PASTOR'S CORNER

My dear Parishioners,

We now have a new administration in our government. Let us pray for them that they will be guided by the wisdom of God to govern this nation wisely. We specially pray that through the guidance of the Holy Spirit our legislators may consider that all lives matter from conception to natural death.

In the beautiful story of creation, we hear how God created the night and the day, the earth and the sky, the land and the waters, and all the creatures of the earth. And God saw that it was good.

But creation was not yet complete. Genesis tells us:

*God created man in his image;
in the image of God he created him;
male and female he created them.*

*God blessed them, saying: "Be fertile and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it.
Have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, and all the living things that move on the earth."*

By creating man and woman in His own image, God endowed the human race with a dignity that no other creature can claim and that can never be taken away. Therefore, human life must be cherished, valued, and protected above all else.

The Psalmist expounds on that creation story by telling us how God lovingly knits each of us together in our mother's womb. It is ultimately God who forms our fingers and our toes, our hearts and souls. He therefore knows our inmost being and the depths of our hearts. We are fearfully and wonderfully made by God as the crown of creation. And for this we offer God our praise.

By virtue of this dignity with which we have been endowed by God, we are called to love one another as brothers and sisters. Let us recall the story of Cain and Abel, which comes shortly after the story of creation. This is the first occasion in Scripture in which we see a person take the life of another human being. We are told that Cain allowed his heart to be hardened by anger and jealousy. Sin crept into his soul, preventing Cain from recognizing the dignity of his brother. The story of Cain demonstrates how those who allow sin to find a place in their hearts are blinded to the truth.

Abortion is an example of how we, as individuals and as a society, fail to recognize the dignity of each child, knit within the womb of his or her mother. We allow our hearts to be hardened to the truth. Our culture either fails to recognize the undeniable humanity of unborn children, who deserve our love and protection, or disregards it.

How should we respond to the gift of new life? In the story of the Visitation, we see Mary, an unmarried woman who is newly pregnant with the Infant Jesus, going in haste to the aid of her cousin Elizabeth, who is herself six months pregnant. Luke tells us that at the very moment that Elizabeth heard the sound of Mary's voice, the infant in Elizabeth's womb leaped for joy. From the womb of his own mother, John the Baptist recognizes the presence of Jesus, hidden within the womb of Mary. And Elizabeth responds with those familiar and beautiful words: "Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?" Both John and Elizabeth recognize the life hidden within Mary's womb, the one who is their Savior. That scene so tenderly illustrates the humanity of all unborn children, created in God's own image and likeness. Every new life should be greeted with the same joyful enthusiasm that led John the Baptist to literally leap in the womb of Elizabeth.

While God's gift of new life is always something to be celebrated, we must also recognize that a pregnancy, especially when unexpected, can bring with it many challenges. Mothers too often find themselves afraid, vulnerable, abandoned, and in need. And God calls us to respond in love. We are called to go in haste, as the Blessed Mother did, to offer expectant mothers the support, encouragement, and love that they deserve. Mary's example should inspire us to serve mothers and families, even amidst our own needs.

May we join our voices in continued prayer for the legal protection of all unborn children. May we offer penance for all violations against the dignity of human life. In a special way, may we also pray for all women and men who suffer from participation in abortion, that they may find healing, peace, and reconciliation with God.

And may we recommit ourselves to supporting all expectant mothers. May we never fail to set out ... in haste. As the child in Elizabeth's womb leaped for joy, so may our hearts leap with joy at the wonders of new life in every expectant mother.

May the power of God's love and the motherly care of the Blessed Virgin Mary bring us closer to them and to one another.

Peace,
Fr. Riz

Then they came to Capernaum, and on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught.

The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. Mark 1:21-22

We all come to Mass, every Sunday. It can become routine. Sometimes we come and go, not remembering one word of a Reading or the homily. This particular day of weekly worship, Jesus walked in and people were amazed at His words. Can you imagine?! It's another Sunday and you have come to outdoor Mass or have logged on to live-stream Mass.

Suddenly your heart and mind are pierced by the words of Jesus! He is there! Are we open to this reality as we come to Mass? This week make a plan as a family or with friends how you are going to prepare yourself for this reality to happen next Sunday when you come to an outdoor Mass or live-stream Mass.

Please visit www.saintpeterclaver.org to find FAITH AT HOME for all ages, to live-stream Mass and to find other resources to pray and grow in your Domestic Church.

Did You Know?

Do You Know What to do if Someone is Choking? Choking is one of the leading causes of accidental death, but many people do not know what to do if someone is choking near them. If a person is coughing, grabbing his or her throat, or passed out with no explanation, he/she could be choking.

Utilizing abdominal thrusts, also known as the Heimlich maneuver, could prevent suffocation. Parents should be knowledgeable as to how to perform this maneuver, and if possible, should attend a CPR training course so they are prepared, in the event that a child or adult is choking. Hoy, 31 de enero, y cada 5to domingo del mes, usted encontrar sobres para ofrenda en la mesa de registracion para nuestra Conferencia de St. Vincent de Paul aqui en St. Peter Claver. El dinero donado sera usado para ayudar a nuestra Conferencia proveer servicio directos y asistencia a personas y familias que se encuentran en pobreza, y para aquellos que estan necesitados en nuestra comunidad de la parroquia. Le damos nuestro agradecimiento por su generosidad.

¿Sabia Que?

¿Sabe qué hacer si alguien se está asfixiando?

La asfixia es una de las principales causas de muerte accidental, pero muchas personas no saben qué hacer si alguien se asfixia cerca de ellos. Si una persona tose, se agarra la garganta o se desmaya sin explicación, es posible que se esté ahogando. El uso de compresiones abdominales, también conocida como maniobra de Heimlich, podría prevenir la asfixia. Los padres de familia deben saber cómo realizar esta maniobra y, si es posible, deben asistir a un curso de capacitación en resucitación cardiopulmonar (CPR, en inglés) para estar preparados, en caso de que un niño o un adulto se esté ahogando. Para obtener más información, visite <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.
