VATICAN CORNER

Margaret Mary Alacoque, born in 1647 in L'Hauteceur, Burgundy France, showed a love of God from an early age. The only girl of seven children. Her father was a well-to-do notary. He died when she was eight and she was sent to a convent school run by the Poor Clares in Charolles. She made her first communion there at age nine and later contracted rheumatic fever, confining her to bed for four years. It is said that she was restored to perfect health after she made a vow to the Blessed Virgin Mary to consecrate herself to religious life. In recognition of this kindness, Margaret added the name "Mary" to her name. According to her later descriptions of her life, she experienced visions of Jesus Christ which she thought were normal. When her father died, her uncle held onto the family assets and her family became impoverished. During that time, her only comfort was frequent visits to pray in the local church before the Blessed Sacrament. At the age of 17, her brother came of age and took possession of the home and her life improved. Her mother encouraged her to socialize in the hopes of her finding a suitable husband. She had forgotten her childhood vow and began to accompany her brothers to social events. One night while returning home from a ball for Carnival, she experienced a vision of Christ scourged and bloody. He disapproved of her forgetfulness of him, but also reassured her that his heart was filled with love for her, because of the childhood promise she had made to his Blessed Mother. As a result of this, she became determined to fulfill her vow and entered the Visitation Convent at Paray-le-Monial at the age of 24. A year-and-a-half later she became a nun. At the monastery Margaret Mary received several private visions of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Jesus permitted her to rest her head upon his heart, and then told her that he desired to make the wonders of his love known to all mankind and to spread the treasures of his goodness, and that he had chosen her for this work. Margaret Mary was eventually able to convince her superior, Mother de Saumaise, of the authenticity of her visions, but unable to convince a Benedictine and a Jesuit, whom Mother de Saumaise consulted with, nor was she able to convince many members of her own community. In 1681, Margaret Mary felt compelled to make a personal testament about her life donated completely to Jesus by wounding her own chest. Eventually she received the support of Claude de la Colombière, the community's confessor for a time, who declared that the visions were genuine. In 1683 opposition in the community ended when Mother Melin was elected Superior and named Margaret Mary her assistant. Later the monastery observed the Feast of the Sacred Heart privately, and two years later a chapel was built at Paray-le-Monial to honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Observance of the feast of the Sacred Heart spread to other Visitation convents. After Margaret Mary's death the Jesuits encouraged the devotion to the Sacred Heart, but it was controversial in the Catholic Church. However, 75 years later, the devotion was officially recognized. All Margaret Mary's actions, revelations, her beliefs and teachings regarding the devotion to the Sacred Heart were subject to minute examination. In 1824, Pope Leo XII pronounced her Venerable and on September 1864 Pope Pius IX declared her Blessed. When her tomb was canonically opened in July 1830, two instantaneous cures were recorded to have taken place. She was canonized a saint by Pope Benedict XV in 1920.

So why is the month of June known as the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus? It is because the solemnity of the Sacred Heart is celebrated during this month. Jesus had appeared to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque with his heart visible outside his chest, on fire, and surrounded by a crown of thorns to show his immense love for humanity. Jesus revealed to Margaret Mary ways to venerate his Sacred Heart: by taking part in a holy hour on Thursdays and the reception of the Eucharist on the first Friday of every month. Also Jesus instructed St. Margaret Mary that the Friday after the octave of Corpus Christi be set apart for a special feast to honor his heart. There are twelve promises Jesus told St. Margaret Mary he gives for those who are devoted to His Sacred Heart. There is no room to list them all here but the second one is: "I will establish peace in your families"

Oracion San Miguel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la batalla.
Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y asechanzas del
demonio. Reprímale Dios, pedimos suplicantes,
y tú Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial,
con el divino poder de Dios,
arroja al infierno a Satanás
y a todos los espíritus malignos
que andan dispersos
por el mundo
para la perdición de las almas.
Amén.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection
against the wickedness and
snares of the devil.
May God
rebuke him we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan
and all the evil spirits
who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Toy

What does it mean to be God's "special possession"? Our world is dominated by things, objects, possessions. To say we are a materialistic culture is an understatement. In that context, it can be really hard to fully appreciate the meaning of being "possessed" by God. I have so many possessions, after all. I acquire and discard them without thought. I am even overwhelmed by them. Sometimes, it feels like they possess me.

But then I think of the week after Christmas in a house with small children. In that week, there is always The Toy. The Toy that won the heart of your child under the tree, The Toy to which they emotionally attached themselves in a whirlwind of twinkle lights and sugar cookies. For that one week, The Toy is all there is. There were many gifts, but The Toy is special, and there can only be one.

So, what does it mean to be "possessed" by God? What does it mean to be of his people? It means you will be cherished and protected in ways you do not deserve and cannot understand. It means you are distinguished not by your own merit, but by the love with which you are beheld. It means that you are always The Toy, and every day is Christmas.

"Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people, though all the earth is mine."

— Exodus 19:5 -©LPi

RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

El Juguete

¿Qué significa ser la "posesión especial" de Dios? Nuestro mundo está dominado por cosas, objetos, posesiones. Decir que somos una cultura materialista es quedarse corto. En ese contexto, puede ser realmente difícil apreciar completamente el significado de ser "poseído" por Dios. Tengo tantas posesiones, después de todo. Las adquiero y las descarto sin pensar. Incluso estoy abrumado por ellas. A veces, siento que ellas me poseen a mí.

Pero luego pienso en la semana después de Navidad en una casa con niños pequeños. En esa semana, siempre está El Juguete. El Juguete bajo el árbol que se ganó el corazón de tu hijo, El Juguete al que se unieron emocionalmente en un torbellino de luces centelleantes y galletas de azúcar. Por esa semana, El Juguete es todo lo que hay. Hubo muchos regalos, pero El Juguete es especial, y solo puede haber uno.

Entonces, ¿qué significa ser "poseído" por Dios? ¿Qué significa ser de su pueblo? Significa que serás apreciado y protegido de maneras que no mereces y no puedes entender. Significa que no te distingues por tu propio mérito, sino por el amor con el que te miran.

Significa que siempre eres El Juguete, y todos los días es Navidad.

"Ahora bien, si escuchan mi voz y guardan mi alianza, serán mi especial tesoro entre todos los pueblos, aunque toda la tierra es mía." — Éxodo 19:5 © LPi
