4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

[He said to them], "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" - Lk 4:21-22

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Oscar Romero (1917-1980) was a “Salvadoran Roman Catholic archbishop who was a vocal critic of the violent activities of government armed forces, right-wing groups, and leftist guerrillas involved in El Salvador’s civil conflict (Encyclopedia Britannica).” As a voice of the voiceless, he was an outspoken champion of the poor who were the ones most affected by the civil unrest and violence. His advocacy provoked several attempts on his life. Nonetheless, St. Oscar Romero was convinced that before all else his faith in the resurrected Christ and the values of the Gospel trumped any earthly concern or worry. He walked with complete confidence and trust. On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass. Such is often the fate of those who challenge the socio-political agendas of the day.

We may look at the example of witness of St. Oscar Romero as something extraordinary. In one sense it is. Through the power of God, an ordinary human being did extraordinary things. But, in and of himself, St. Oscar Romero was simply a humble, loving servant of God. Oscar knew not only the power of love but the risk that comes when loving unconditionally. The beauty of God’s message was able to shine in and through him because he was able to step out of the way and be a vessel. One can assume that for St. Oscar Romero, one’s earthly life has no merit when faith, integrity, conviction, zeal and love are jettisoned. Fear and apprehension had no grip on this man who not only saw but spoke the truth.

Do we speak the truth? It makes us feel good to speak of God as love. But have we ever considered the ramifications of this radical message? There are assaults on human life occurring daily. More and more the value and worth of a human being is being reduced and minimalized. We are becoming widgets in the production of life. In our whole simple humble ways, we too are called to be prophets. Knowing who you are and what is within your means to do, how can you make God’s love real, stand up for what is right, and give witness to the sacredness of all that is around you?

4º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Ser cristiano es ser un profeta comprometido en el amor y en la esperanza. La Liturgia de hoy, por medio del profeta Jeremías, nos pone en alerta sobre este asunto del llamado de Dios al discipulado ya desde el vientre materno: “Antes de formarte en el seno de tu madre, ya te conocía; antes de que tú nacieras, yo te consagré, y te destiné a ser profeta de las naciones” (Jeremías 1,5). Para comprender con mayor claridad y poner manos a la obra en este llamado, debemos recordar que, el domingo pasado, Jesús se encontraba en la sinagoga de Nazaret y sus últimas palabras del pasaje de la Escritura decían: “Hoy se cumplen estas palabras proféticas y a ustedes les llegan noticias de ello” (Lucas 4,21).

Los que escuchaban a Jesús se admiraban de su elocuencia. ¡No lo podían creer! Ellos lo conocían, habían vivido a su alrededor, tenían familiaridad con él. Por lo menos sabían su oficio, “carpintero, hijo de José y María”. Jesús conocía sus pensamientos y responde: “Seguramente ustedes me van a recordar el dicho: Médico, cúrate a ti mismo. Realiza también aquí, en tu patria, lo que nos cuentan que hiciste en Cafarnaúm” (Lucas 4,23). ¿Por qué nadie es profeta en su tierra? Le pasó a Jesús y nos pasa muchas veces a nosotros, hacemos el bien por ahí y cuando se dan cuenta los vecinos y la familia, viene el cuestionamiento y los comentarios sin saber realmente lo que la persona es, vive, o siente. O, mejor dicho, se ignora su compromiso con el amor, como lo expresa San Pablo a los Corintios: “Ahora, pues, son válidas la fe, la esperanza y el amor: pero la mayor de estas tres es el amor” (1 Corintios 13,13).

In 1997, Pope Saint John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day; the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples. The celebration of World Day for Consecrated Life is transferred to the following Sunday in order to highlight the gift of consecrated persons for the whole Church.

World Day for Consecrated Life will be celebrated in the Church on Wednesday, February 2, 2022 and in parishes over the weekend of February 5-6, 2022. Please pray for all Women and Men Religious, Sisters, Brothers and Priests who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

THANK YOU!

Special thanks to Jim Fejes for his excellent carpentry skills by renewing our Baptism font. Please pay extra attention to his great work next time we celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism.

