Common Mistakes Catholics Make during Mass

The mass is a sacrament and also a sacrifice in which Jesus Christ Body and Soul and Blood and Divinity are contained and receive under the appearance of bread and wine.

The mass was instituted by Jesus Christ on Holy Thursday, during the Last Supper.

The Mass is divided into two parts

The Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

Let us now highlight the common mistakes made by Catholics during the celebration of the Holy Mass

1. Improper Attire -This is very common nowadays. Some churchgoers thought that they were going for a beach party or a walk in the park or in a basketball court; still others, they are unaware of the scandal they create because of very revealing dress or pants. We should be aware that we are to attend a religious celebration and therefore we should dress proper to the occasion, wear your Sunday best!!

2. Sitting before the Priest sits—in the Mass the presider is the representative of Christ in that Mass and it is inappropriate for the congregation to sit before he does. After the Priest has said the opening prayers and it's time for the Mass readings, the congregation has to wait for the presider to sit before they do, unless in some situations where the priest asks the congregation to sit.

3. Making the sign of the cross repeatedly in the Mass—This is the mistake that many Catholics make most of the time. Making the sign of the cross repeatedly during Mass, especially after receiving the sacred hosts on Holy Communion, which is very wrong. The sign of the cross is made at only two parts of the Mass, in the beginning and at the end. The threefold small sign of the cross when the gospel is being proclaimed is made to prepare our intellect, our lips, and our mind to listen attentively to the Gospel.

Errores comunes que cometen los católicos durante la misa

La misa es un sacramento y también un sacrificio en el que Jesucristo Cuerpo, Alma, Sangre y Divinidad están contenidos y recibidos bajo la apariencia de pan y vino.

La misa fue instituida por Jesucristo el Jueves Santo, durante la Última Cena.

La misa se divide en dos partes.

La Liturgia de la Palabra y la Liturgia de la Eucaristía.

Resaltemos ahora los errores comunes cometidos por los católicos durante la celebración de la Santa Misa.

1. Vestimenta Inapropiada – Esto es muy común hoy en día. Algunos asistentes a la iglesia piensan que van a una fiesta en la playa o a un paseo por el parque o a una cancha de basketball; otros más, desconocen el escándalo que arman por llevar un vestido o pantalón muy revelador. Debemos ser conscientes de que vamos a asistir a una celebración religiosa y por lo tanto debemos vestarnos apropiadamente para la ocasión, lucir lo mejor del domingo!!

2. Sentarse antes de que se siente el Sacerdote: en la Misa, el sacerdote es el representante de Cristo en esa Misa y es inappropriate que la congregación se siente antes que él.

Después de que el sacerdote haya dicho las oraciones de apertura y sea el momento de las lecturas de la Misa, la congregación debe esperar a que el sacerdote se siente antes de hacerlo, a Errores comunes que cometen los católicos durante la misa menos que en algunas situaciones el sacerdote le pida a la congregación que se siente.

3. Hacer la señal de la cruz repetidamente en la Misa. Este es el error que muchos católicos cometen la mayor parte del tiempo. Hacer la señal de la cruz repetidamente durante la Misa, especialmente después de recibir las sagradas hostias en la Sagrada Comunión, lo cual está muy mal. La señal de la cruz se hace en sólo dos partes de la Misa, al principio y al final.

La triple señal pequeña de la cruz cuando se proclama el evangelio se hace para preparar nuestro intelecto, nuestros labios y nuestra mente para escuchar atentamente el evangelio.

VATICAN CORNER

Hi readers, this is the 500th time I have written this column, so I decided to make this edition a celebration!!!. Writing about the Vatican was the idea of our former pastor - Rev. Joseph Antony Sebastian, SVD. I thought it was a good idea too, and a way for me to learn more about my Catholic religion and pass that information on to others. My wife, who works so hard every week composing and assembling the church bulletin, also thought it was a good idea, because the column could be used as a hole filler when the bulletin needs more content. So, on Sunday January 6, 2013 my column filled its first hole in the bulletin, and except for three other times, it has been filling a hole ever week since. That's five hundred weeks, about 9.5 years, and I have always tried to write about something I find interesting. I'm also always worrying about finding something new to write about for the next week. But with God's help, something always seems to come along to solve that problem. Writing a column has given me great respect for reporters and journalist who do this work for a living. I am just a church volunteer who borrows the works of others and tries to piece together stories, facts and ideas, using several sources if possible. My writing principle has been to first make the information understandable to myself, and then hopefully convey it clearly to the readers. At the same time I am trying to avoid plagiarism and give credit to the authors of the original source material. Tuesday morning is usually the printing company's deadline for the next Saturday afternoon bulletin edition, so most Monday nights you will find our house very sleep deprived. Also when there is a holiday coming, two bulletins are needed in one week so it becomes doubly difficult. Pope Benedict XVI left office soon after this column began, so Pope Francis has been featured much of the time. The column has concentrated on Vatican news and activities, its people and history. Francis' many trips to other countries have been written about as well as the many religious celebrations, scandals and successes. I truly believe that God has kept me around to do some of his work on earth, and writing the Vatican corner is part of that work. I would like to thank Father Joseph Antony and Father Henry for allowing me the privilege of writing for the church bulletin. I would like to thank all the professional writers who I have borrowed material from over the years and those I will be borrowing from in the future. I would like to thank my wife for proofing the column and putting up with all my nonsense. Writing the Vatican Corner is a labor of love and I will continue with it as long as I can. What do people say about the column? I don't hear many comments either good or bad. That is probably because I try to stay somewhat anonymous, or maybe it's my ears. But sometimes I have the thought that our church bulletin goes unopened much of the time and our work goes completely unread, and instead is placed under the bird cage, to catch poop. However, I have heard several people say that the April fool column of 2017 was their favorite. I still have old copies of that column if anyone of you would like to buy one, just kidding. By the way, in 2023, April Fool's Day falls on a Saturday again like in 2017, so watch out another April Fool's edition may be in your future.
