PENTECOST SUNDAY

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit. (Acts 2:4)

No one who was gathered in the upper room on Pentecost could have missed the presence of the Holy Spirit. A strong, driving wind, tongues of fire, and the apostles speaking in different languages: it was clear that Jesus' promise of the Spirit coming upon them had been fulfilled (John 14:16). But that promise wasn't just for the apostles long ago: it's for us today as well. So let's take the opportunity on this great feast to pray for a greater outpouring of the Spirit in our lives.

"Holy Spirit, you appeared as tongues of fire. I want the fire of your love to burn in my heart. Give me a love that never grows cold, along with the zeal to spread your saving message to all whom I encounter each day.

"Holy Spirit, you gave gifts to the disciples to build your Church. In order to do your work, I need gifts that can only come from you—gifts of wisdom, understanding, counsel, and strength; gifts of prophecy, healing, and discernment of spirits (Isaiah 11:2; 1 Corinthians 12:7-10). You know that I am asking for these gifts not just for myself but so that I can also bring you glory and lead other people to you. In this season of my life, I especially ask for the gift of _____. But whatever you want to give me, I am open to receiving it.

"Holy Spirit, you opened Peter's ears so that he could hear the message you wanted him to preach. Open my ears too so that I am able to hear you. I want to be your instrument—to act on whatever you are urging me to do. I can't do that without staying attuned to your voice, so help me to listen to you over the noise and busyness of each day.

"Holy Spirit, as you did with the disciples on Pentecost, empower your people today. Together may we preach the good news and build your kingdom on earth!"

"Come, Holy Spirit, and fill me with your love, your grace, and your gifts."

Please pray for these members of our parish family and all our loved ones listed in the Book of the Sick.

Donna Giblin, Jack Boudreau, Bobby Castillo, Cody Martin, Fr. Roy Oggero

This column in the Sunday bulletin is a place that parishioners may ask for intercessory prayer in their time of sickness. To add your name, please call the parish office during business hours (281-980-9812). The sick person must be a parishioner of St. Laurence and the request must come directly from the person (or a close family member, such as spouse or parent). Your name will appear on the list for 4 weeks. If struggling with a longer term illness, please call back and your name will be added for another 4 week period.

Not a parishioner?

Ask for the name to be added to the Book of the Sick. Anyone in need of prayers for healing may have their name written in the Book of the Sick.

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT: ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA PRAYER MINISTRY

St. Anthony of Padua Prayer Ministry of St. Laurence brings together the young and old alike in honor of St. Anthony of Padua and to pray for his intercession, helping to deepen their devotion to Jesus. This ministry caters the harmonious gathering of devotees from all Christian denominations and religious affiliations to pray and worship in the Catholic tradition, through the celebration of the Holy Eucharist and Novena on Tuesdays. It encourages the attendees to remember that God, in his love, may have his own way of answering their prayers.

This devotion started at St. Laurence in April 1997, with the annual feast celebrated the Saturday closest to the feast day of the Saint (June 13). This devotion continues to attract many, particularly young adults who may be on the verge of leaving their faith, by helping them to recommit themselves to the Catholic faith. The service consists of reciting Holy Rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy at 6:30pm, with Holy Mass at 7:00pm, followed by the novena to the Saint. It is offered in the church on the 1st Tuesday each month, and in the Chapel of Divine Mercy all other Tuesdays.

The Ministry and devotees are indebted to the parish of St. Laurence for continued support and care over these many years.

Meet with members at the Hospitality Desk and plan to attend the St. Anthony Feast Day celebration next Saturday, June 11.

CHARITY GUILD CELEBRATES 100 YEARS

The Charity Guild of Catholic Women, over 600 members strong, operates the Charity Guild Shop, 1203 Lovett Boulevard in Houston, in support of the San José Clinic and a myriad of other non-profit agencies and schools that serve children with limited resources in the Greater Houston area.

Founded 100 years ago, the Charity Guild kicked off their centennial celebration last October, with special events scheduled throughout the year, culminating with a gala and Centennial Celebration Mass later this year. With gratitude, the Charity Guild of Catholic Women celebrates every volunteer, shopper and consignor who has supported the Charity Guild Shop over the years. Join them in their mission! Please visit: charityguildshop.org

SOCIAL CONCERNS

The Corporal Works of Mercy: BURY THE DEAD

The dying should be given attention and care to help them live their last moments in dignity and peace. They will be helped by the prayer of their relatives, who must see to it that the sick receive at the proper time the sacraments that prepare them to meet the living God. The bodies of the dead must be treated with respect and charity, in faith and hope of the Resurrection. The burial of the dead is a corporal work of mercy; it honors the children of God, who are temples of the Holy Spirit (CCC 2299-2300).

"Give graciously to all the living, and withhold not kindness from the dead" (Sir 7:33)

As a parish family, here is how we bury the dead:

- The St. Laurence Bereavement Ministries (Grief Support Ministry, Grieving Families, and H.O.P.E.) are committed to serving all among us who have experienced the death of a loved one, by providing support through grief groups. For more information, visit stlaurence.org/bereavement-ministries

- The Funeral Reception Ministry serves parishioners by seeing to the details involved in creating a reception for family and friends of the deceased following funeral masses held at St. Laurence. Want to help? Contact Carol Giardina at lgfuneral@gmail.com

What more can you do on your own?

- As a family, research where your deceased family members are buried and take a family trip to visit their gravesites and pray for them
- Be faithful about attending wakes, visitations, and funerals of family and friends
- Join the St. Laurence Funeral Reception Ministry to provide food for a funeral luncheon
- Pray at an abortion facility for the lives lost to abortion
- Have a Mass said for a deceased loved one
- Help a widow in need of yard work or errands
- Send a rose, flowers, or card to a person on the anniversary of the deceased death or wedding anniversary
- Volunteer at a hospice center
