Pastor's Corner

My dear Parishioners,

May the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all!

Every Holy Week is unique, but this year's sacred celebrations, as those experienced last year, are likely to be different from those we have known before. While some of our parishioners may experience the Sacred Paschal Triduum in church, others will continue to participate in these liturgies from their home, surrounded by immediate family. This experience echoes that of our ancestors who, before churches were built, gathered in homes to hear God's Word and to celebrate the sacred meal. In a sense, the coronavirus pandemic has moved us to return to a time that was fittingly called the domestic church. At home, your families can highlight the symbols and rituals that normally hold a place of pride during the Triduum.

PRAYING THE TRIDUUM (Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday Easter Vigil) AT HOME by Kathy Kuczka

Holy Thursday

On this night, the Church commemorates the institution of the Holy Eucharist and the Lord's command to be charitable. At home, families can imitate the intimacy that Jesus shared with His disciples at supper by breaking bread together and by recalling their most memorable meal. Families may wash each other's feet as a sign of love, as Jesus did, and decide anew how to serve one another as well as the larger community.

Good Friday

To contemplate the passion of Jesus, families can pray the Stations of the Cross on Good Friday. Many stations can be found online and various stations focus on particular themes, such as Pope Francis' stations of mercy. Since this devotion traces the steps of Jesus on the road to His crucifixion and is usually prayed by moving from place to place, families are encouraged to make the stations a spiritual pilgrimage by walking as they pray.

Good Friday

The high points in this liturgy consist of the proclamation of the passion according to John, the extended intercessions, and the veneration of the cross. Families at home can read the Gospel according to John 18:1—19:42 and discuss how the passion according to John differs from the other evangelists. They can talk about the love that is revealed by the death of Jesus. They can pray for their needs and for the needs of others by speaking the prayers aloud or by writing them down on a piece of paper and placing them in a bowl or basket near a lighted candle. They can take a cross or crucifix and venerate it with a touch or a kiss.

Holy Saturday

This night is the high point of the liturgical year. It typically begins after nightfall with a blazing fire. In the home, families can light candles as a reminder that Jesus is the light of the world. This is a night for remembering the presence of God throughout salvation history, which is why Scripture passages such as the story of creation, the sacrifice of Isaac, and the exodus are proclaimed. In reflecting on these texts, families can discuss or even create a timeline portraying the experiences when they most felt God's presence. This is a night to celebrate baptism, and there are many ways families can honor the sacrament. Gather mementos from each person's baptism: a baptismal certificate, baptismal clothing, the baptismal candle, pictures, or religious articles. Tell the story of your children's baptisms. Connect with godparents via a virtual platform. Renew the promises made at baptism. Discuss what it means to be part of a faith community. Share what it means to be a child of God. Give thanks for the gift of water and for the gift of baptism. Bless one another with water!

This Holy Week may present an opportunity to create new rituals and new traditions. Our faith, after all, isn't confined to the church. It begins at home and is meant to be lived in the world. *Text by Kathy Kuczka, author of Connecting the Liturgy with Our Lives: Print and Digital Resources for Faith Formation (LTP, 2019). I pray that you and your family will take advantage of the suggestions offered by the article above so as to make that connection with the Universal church as we celebrate those three most Holy Days of the Church Liturgical Year.

Happy Easter in advance to you all! May the joy of Easter fill our hearts with hope and peace.

Peace,
Fr. Riz

...coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Philippians 2:7-8

Sometimes it's hard to remember that Jesus was a human being, just like you. He needed to comb His hair and brush His teeth. He was a two-year-old who had temper tantrums and a teen who had breakouts on His face. Jesus was raised in His faith by His Mom and Joseph. He grew in love with God the Father through prayer and worship. Jesus humbly gave His life to doing God the Father's will. As we enter Holy Week and hear the readings of Jesus' passion and death, let's try to remember that Jesus was a human being, like us. Talk about the stories of Holy Week at home. Let your imaginations go. Log on to FORMED and as a family watch one of the movies or Stations of the Cross. Humbly draw closer to Jesus together so that you too can do God's will in your life.

Please visit www.saintpeterclaver.org to find Lent in Your Domestic Church Journey, to live-stream Mass and to find other resources to pray and grow in faith.

March 28, 2021 - Palm Sunday Of The Passion Of The Lord

Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.
 Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name.
 -Phil 2:8-9

Meet Me in the Desert
 Lord of Lent, Lord of Easter,
 As you went into the desert so do I follow
 Putting aside that which distracts me
 Grabs at me falsely, claims me.
 To search inside
 To confront myself. my best, my worst,
 My good works and my sins.
 And each time, I find you there
 To call to me again
 With words of challenge and words of mercy.
 And as I fall to my knees, in prayer, in fasting In sacrifice and penitence
 Somehow, you have it in yourself to reach out and gently lift me
 To renew me
 To claim me as nothing of this world can claim me.
 Meet me in the desert, Lord. Claim me anew.
 Amen.

