's not in your comfort zone. Maybe you don't think you can do it.

Lord, give us faith — but help us, also, to do the work.

THIS and That

¿Puedes hacer lo que predicas?

He conocido y hablado con suficientes personas como para sentirme seguro de que si encuestaras a 100 católicos alejados sobre por qué no querían tener nada que ver con la Iglesia, el término "responsabilidad" aparecería en casi todas sus respuestas.

Y para ser justos, la falta de responsabilidad no es solo un problema católico. Hablar y no hacer lo que se predica ha sido una deficiencia transmitida a lo largo de los siglos, en todos los credos y nacionalidades.

Amar a nuestro prójimo, dar la bienvenida al extraño, vestir al desnudo, alimentar al pobre, todo suena fantástico, especialmente cuando somos nosotros los que lo decimos. Pero el hacerlo ... bueno, esa es una historia diferente, ¿no es así? Haríamos bien en recordar que Cristo llama a uno de sus mejores amigos "Satanás" cuando Pedro trata de convencer a Jesús de que se desvíe de su destino.

¿Alguna vez te ha llamado Satanás uno de tus buenos amigos? Apuesto a que no es una gran sensación. Pero piensa en lo que estaba haciendo Pedro. Él acababa de decir: "Tú eres el Cristo". Y ahora, momentos después, dice: "No digas estas cosas. No digas que vas a sufrir. No digas que te matarán."

Le estaba diciendo a Cristo que desperdiciara lo que el Señor le había dado. Le estaba diciendo que tener fe estaba bien, pero ¿ser fiel? Es un tanto demasiado difícil. Dios también tiene un destino para ti y te pide que estés abierto a él. Quizás no estés en tu zona de confort. Tal vez no creas que puedes hacerlo.

Señor, danos fe, pero ayúdanos también a hacer el trabajo.

VATICAN CORNER

continued Another poor reason people give for not taking the vaccines is concern about side effects. The vaccines can sometimes cause aches, fever and fatigue but only for a short time. In fact such side effects are a sign that the vaccine is getting the immune system ready for a Covid -19 attack. It is very rare that blood clots are a side effect. So far there have been only 28 cases of blood clots in the 8.7 million people who got the Johnson & Johnson shot, and none have been found in anyone who got the Moderna or Pfizer shots. Long term health risks such as infertility are just unproven rumors. The real and present health risk is the virus. Another concern people have is the authorization of the vaccine by the Food and Drug Administration is only for emergency use. There have been many safety and efficacy checks already but six months of follow-up on those who received the vaccine in the clinical trials is required for full approval. The Pfizer vaccine has just received full approval and the Moderna vaccine should receive full approval and soon. That may encourage more people to get vaccinated. Non-trust in the government agencies or companies that developed the vaccines is another poor reason used to avoid the vaccines. Educational campaigns can possibly get people to change their minds. There are a variety of conspiracy theories about the vaccine which have been spread by only a handful of people using the internet and social media. Lies and myths are easily propagated nowadays, and people need to stop and use their common sense, and question the messages they are receiving and their sources. If enough people are not convinced to get the vaccine, the virus could lurk around for years to come.

The Vatican so far has had 27 cases of Coronavirus, with 0 deaths, and those 27 people recovered. The whole of Italy is currently in the “white” Covid status which permits travel freely throughout the country. It also means there is no curfew and masks do not need to be worn outdoors if distant from others, when exercising, or anywhere if eating or drinking. It is a paradox, but given the immense tragedy that has caused the need for these rules, there has never been a better time to visit the Vatican. You will have the place nearly to yourself, guided tours will be limited to ten, and visitor numbers will be strictly regulated by time slots. You may no longer line up to buy tickets for the Vatican Museums, they instead must be booked in advance. You must arrive on time. If you miss the very short time-slot you have been allocated to start your visit, you will be denied entry. The Vatican is a different country than Italy and its own laws apply. You must wear a mask that covers your mouth and nose during your visit to the Vatican Museums. You may be expelled from the Museums if you break this rule, or even prosecuted. These rules also include visits to the Vatican Gardens, but there is now a great socially-distanced open-topped bus tour of the gardens. St. Joachim Confirmation 2021

Saturday September 18th at 12:00 PM

Please keep the 44 confirmandi's in your thoughts and prayers as they prepare this week for their confirmation.

The confirmation celebration will be live streamed and available live on our facebook page .

AN ACT OF FAITH

O my God, I firmly believe that you are one God in three divine persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. I believe that your divine Son became man and died for our sins, and that he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches, because you have revealed them and you can neither deceive nor be deceived.
Amen.

"...you are attaining the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls."
(cf. 1Petr1:9)

AN ACT OF HOPE

O my God, relying on Your almighty power and infinite mercy and promises, I hope to obtain pardon of my sins, the help of Your grace and life everlasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ, my Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope. -Rm15:13

AN ACT OF CHARITY

O my God, I love you above all things with my whole heart and soul because you are all good and worthy of all my love. I love my neighbor as myself for the love of you. I forgive all who have injured me and ask pardon of all whom I have injured. Amen.

Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, [love] is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails. -1Cor13:4-8a
