Prayer for the 2nd Sunday of Easter

Dear Jesus,

As you greeted your disciples after you rose, fill us, too, with your peace.

As you breathed your spirit on them, breathe on us, too.

As your presence was known to Thomas, make it known to us, too.

Help us to live in your peace, power, and presence.

Amen.

Oración para el segundo domingo de la Pascua

Querido Jesús,

Así como saludaste a tus discípulos después de resucitar, llénanos también de tu paz.

Así como soplaste tu espíritu sobre ellos, respira también sobre nosotros.

Así como tu presencia fue conocida por Tomas, también hazla saber a nosotros.

Ayúdanos a vivir en tu paz, poder, y presencia.

Amen.

VATICAN CORNER

Pope Francis has set the dates of Wednesday Oct. 2 through Sunday Oct. 27, 2024 for the second session of the Synod on Synodality. He has decided to push the controversial discussions of “doctrinal, ethical and pastoral issues” to June 2025 so that they will not distract from the main theme of the synod: “For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission.” The second synod session will focus on the synod process itself.

The complex topics being pushed back 8 months have 10 study groups working on the issues, and they will receive help from Vatican offices. One of those controversial topics is female deacons or diaconates. Pope Francis in response to 5 conservative cardinal’s questions he received just before the first synod session, seemingly said “no” to women’s ordination. Up until then he had been relying on the Swiss theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar’s opinions for his opposition to woman’s ordination. However Francis has twice now invited a religious sister who disagrees with theologian Balthasar’s interpretations to speak before his Council of Cardinals regarding the role of women in the church. The question as to whether women can serve as deacons is unclear in the Bible. Pope John Paul II said in an apostolic letter in 1994 that “the Church has no authority whatsoever” to ordain women as priests, citing Jesus’ choosing only men to be his twelve apostles. However, church historians have said that there is evidence that women served as deacons in the early centuries of the Church. The apostle Paul mentioned a woman named Phoebe in his letter to the Romans who is thought to be a deacon. The role of a deacon was reinstated in the 1962-65 Second Vatican Council. It is generally open to married men who have reached the age of 35. Deacons are ordained, similar to priests, but can only conduct certain ministries in the Church. They cannot celebrate the Mass, but can lead prayer services, offer the sacrament of baptism and can manage parishes as pastoral administrators in the absence of priests. Pope Francis had two commissions study the issue, one in 2016 and another in 2020, and those commissions prepared reports for him regarding women’s ordination. The first commission could not come to an agreement, and it is unknown what recommendations the second commission arrived at. Pope Francis’ openness to studying the possibility of women serving as deacons could represent a historic shift for the Catholic Church. The Spanish nun Linda Pocher has said that Pope Francis supports the women’s diaconate and is studying methods for its implementation. There is much disagreement among Catholics about if women may serve as deacons, and it seem unlikely that the Pope will rule in favor of the ordination of women to the diaconate, but women are a great blessing to the Church and we will see what Pope Francis decides.
