LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

John the Baptist had been told that he would see the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world. He listened, he believed, and he kept his eyes open. He was ready when God revealed the truth. Let's ask ourselves: are our eyes open? Are we ready?

VATICAN CORNER

Pope Emeritus
Benedict XVI died

on December 31, 2022 at the Mater Ecclesiae Monastery in Vatican City at the age of 95. The Director of the Press Office of the Holy See, Matteo Bruni made the announcement and said Pope Francis went to see Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI soon after he received the news on Saturday morning. Benedict's personal secretary Archbishop Georg Gänswein reported that a nurse was the only person with Benedict at his passing, and the last words Benedict uttered shortly before his death were "Lord, I love you." Benedict had been pope emeritus since his resignation in 2013 which was due to his ill health and advanced age. His resignation shocked the Catholic Church when it happened, since no pope had resigned in 600 years. Three days prior to Benedict's passing, Pope Francis had announced deterioration in Benedict's health and asked for the faithful to pray for him. Benedict's death ended the period of nine years when both the current and former pope lived within the Vatican. Benedict's body lay in state on January 2nd through 4th in St. Peter's Basilica where nearly 200,000 mourners paid their respects. About 50,000 people gathered in St. Peter's Square on January 5, 2023 for Benedict's funeral Mass which was presided over by Pope Francis. As per Benedict's wishes, the funeral was a simple one and it was a very solemn occasion. There were more than 4,000 priests, 400 bishops, and at least 120 cardinals attending. There was also tight security with 1,000 Italian security personnel deployed to ensure safety at the event. Because Benedict was no longer a head of state when he died, only two countries Italy and his native Germany, sent official delegations to the funeral. But other world leaders and royals attended in their private capacities. Mourners dressed in black and fog covered the top of the Basilica. The ceremony began with a prayer from Pope Francis for Benedict, and readings were in Spanish, English and Latin. Hymns were sung by the Sistine Chapel Choir including Psalms 23 and Hallelujah. Pope Francis honored Benedict in his homily, but did not dwell on his legacy. Prayers were also in German, French, Arabic, Portuguese and Italian. Francis placed his hand on the coffin as it was being carried into St. Peter's Basilica and the crowd cheered and applauded. In the Basilica the plain cypress coffin containing Benedict's body was encased in zinc before being sealed in a second wooden casket. At his request, Benedict was buried in the crypt under the basilica alongside his predecessors and where John XXIII and John Paul II were interred before their remains were transferred to more prominent places in the basilica above. Like his predecessor Pope John Paul II, Pope Emeritus Benedict left behind a spiritual testament apologizing to "anyone I have wronged in any way." He thanked his father, for his "lucid faith" that taught his children to believe; his brother, also a priest, for his judgment and guidance, and his sister, who took care of him for decades. And he called on the faithful to "Stay steady in the faith." To be continued ...

Saint of the Week

Known as the Snowshoe Priest, Venerable Bishop Frederic Baraga, was a lifelong missionary to the Native American people of the upper Midwest. He loved the people he served, knew their languages, and even published the first Ojibwe-English dictionary!

Prayer

O God, thank you for the life and holiness of your servant, Frederic Baraga.

I pray you will honor him by the title of Saint. He dedicated himself completely to missionary activity to make you known, loved, and served by the people who you love. As a man of peace and love, Baraga brought peace and love wherever he traveled.

Lord, grant Venerable Bishop Baraga the grace of beatification.

We ask this in Christ name.

Amen.

A prayer for the soul of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

Father, eternal shepherd, hear the prayers of your people for your servant
Benedict,
who governed your Church with love.
In your mercy, bring him with the flock once entrusted to his care
to the reward you have promised your faithful servants.

May he who faithfully administered the mysteries of your forgiveness and love on earth,
rejoice with you for ever in heaven.

In your wise and loving care,
you made your servant teacher of all your Church.
He did the work of Christ on earth.

May your Son welcome him into eternal glory.
May your servant whom you appointed high priest of your flock be counted now among the priests in the life of your kingdom.

Give your servant the reward of eternal happiness and let your mercy win for us the gift of your life and love.

We entrust your servant to your mercy with faith and confidence.

In the human family he was an instrument of your peace and love.

May he rejoice in those gifts for ever with your saints.

Amen.

A powerful excerpt from Pope Benedict XVI's first homily

as Pope after Pope John Paul II's passing:

“How alone we all felt after the passing of John Paul II – the Pope who for over twenty-six years had been our shepherd and guide on our journey through life. He crossed the threshold of the next life, entering into the mystery of God. But he did not take this step alone. Those who believe are never alone – neither in life nor in death. At that moment, we could call upon the Saints from every age – his friends, his brothers, and sisters in the faith – knowing that they would form a living procession to accompany him into the next world, into the glory of God...

I too can say with renewed conviction: I am not alone. All the Saints of God are there to protect me, to sustain me, and to carry me. And your prayers, my dear friends, your indulgence, your love, your faith, and your hope accompany me.” Pope Benedict XVI
