Parish Mission Statement

We, the parish of Saint Peter Claver, are a Catholic faith community within the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and the Universal Church. Firm in the hope of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and inspired by the example of our patron, we proclaim the kingdom of God to embrace everyone in love without discrimination of any kind. We are devoted to worship, to witness, and joyful service in the Spirit.

We wish all mothers a happy and healthy Mother's Day!

Loving God,
as a mother gives life and nourishment
to her children,
so you watch over your Church.
Bless our mother.

Let the example of her faith and love shine forth.
Grant that we, her family,
may honor her always with a spirit of profound respect.
Grant this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Pastor's Corner

My dear Parishioners,

We learned from our last week's reflection on the Sacrament of Baptism that by receiving it we are made official members of the family of God, whom He also considers His own possession, a chosen race, and a royal priesthood. God also assures us that by the resurrection of Jesus from the dead He has given us newness of life and the dignity of being called children of God for so indeed we are. In Scripture, God tells us, "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you" (Jeremiah 1:5). God created each one of us, and every person is unique and valuable to God. He has a special plan for each of our lives. He knows what He made us to be.

Because God made each individual person, we should treat each person with human dignity. We are responsible for taking care of our bodies and minds and using them to do good things. We are called to be kind toward others and solve problems peacefully instead of fighting. If we see someone being disrespected, we are called to speak up and defend him or her and get help if necessary. It is our responsibility to protect others because every life is important to God.

Every person is created in the image and likeness of God and is equally precious in the eyes of God. He wants all of us, not just some of us, to be with Him forever. Every person is His child, so we are all sisters and brothers.

In their pastoral letter titled "Brothers and Sisters to Us," the Catholic Bishops of the United States reminded us that people of every racial and cultural group are equal in dignity. And as Pope Francis has said, "The Son of God became incarnate in the souls of men to instill the feeling of brotherhood. All are brothers and all children of God." To treat any one person or group as less than fully equal to us is a sin. Racism divides the human family and goes against God's plan to make all one family.

Racism has a terrible history in the world and in our nation. It began with the harmful treatment and displacement of many Native Americans by those who wanted their land. It increased with the slavery of Africans. Over time, other people of color were brought to the United States to do hard labor under brutal conditions.

Racism continues today in unequal treatment and lack of equal opportunity for all. It is our responsibility as Catholics to advocate for change that allows everyone an opportunity to achieve their goals in school and the workplace. Our diversity as humans means that every person brings his or her own God-given gifts to the world and deserves a chance to share them. Inequalities in schools and workplaces contradict the equal dignity of all God's children and do not contribute to the common good. Therefore, the Catholic Church and her members are called to raise awareness and end these sinful inequalities. Next week, I will be presenting some historical facts that show how racism has been a reality here in California then and now.

Let us pray not only for the end of this pandemic but also for an end to the sin of racism!

Peace,
Fr. Riz

"I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you."

John 15:11-12

Have you ever thought of what the difference is between happiness and joy? Our culture tells us that happiness is a good college, financial success, good looks, a nice house, and a nice car. Our God tells us that He gives us joy, a joy that nothing in life can take away from us. God's joy is peace of mind trusting in His care for us. It is a kind heart full of God's love for us. It is a caring spirit that sees others and helps when we can. In today's Gospel Jesus tells us of this joy He wants for us. Talk as a family or with friends about what you think the difference between happiness and joy is and see what Jesus shows you in your conversations!

Our Lady of Fatima

We celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima on May 13.

Mary appeared to three peasant children near Fatima, Portugal, six times between May 13 and October 13, 1917, and asked for prayers for world peace and an end to World War I, for sinners, and for the conversion of Russia. She entrusted the children with three secrets, regarding devotion to her Immaculate Heart, a vision of hell, and a "bishop in white" shot by soldiers firing bullets and arrows. Many connect the third secret to the attempted assassination of Blessed Pope John Paul II on May 13, 1981, and the pope thanked Mary for guiding the bullet and saving him. At the Vatican, Pope Francis has stood before the statue of Our Lady from the Fatima shrine and formally entrusted the world to Mary.

Happy Mother's Day, Mother Mary!

A vision of the Mother of God. From the Diary of St. Faustina: In the midst of a great brilliance, I saw the Mother of God clothed in a white gown, girt about with a golden cincture; and there were tiny stars, also of gold, over the whole garment, and chevron-shaped sleeves lined with gold. Her cloak was sky-blue, lightly thrown over the shoulders. A transparent veil was delicately drawn over her head, while her flowing hair was set off beautifully by a golden crown which terminated in little crosses. On Her left arm She held the Child Jesus. A Blessed Mother of this type I had not yet seen. Then She looked at me kindly and said: I am the Mother of God of Priests. At that, She lowered Jesus from her arm to the ground, raised Her right hand heavenward and said: O God, bless Poland, bless priests. Then She addressed me once again: Tell the priests what you have seen. (Diary 1585)

Harmony in Hope

The generous contribution you make today will go directly toward emergency needs for children, adults and families. Your gift will provide those in crisis situations throughout the Archdiocese of Los Angeles a one-time emergency help: food, lodging for the night, emergency medical care, rent to tide over a financial crisis or a utility bill to keep the water or heat turned on for the week. You are their hope!

