PASTOR'S CORNER

My dear Parishioners,

Happy Independence Day to you all! Thanks be to God for blessing us a country where we can live as brothers and sisters in freedom and in peace!

On this special occasion that we express gratitude to God for our freedom and peace, I would like to dedicate July's Pastor's Corner to enriching you with a deeper understanding of the Lord's Prayer – the Our Father. The following reflections are taken from a Treatise on the Lord's Prayer by Saint Cyprian, third century bishop of Carthage, Tunisia and martyred on September 14, 258 AD.

Let your prayer come from a humble heart.

When we pray, our words should be calm, modest and disciplined. Let us reflect that we are standing before God. We should please Him both by our bodily posture and the manner of our speech. It is characteristic of the vulgar to shout and make a noise, not those who are modest. On the contrary, they should employ a quiet tone in their prayer.

Moreover, in the course of his teaching, the Lord instructed us to pray in secret. Hidden and secluded places, even our own rooms, give witness to our belief that God is present everywhere; that He sees and hears all; that in the fullness of His majesty, He penetrates hidden and secret places. This is the teaching of Jeremiah: Am I God when I am near, and not God when I am far away? Can anyone hide in a dark corner without my seeing him? Do I not fill heaven and earth? Another passage of Scripture says: The eyes of the Lord are everywhere, observing both good and wicked men.

The same modesty and discipline should characterize our liturgical prayer as well. When we gather to celebrate the divine mysteries with God's priest, we should not express our prayer in unruly words; the petition that should be made to God with moderation is not to be shouted out noisily and verbosely. For God hears our heart not our voice. He sees our thoughts; he is not to be shouted at. The Lord showed us this when he asked: Why do you think evil in your hearts? The book of Revelation testifies to this also: And all the churches shall know that I am the one who searches the heart and the desires.

Anna maintained this rule; in her observance of it she is an image of the Church. In the First Book of Kings we are told that she prayed quietly and modestly to God in the recesses of her heart. Her prayer was secret but her faith was evident. She did not pray with her voice, but with her heart, for she knew that in this way the Lord would hear her. She prayed with faith and obtained what she sought. Scripture makes this clear in the words: She was speaking in her heart; her lips were moving but her voice could not be heard; and the Lord heard her prayer. The psalmist also reminds us: Commune within your own hearts, and in the privacy of your room express your remorse. This is the teaching of the Holy Spirit. Through Jeremiah he suggests this: Say in your hearts: Lord, it is you that we have to worship.

My friends, anyone who worships should remember the way in which the tax-collector prayed in the temple alongside the Pharisee. He did not raise his eyes immodestly to heaven or lift up his hands arrogantly. Instead he struck his breast and confessing the sins hidden within his heart he implored the assistance of God's mercy. While the Pharisee was pleased with himself, the tax-collector deserved to be cleansed much more because of the manner in which he prayed. For he did not place his hope of salvation in the certainty of his own innocence; indeed, no one is innocent. Rather he prayed humbly, confessing his sins. And the Lord who forgives the lowly heard his prayer.

I invite you to use this article for your reflection this week. More of this wise reflection from St. Cyprian will be shared in the coming issues. I pray for you and your family that God may grant you His blessings of peace and joy.

Peace,
Fr. Riz

"My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me. Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

2 Corinthians 12:9-10

When Saint Paul asked the Lord to relieve him of his suffering, that is the response he got. God's grace is enough for us, for with it, in our weakness we are His perfect child. Saint Paul goes on to say because of this, he is content to suffer, that when he is weak, he is strong. Hmmm. How many of us are OK to suffer weaknesses, insults, and other hardships because we know that with God's grace, we are strong, and that gives Him glory? Remember grace is the gift of God's strength. This week as life brings you challenges, no matter how big or small, surrender yourself to God by telling Him, "I need Your grace." Teach your children about God's grace and encourage them to do this with you.

this day is bright with the memory of those who declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being.

