God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son...
(John 3:16)

In the midst of this Season of Joy and Hope, the world is still caught up in the uncertainties of the pandemic. But our Faith is not at all dimmed. In the Christmas carol, O Little Town of Bethlehem, we sing "the hopes and fears of all the years" are met in Christ born in Bethlehem.

With faith, our fears are lessened and our hope is increased. With faith, we know that Christ's Light shines even in the darkness of uncertainty just as He came on that first Christmas night bringing peace to the world.

*Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting light.*

My Christmas wish for each of you, dear parishioners, is that you experience the power of Christ's Birth. I pray that you allow the Prince of Peace to dwell in your hearts, in your families, in your neighborhood—and in so doing, bring Christ's Peace in the world!

Humbly yours,

Father Alden Sison
Pastor

Did you know? December 18-19 || Fire safety: Close before you doze

If there is a fire in your home, there is a 900-degree difference between a closed door and an open one. Firefighters recommend that you always close doors before you and your children go to sleep. Remembering the simple phrase "Close before you doze" can help prevent toxic gasses and flames from getting in your room, giving firefighters more time to rescue you. Closing your children's doors before bed is a quick, easy step to keep them safe — and provides an extra layer of security when coupled with working smoke alarms and a family safety plan. For more information, visit <https://momsoncall.com/knowledge-center/close-before-you-doze/>.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

Besides the Wise Men, what is significant about the Epiphany?

Answer:

Epiphany means "manifestation," or public display. The feast is usually celebrated January 6. In the US, it is celebrated on the Sunday nearest to January 6. It originates from a story unique to Matthew (2:1-12). Magi from the East come to offer homage to the newborn King, presenting him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. This part of Matthew's infancy narrative differs from Luke's account of the birth of Jesus. In Luke there are no Magi, star, nor gifts. Luke has Jesus being born in a stable after Mary and Joseph's long travel from Nazareth to Bethlehem. Matthew seems to have the family living in a house in Bethlehem, where the Magi find them.

Why these differences? They stem from the needs and concerns of the audience the authors were addressing, as well as the theological stance of each author. Knowing the original intention helps get at the correct interpretation of the text. Since Matthew was writing primarily to a Jewish community, his concern was to show that Jesus did not come just for Jews, but for Gentiles as well. From his very birth, Jesus not only manifests himself to Jews, but also to Gentiles, who are prominently included in the manifestation, symbolized by the Magi and their journey. This is the most significant aspect of the feast of Epiphany. How do you manifest Jesus to all with whom you come into contact?

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

Micah prophesied a Messiah ("ruler") would come through the line of David ("Bethlehem-Ephrathah") and bring peace and harmony. In what ways does the upcoming birth of Christ bring you comfort?

Second Reading:

As the season of Advent draws to a close, the author of Hebrews reminds us that as disciples of Christ, we must strive to do God's will above all else. How do you stay focused on such an important task?

Gospel:

Luke is the only Evangelist to record the story of Mary visiting Elizabeth and only a portion of their conversation was preserved. What else do you imagine they talked about?

Dear St. Euphrasia Parishioners,

Advent has arrived, and with it, our annual Giving Tree. As we prepare our hearts to celebrate the birth of our Lord, we reach out with loving support to the mothers and their children at the Good Shepherd Shelter. Our Giving Tree is filled with ornaments or envelopes, each one labeled with one item (gift card, cash, check) to ensure that the residents of the Shelter have a special Christmas and New Years. Please help support this worthy mission by picking up one or more of the ornaments/envelopes and then returning your gift by the end of December 19, the Fourth Sunday in Advent. If not using the provided envelope, please clearly mark your own as "Giving Tree." Envelopes can be placed in the collection basket during Mass or in the locked mailbox on the rectory's porch. If you have questions, please call Beth Illig (818-363-4062).

God's blessings,
Good Shepherd Connection Team

Spiritual direction is the practice of walking with someone who wants to deepen their relationship with God and grow in their personal spirituality. The person seeking direction controls the time together.

(S)he may share stories of encounters with the divine, or how they are cultivating a life attuned to spiritual things, or how they may be struggling in Faith, especially during this time of pandemic.

Sister Angela, Pastoral Assistant and a certified Spiritual Director, is available to meet virtually (ZOOM, SKYPE, or FaceTime) with any parishioner who wishes to strengthen their awareness of God's voice and presence in their lives. If you desire more information or wish to set up an initial appointment, please contact her at afaustina@stemail.org.
