Prayer for Ukraine

Heavenly Father, Your Son taught us "Blessed are the Peacemakers for they shall be called Children of God."

In this time of great worry, we fervently pray that Your Holy Spirit sustain all the people of Ukraine to be vigilant and dedicated to peace and justice. Grant their leaders wisdom and prudence. Yet, may they also have the strength and perseverance to defend their land from all adversity and foreign attacks. Help us all to live according to your Divine Will.

O God, our Father, in the days to come, we beseech you to comfort the suffering, heal the wounded, and accept the souls of the faithful departed into Your Heavenly Kingdom. We ask also that the Most Holy Mother of God extend her blessed mantle of protection over our Ukraine.

Amen

Oración por Ucrania

Padre celestial, tu hijo nos enseñó:
"Bienaventurados los pacificadores porque ellos serán llamados hijos de Dios".

En este momento de gran preocupación, oramos fervientemente para que Tu Espíritu Santo sostenga a todo el pueblo de Ucrania para que esté vigilante y dedicado a la paz y la justicia. Concede a sus líderes sabiduría y prudencia. Sin embargo, que ellos también tengan la fuerza y la perseverancia para defender su tierra de todas las adversidades y ataques extranjeros. Ayúdanos a todos a vivir de acuerdo a tu Divina Voluntad.

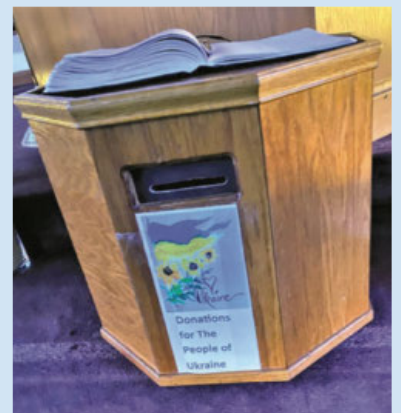

Oh Dios, Padre nuestro, en los días venideros, te suplicamos que consueles a los que sufren, sanes a los heridos y aceptes las almas de los fieles difuntos en Tu Reino Celestial. Pedimos también que la Santísima Madre de Dios extienda su bendito manto de protección sobre nuestra Ucrania.
amén

VATICAN CORNER

... Russian

Patriarch Kirill, the leader of the Russian Orthodox Church and an ally of Russian president Putin has tried to justify his country's invasion of Ukraine and has not called for a stop to the war. Rev. Mykola Danilevich of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church says that Kirill helped "supply the ideology" that Putin has used to justify Russian dominance over the region, and in return the church has received strong government support. Archbishop Daniel of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the USA said that even if Kirill wanted to speak out, he can't, "he is a completely unfree figure that needs to follow faithfully the official narrative."

For centuries the Moscow patriarch has had the loyalty of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church, and even though the Kyiv-based branch of the Orthodox Church of Ukraine formed in 2018 & 2019, bishops, priests, monks and the faithful have remained loyal to Kirill. But now the war has broken that loyalty for some. Ukrainian bishops have authorized their priests not to commemorate Patriarch Kirill in their prayers during public worship services. At least 15 dioceses have taken this step and at least two dioceses have called for independence from the Moscow church. Rev. John Burgess, a professor at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary said the clerics that are distancing themselves from Kirill could be "risking their very future." "If President Putin and the Russians truly prevail in Ukraine, what will happen to these bishops?" "They will be removed, or they'll have to go into the underground." Pope Francis and Patriarch Kirill met in person in Cuba in 2016 and signed a joint statement lamenting the then on-going conflict in eastern Ukraine. Their ending statement said, "In order to ensure a solid and enduring peace, specific efforts must be undertaken to rediscover the common values uniting us, based on the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ." On March 16, 2022, Pope Francis made a video call to Patriarch Kirill. A Vatican statement about the call said that their conversation focused "on the war and on the role of Christians and their pastors in doing everything to ensure that peace prevails." The statement said that the two religious leaders agreed that "The Church must not use the language of politics, but the language of Jesus." Pope Francis added that "we are shepherds of the same Holy People who believe in God, in the Holy Trinity, in the Holy Mother of God: that is why we must unite in the effort to aid peace, to help those who suffer, to seek ways of peace, and to stop the fire." The statement also said that both stressed the exceptional importance of the ongoing negotiation process, because, according to the Pope, "those who pay the price for war are the people; it is Russian soldiers and common people who are bombed and die.... our hearts cannot but weep before the children and women killed, along with all the victims of war. War is never the way. The Marian apparition of Our Lady of Fátima on July 13, 1917 requested that by consecrating Russia, it would bring a period of peace in the world. That consecration of Russia was performed by Pope Francis in 2013, and was also performed by 4 previous popes. On March 25, 2022 that consecration will take place again by Pope Francis. To be continued ...
