Diocese of Oakland Synod Youth Listening Session

St. Joachim was well represented at the Diocese Synod Youth Listening Session — Both of our Representatives from Youth Ministry Core Team were speakers in their small groups. Our Confirmation students had answered the Synod questions in class, the leaders compiled the answers and then our Representatives brought the answers to the Diocese wide meeting . Thank you Ariana and Andrea — you represented us well — and it looks like you shared a laugh with the Bishop too!!

Oracion San Miguel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la batalla.
Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y asechanzas del demonio. Reprímale Dios, pedimos suplicantes,
y tú Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial,
con el divino poder de Dios, arroja al infierno a Satanás y a todos los espíritus malignos que andan dispersos por el mundo para la perdición de las almas.
Amén.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God
rebuke him we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

VATICAN CORNER

Vatican is ready to do everything to help the Ukrainian people achieve peace. He has sent two high ranking cardinals: Konrad Krajewski and Michael Czerny to Ukraine “to serve the people, and help.” Francis said “the presence of the two cardinals there is the presence not only of the pope, but of all the Christian people who want to get closer and say: ‘War is madness! Stop, please! Look at this cruelty!’” Cardinal Czerny first went to Budapest, Hungary and visited the Keleti train station where he met Caritas volunteers who were receiving the refugees fleeing the violence in Ukraine. Among those refugees were students from Nigeria, China and Vietnam, and despite reports of discrimination, those student experience no difficulties crossing into Hungary. The Cardinal met on March 9th with Hungary’s deputy prime minister who assured the Cardinal that Hungary would welcome all refugees from Ukraine “without limits.” Cardinal Krajewski met with Caritas volunteers helping refugees in several Polish cities near the Ukrainian border. According to a Polish newspaper, the Polish cardinal had been asked by journalists if he was afraid of entering a war zone. He said “I am afraid, as everyone is afraid, but I went to confession before leaving; I have no debts, I wrote a will, I go freely to bring the Gospel. I want to be with these people.” The Cardinal then went to Lviv in western Ukraine and met with Archbishop Shevchuk, the head of the Ukrainian Catholic Church and Archbishop Mokrzycki, head of the Latin-rite Archdiocese of Lviv. Shevchuk had traveled from Kyiv to Lviv the day before to meet Cardinal Krajewski and help him fulfil the mission Pope Francis had entrusted to him, which may include helping the Cardinal get to Kyiv “if possible”. The Cardinal’s plan in Lviv was to visit a variety of social service centers and take part in a March 10, joint prayer service with representative of the Ukrainian Council of Churches and religious organizations. On March 9th the Vatican’s Secretary of State Pietro Parolin criticized attacks on hospitals and said the bombing of medical centers for women and children is unacceptable, no matter the reason. He repeated the Vatican’s willingness to mediate peace talks between Ukraine and Russia if requested. He admitted there was little space for negotiations but expressed hope some agreement could be reached. Cardinal Parolin also spoke of the homily that the leader of the Russian Orthodox Church made Sunday March 6. He said that leader, Patriarch Kirill’s statements do not encourage or promote an understanding, and his words risk further inflaming tempers leading to an escalation that does not resolve the crisis in a peaceful way. Patriarch Kirill sent a strong signal justifying Russia’s invasion of Ukraine, describing the conflict as part of a struggle against sin and pressure from liberal foreigners to hold “gay parades” as the price of admission to their ranks. Kirill has been a longtime ally of Russian President Vladimir Putin. His homily repeated Putin’s unfounded claims that Ukraine was exterminating Russian loyalist in Donbas, the breakaway eastern region of Ukraine. Kirill made no mention of Russia’s invasion and its bombardment of civilians. Many Orthodox Christians in Ukraine have been appalled by Kirill’s position on the war. ... to be continued

THE EUCHARISTIC MIRACLES OF THE WORLD

Come View the display of 112 Eucharistic Miracles from around the world. They are all organized by country, so you can read one miracle , or all one countries or one from every country — Read them at your own pace. They are on display in the Hall and the Hall will be open Saturday after the first mass till after the last mass and on Sunday from after the First mass till the last mass of the day . Would you like to come and see this display but can't make it at the above times — contact the Rectory office and see if we can find some available time on Monday or Tuesday.

Donations for the People of Ukraine ~~ We have an easy and safe way for you to give to the People of Ukraine that have had to flee their Country for their own safety. We are collecting in the Church at the box under the book of prayers in front of the ambo (see the picture below) or if you would like to donate on line go to our website ( St.Joachim.net), click on Donate/Pay then select Ukraine to donate. We will be sending the money to Fr. Henry's home parish as they are helping the refugees coming in to Poland. 100% of what we collect will go towards helping those that are displaced and fleeing to Poland for safety. ~~~Thank You