DIVINE MERCY MINISTRY

Palm Sunday . . . From the Diary of St. Faustina. Words of Jesus are in bold: Palm Sunday 1937. During Mass, my soul was steeped in the bitterness and suffering of Jesus. Jesus gave me to understand how much He had suffered in that triumphal procession. “Hosanna” was reverberating in Jesus’ heart as an echo of “Crucify.” Jesus allowed me to feel this in a special way. (Diary 1028)

I heard Jesus’ voice: My daughter, your compassion for Me refreshes Me. By meditating on My Passion, your soul acquires a distinct beauty. (Diary 1657)

My prayer response: Jesus, when I see images of your Passion, I feel, compassion, awe, and gratitude. If only I could ease your suffering.

LIVE THE LITURGY
 INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What an ironic twist of events! Jesus is hailed with palm branches as he comes down a street one minute and faces agonizing suffering and death on a cross the next. Does any of this make any sense? They shouted, “hosanna to our King,” out of one side of their mouths and, “crucify him,” out of the other. At first glance it seems like such hypocrisy. Yet, when we step back there may be more truth to the story than we care to admit. We struggle with Jesus. We hail him in our churches but struggle to figure out what to do with him on our streets. We are fine when we hear pious renderings of his messages and preaching but wince when it gets to the part about changing the way we conduct business and becoming more sensitive to the disadvantaged, poor and marginalized. We invoke God’s name when we want victory and keep silence when it comes to global solidarity. We talk out of both sides of our mouths too, looking only to what works or suits us at the time and leaving the rest. There exists in each one of us a person who hails our King with hosannas and a person who is all too willing to choose Jesus over Barabbas for the cross. Something to think about this Holy Week!

Serving The Suffering Christ

As we enter Holy Week and celebrate Palm Sunday, let's reflect on how our Lord suffered from our indifference: those who proclaimed him king of Jerusalem were the same who called to crucify him. We recognize we are all one human family. Are we contributing to the suffering of our sister and brothers without indifference to their realities? How does our faith inspire us to care for them and share the gifts that God has bestowed on us? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

Please bring your CRS Rice Bowl to deposit in the marked bins in the church on Easter Sunday, April 4, 2021.

Everyday Stewardship

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Walk Every Step with Christ

Holy Week is a week for being mindful. We must set loose the baggage of Lent, and not be deterred by the dazzling sunrise of Easter morning beckoning in the distance.

It's okay for us to be excited for Easter. We've waited so long, after all. In my opinion it's one of the best feelings there is: the yearning we have in our hearts for the Resurrection as we embark on Palm Sunday. And in a purely logical sense, many of us have Easter celebrations for which we are preparing, and practical considerations to contend with. It's going to be a busy week, one likely full of happy distractions.

But my friends, we simply must keep our feet on the ground. Let's not "skip" Holy Week. Resist the urge to flip to the last page of the book, to fast-forward to the final scene of the movie. Don't rob yourself of the journey. This week is a blessed opportunity. It is this week that teaches us who we are. In the span of the Triduum, we have the birthday of the priesthood, the institution of the Eucharist, the sacrifice on Calvary and so many other vivid and meaningful scenes.

It may sound strange, to advise someone to savor the moments of Holy Week. There are so many violent and heartrending moments, after all. But this is the valley of tears, remember — we are not in Heaven yet. And here, in our fallen, sin-filled world, it is the heartrending moments that seem to matter the most.

These are the moments that define us as Catholics. Live them. Cherish them. Be present for each one.

Hosanna!

Sirviendo A Cristo Sufriente

Al iniciar la Semana Santa y celebrar el Domingo de Ramos, reflexionemos sobre como sufrio nuestro Señor por nuestra indiferencia: los mismos que lo proclamaban rey en Jerusalem fueron los que pidieron que fuera crucificado. Reconociendo que todos somos parte de una misma familia, estamos contribuyendo al sufrimiento de nuestros hermanos con nuestra indiferencia hacia sus realidades? Como nos inspira nuestra fe para cuidar de ellos y compartir los dones que Dios nos ha otorgado?

¿Sabia Que?

El Comportamiento Abusivo No Es Consensual

El término “consensual” implica que una persona acepta libremente hacer algo y comprende lo que está consintiendo en hacer. Cuando se trata de abuso infantil, ningún niño puede dar su consentimiento, o aceptar libremente, participar en un comportamiento inapropiado con una persona mayor. De cualquier forma, los niños pueden ser manipulados de manera que parezca que han dado su consentimiento de alguna manera debido al respeto que los niños tienen a la autoridad del abusador. Esta es la razón por la que el abuso a menudo implica un uso indebido o abuso de poder sobre una víctima y puede lograrse mediante una variedad de comportamientos inapropiados que le dan ventaja al abusador. - † Participar en dando vida a la Obra de Misericordia Corporal, ENTERRAR A LOS MUERTOS.
- † Mantener las tres disciplinas de la Cuaresma, REZAR, AYUNAR Y DAR LIMOSNA con ideas practicas.
- † Caminar con Jesus en el Via Crucis los Viernes a las 6 p.m.

Did You Know?

Abusive Behavior Is Nonconsensual

The term “consensual” implies that a person freely agrees to do something and understands what they are consenting to do. When it comes to child abuse, no child can give consent, or freely agree, to engage in inappropriate behavior with an older person – however children can be manipulated such that it appears they have consented in some way out of deference to the abuser’s authority. This is why abuse often involves misuse or abuse of power over a victim and can be accomplished through a range of inappropriate behaviors that give the abuser the upper hand.