KNIGHT'S CORNER

Recently, the California State Chapter to which our council belongs received the delivery of 100 wheelchairs that were purchased in bulk and will be distributed to veterans and others who are in need. More than 25 members of the 4th degree assemblies and councils, including members of our own council helped unload the wheelchairs from the shipping container, and then delivered them to various storage facilities throughout Ventura County and the Santa Barbara region. The wheelchairs are now ready to be distributed to those in need. Since the beginning of the wheelchair program, the St. Peter Claver Council has contributed funds. Our Council has enabled the program to purchase over fifty wheelchairs.

In a virtual event on Saturday, May 01, 2021, Archbishop Jose Gomez blessed the 100th ultrasound machine donated by the California Knights of Columbus to a pregnancy resource center. The ultrasound program began in January 2009 with a donation of one 2D ultrasound machine to the Obria Pregnancy Resource Center in Mission Viejo, and just over a decade later, the California Knights of Columbus donated the 100th machine to Dr. P.J. Baggot and the Guadalupe Medical Center in downtown Los Angeles. In all, the donation of the 100 machines is valued at $4.5 million and was made possible by years of fundraising by Knights councils from across the state, personal donations, and matching funds provided by the Supreme Council of the Knights of Columbus. The California Knights of Columbus are committed to serving the local community, defending life, and fostering fraternity among Catholic men looking to serve the Church.

Charity has always been at the heart of our work and our faith. For the Knights of Columbus, charity means supporting a boundless variety of projects. So come join us. EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Choosing to Love One Another

Love one another. The greatest commandment, the simplest commandment — and if you've ever loved anyone, you know it's also the hardest.

I'm man enough to admit it. I've seen one or two of those cheesy Hallmark movies that are especially popular around the holidays. Boy meets Girl. Boy and Girl encounter a catastrophic roadblock to their relationship — they're coaches of rival high school volleyball teams, or he runs a dog kennel and she works at a feline rescue, so it could never, ever work out, right? But sprinkle a little movie magic over the whole situation and Boy and Girl find what Hallmark tells us is true love.

I could make a list of all the things that are inaccurate about these movies, and something I would put right near the top — maybe even above the sometimes-unbelievable storylines — is the idea that love is a feeling.

See, I'm not sure if it's accurate to call these movies love stories. Attraction stories, sure. But if you've ever forgiven someone who's hurt you, nursed a dying parent, gotten up for an infant's night feeding or let your kid have the last piece of cake, you know that real love is a verb. It's something you do. And it is almost always a choice.

Love one another. How often do we hear this? How often do we think about what it really means? How often do we take a moment to consider the action Jesus is asking us to take and the choice he is asking us to make?

REGONOGE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Elegir Amarse los Unos a los Otros

Ámense los unos a los otros. El mandamiento más grande, el mandamiento más simple, y si alguna vez has amado a alguien, sabes que también es el más difícil.

Soy lo suficientemente hombre para admitirlo. He visto una o dos de esas películas cursis de Hallmark que son especialmente populares durante las temporadas festivas. El chico conoce a la chica. El chico y la chica se encuentran con un obstáculo catastrófico en su relación: son entrenadores de equipos rivales de voleibol de la escuela secundaria, o él dirige una perrera y ella trabaja en un rescate felino, por lo que nunca, nunca podría funcionar, ¿verdad? Pero espolvorea un poco de magia cinematográfica sobre toda la situación y el chico y la chica encuentran lo que Hallmark nos dice que es el amor verdadero.

Podría hacer una lista de todas las cosas que son inexactas sobre estas películas, y algo que pondría cerca de la parte superior, tal vez incluso por encima de las historias a veces increíbles, es la idea de que el amor es un sentimiento.

Mira, no estoy seguro de que sea correcto llamar a estas películas historias de amor. Historias de atracción, seguro. Pero si alguna vez has perdonado a alguien que te lastimó, has atendido a un padre moribundo, te has levantó para la alimentación nocturna de un bebé o dejado que tu hijo se comiera el último pedazo de pastel, sabes que el amor verdadero es un verbo. Es algo que haces. Y casi siempre es una elección.

Ámense los unos a los otros. ¿Con qué frecuencia escuchamos esto? ¿Con qué frecuencia pensamos en lo que realmente significa? ¿Con qué frecuencia nos tomamos un momento para considerar la acción que Jesús nos pide que tomemos y la elección que nos pide que hagamos?