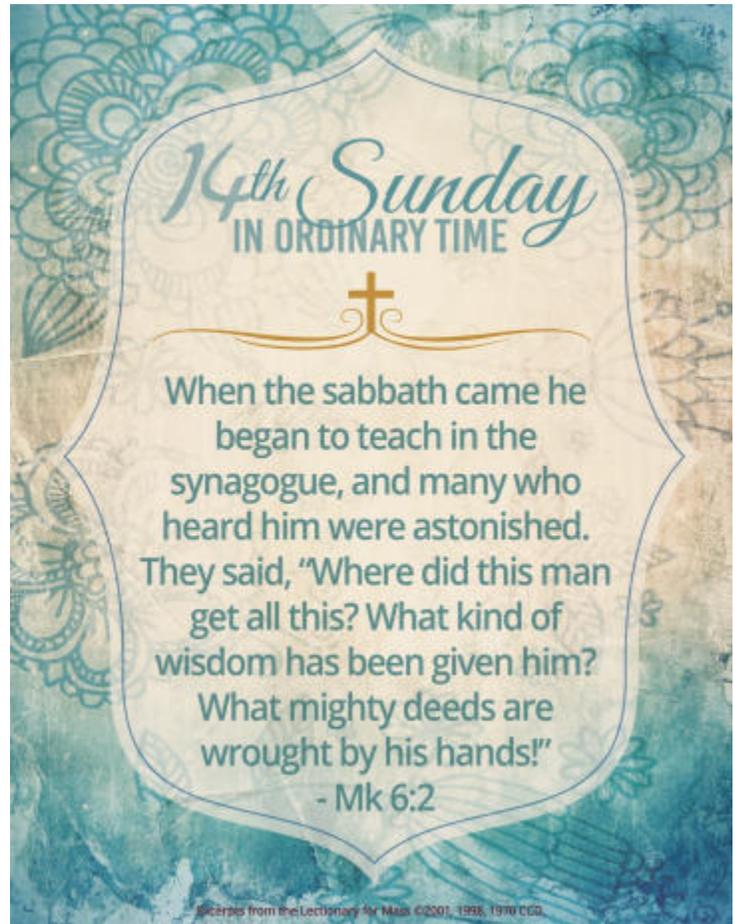

Help us to continue a good work

Make our vision clear and our will

Pray for Our Country

From the diary of St. Faustina: I often pray for Poland, but I see that God is very angry with it because of its ingratitude. I exert all the strength of my soul to defend it. I constantly remind God of the promises of His mercy. When I see His anger, I throw myself trustingly into the abyss of His mercy, and I plunge all Poland in it, and then He cannot use His justice. My country, how much you cost me! There is no day in which I do not pray for you. (Diary, 1188)

I was paralyzed with fear when the Lord lifted the veil a little for me. Now I see clearly that chosen souls keep the world in existence to fulfill the measure [of justice]. (Diary 1533)

My prayer response: Lord Jesus, thank you for telling St. Faustina that she, as a chosen soul, helped keep the world in existence. May I at least try to do the same. I fervently ask for your Mercy on the people of the United States and of the whole world.

¿Sabía Que?

Qué Hacer Si Su Hijo Está Perdido

La peor pesadilla de todo padre de familia es perder a un hijo en alguna parte. Si su hijo o hija está perdido/a, saber qué hacer y actuar rápidamente puede ayudarlo/a a regresar a casa de manera segura. Primero, llame a la policía. Dele una descripción completa de cómo se ve su hijo, qué vestía, la última vez que lo vio. Si es posible, proporcione fotografías. Luego llame al Centro Nacional para Niños Desaparecidos y Explotados al 1-800-THE-LOST (1-800-843-5678). Si su hijo o hija no está en casa, revise su casa a fondo: detrás y dentro de electrodomésticos grandes, en armarios, debajo de las camas, en sus automóviles.
