VATICAN CORNER

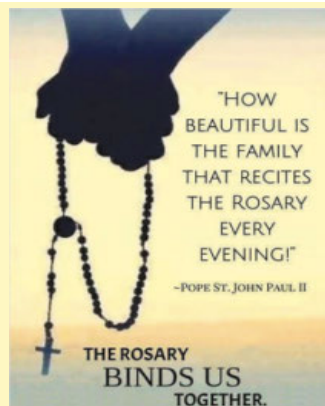

The annual celebration of the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly is held on the fourth Sunday every July. That day was selected to be close to the Feast Day of the grandparents of Jesus, Saint Joachim and Saint Anne, which takes place on July 26th. This year the World Day falls on Sunday July 23, 2023, and it will be the third time celebrated since Pope Francis originated it in 2021. On the celebration day Francis usually presides over a Mass in St. Peter's Basilica, and beforehand invites parishes, dioceses, associations and ecclesial communities from around the world to celebrate the Day in their own way. Pope Francis says grandparents are often forgotten, yet he believes they "are the link between generations, passing on the experiences of life and faith to the young." In his invitation to this year's celebration, he wrote: God wants young people to bring joy to the hearts of the elderly, as Mary did to her elderly relative

Elizabeth (Lk 1:39-56), and gain wisdom from their experiences. Yet, above all, the Lord wants us not to abandon the elderly..." Pope Francis said friendship with an older person can help the young "to see life not only in terms of the present and realize that not everything depends on them and their abilities." For the elderly, on the other hand, the presence of a young person in their lives "can give them hope that their experience will not be lost and that their dreams can find fulfilment." God's loving plan, spans past, present and future. "It embraces and connects the generations. For the young this means being ready to break free from the fleeting present in which virtual reality can entrap us, preventing us from doing something productive. For the elderly it means not dwelling on the loss of physical strength and thinking with regret about missed opportunities. Let us all look ahead, allow ourselves to be shaped by God's grace."

Saints Joachim and Saint Anne, the parents of the Virgin Mary, and the grandparents of Jesus are not mentioned in the Bible at all. The Protoevangelium of James provide some of the Church's traditional beliefs, but the writings are not considered authoritative and there is debate of the details of their lives. Joachim is described as a wealthy member of one of the Twelve Tribes of Israel. He was known for his charity and love of God. He and his wife Anne were deeply grieved by their childlessness. They devoted themselves to rigorous prayer and fasting while being isolated from one another and from society because of their shame of not conceiving a child. After 40 days of isolation, an angel revealed to Anne that "The Lord has heard your prayer, and you shall conceive, and shall bring forth; and your seed shall be spoken of in the world." The devoted parents along with the temple priests decided that Mary would be offered to God as a consecrated Virgin for the rest of her life. They must have been devoted parents, and their decisions undoubtedly shaped the future Mother of God.