Year of FAITH prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, we are bound to You through love, faith and trust. During this Year of Faith, turn our eyes, our hearts, and our hands to You. Strengthen our personal faith and renew our conversion to a life dedicated to You. Help us to become more committed to sharing the hope and joy of the Gospel to all we meet. Amen.

Month of PRAYER

Prayer should never be reduced to a task that has to be performed. Prayer is falling in love with a God who fell in love with us first...Prayer is about being real, honest, and true with God and allowing Him to enter our broken state and allowing Him to renew and heal us.

Fr. Éamonn Bourke from his book. Make Your Home in Me: Reflections on Prayer

Oración por el Año de FE

Señor Jesucristo, estamos unidos a Ti a través del amor, la fe y la confianza. Durante este Año de Fe, vuelve nuestros ojos, nuestros corazones y nuestras manos hacia Ti. Fortalece nuestra fe personal y renueva nuestra conversión a una vida dedicada a Ti. Ayúdanos a dedicarnos más a compartir la esperanza y gozo del Evangelio con todos los que nos rodean. Amén.

Mes de la ORACION

La oración nunca debe reducirse a una tarea que tiene que ser realizada. La oración es enamorarse de un Dios que se enamoró de nosotros primero... La oración se trata de ser real, honesta, y verdadera con Dios y dejarlo entrar a nuestro estado pecador y permitirle renovarnos y sanarnos.

-Fr. Eamonn Bourke de su libro Has tu hogar en mi: Reflexiones sobre la oración

PRAYER FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF OUR NEW CHURCH

We praise you and we bless you most merciful Father because you never tire of showing your great love for us, especially when you sent your Son Jesus Christ to save us and teach us to be merciful. As brothers and sisters in Christ, we turn to you, to ask for the grace to be able to construct our new church, a space in which we can give you greater glory and praise as a community. It will allow more families every day to come to find your love. Give us the grace to know the gift of your mercy. Grant that we may be the visible face of your beloved Son. Send us your Holy Spirit to guide us and join us in this building project. We dedicate all our efforts and sacrifices for this purpose. We ask this through the intercession of the Holy Family and Saint Mary Magdalene, and through our Lord Jesus Christ your Son who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen

-Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, pray for us
-St. Mary Magdalene, pray for us

ORACIÓN POR LA CONSTRUCCIÓN DE NUESTRA NUEVA IGLESIA

Dios todo poderoso; te alabamos y te bendecimos padre misericordioso porque nunca te cansas de mostrar tu gran amor por nosotros, especialmente cuando enviaste a tu Hijo Jesucristo/ para salvarnos y enseñarnos a ser misericordiosos.

Como hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, nos dirigimos a ti, para pedir la gracia de poder construir nuestra nueva Iglesia, un espacio en el que como comunidad podamos demostrarte mayor gloria y alabanza.

Esto permitirá que cada día más familias vengan a encontrar tu amor. Danos la gracia de conocer el don de tu misericordia. Concédenos que seamos el rostro visible de tu amado Hijo. Envíanos tu Santo Espíritu para que nos guíe y una en este proyecto de construcción. Dedicamos todos nuestros esfuerzos y sacrificios para este propósito.

Te lo pedimos por la intercesión de la Sagrada Familia y Santa María Magdalena, y a través de nuestro Señor Jesucristo tu Hijo que contigo vive y reina en unión del Espíritu Santo, por los siglos de los siglos. Amen

As we begin the new year, St. Mary Magdalene would like to thank those parishioners who are currently giving electronically. You may not see these fellow parishioners place an envelope in the basket every week, but their consistent giving does not go unnoticed in our parish office. Each month our parish receives a steady and predictable stream of income from those donors who have made the commitment to give to God first by having a designated contribution automatically transferred to our parish through Faith Direct online giving. If you would like to learn more about this EASY, SAFE, and SECURE way of giving, please contact Linda Varner at (951) 277-1801, Ext. 401 or check our website at smmcorona.org and click on our Donate tab.

May you have a Blessed New Year!
