Anima Christi

Soul of Christ- Make us holy Body of Christ-Save us
Blood of Christ-Invigorate us.
Water from the side of Christ-
Wash us
Passion of Christ-Give us strength
O good Jesus -Listen to us
In your wounds-Hide us Never let us be separated from you
From the evil enemy - Defend us
In the hour of our death- Call us
And tell us to come to you that with your saints we may praise you forever and ever.
AMEN.

Anima Christi

Alma de Cristo, santifícame.
Cuerpo de Cristo, sálvame.
Sangre de Cristo, embriágame.
Agua del costado
de Cristo, lávame.
Pasión de Cristo, confórtame.
¡Oh, buen Jesús!, óyeme.

Dentro de tus llagas,
escóndeme.
No permitas que me aparte de Ti.
Del maligno enemigo,
defiéndeme.
En la hora de mi muerte,
llámame.
Y mándame ir a Ti.
Para que con tus santos te alabe.
Por los siglos de los siglos.
Amén.

VATICAN CORNER

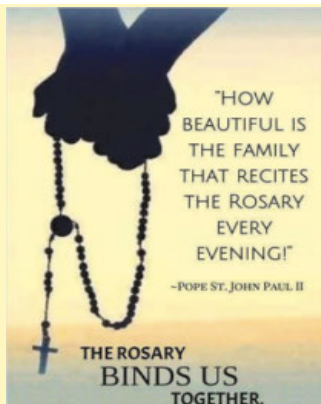

During his World Youth Day visit on August 5, 2023 to Portugal, Pope Francis spoke at a meeting of Jesuits in their primary and secondary school in Lisbon. The Rome-based Jesuit journal, La Civiltà Cattolica, published the meeting transcript. At the meeting, a Jesuit brother told Pope Francis he spent his sabbatical year in the United States, and he was saddened that many Catholics, including some bishops, criticized the Pope's leadership of the Church. Francis replied that the Catholic Church in the United States has "a very strong reactionary" element that is well-organized and refuses to see how Catholic doctrine can and must grow and mature. He said, "I would like to remind those people that 'indietrismo' (being backward-looking) is useless, and we need to understand that there is an appropriate evolution in the understanding of matters of faith and morals," "Those American groups you talk about, so closed, are isolating themselves instead of living by doctrine, by the true doctrine that always develops and bears fruit, they live by ideologies. When you abandon doctrine in life to replace it with an ideology, you have lost, you have lost as in war." The Pope said there is a difference between haphazardly changing church teaching and growing in understanding. He gave an example saying "Today it is a sin to possess atomic bombs. The death penalty is a sin; you cannot employ it, but it was not so before. As for slavery, some pontiffs before me tolerated it, but things are different today." "So, you change", change church teaching, by using the 3 "criteria: taught by St. Vincent of Lérins: that it be consolidated by years, enlarged by time and refined by age." "In other words, doctrine also progresses, expands and consolidates with time and becomes firmer, but it is always progressing." "Change develops from the roots upward, growing in accord with these three criteria." Pope Francis' comments were an acknowledgment of the division in the U.S. Catholic Church, between progressives and conservatives. Many conservatives have disagreed with Francis' emphasis on social justice issues such as the environment and the poor, immigration, and called him a heretic for his opening to letting divorced and civilly remarried Catholics receive the sacraments. At the meeting, another Jesuit asked Pope Francis about his insistence at World Youth Day that the Church is for everyone, and about how to respond to Catholics who identify as homosexual. Francis said "Jesus is very clear about this, the door is open to everyone, everyone has their own space in the church." The question becomes how the Church can help each person "live so that they can occupy that place with maturity, and this applies to all kinds of people." "What I don't like at all is that we look at the so-called 'sin of the flesh' with a magnifying glass" and tend to ignore other sins. "If you exploited workers, if you lied or cheated, it didn't matter, and instead (only) sins below the waist are relevant." Asked by another Jesuit about his greatest joys right now, Francis said it is the preparing for the first of the two Synods on Synodality to take place in October. He said "even though sometimes I see, in some parts, that there are shortcomings in the way it is being conducted." One of the Pope's harshest American critics is the Rome-based Cardinal Raymond Burke who wrote some strong criticisms about the upcoming synod in an introduction for a recent book. ... to be continued.
