DOODLES AND RAMBLINGS

WITH FATHER LOUIS SUNG

Hello everyone and happy 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Today I will be continuing talking about the Olympics as the 2020 Olympics should end today. I spoke of how I loved to watch Olympics basketball but today I will be talking of some of the other Olympics events I liked to watch. Track and field was always a fun one to watch because it was simple yet exciting. It was a footrace with the fastest people in the world. It was simple as there were no complicated rules yet to see the close finish races. I remember when Usain Bolt was running, it was very exciting as he blew out the competition. It was exciting to see history being made and world records being broken. The same as well when Michael Phelps was breaking world records. This was exciting to see for me just as a fan of sports in general. I do not usually follow sports like swimming or track and field but when history is being made it is always exciting. Next week I will continue talking about some of the other Olympic events that I enjoy in honor of the Olympics that are happening right now.

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." John 6:51

In today's First Reading, Elijah walks one day in the desert and is so tired, slumps under a tree wanting to die. Then an angel wakes him, telling him to eat the food that appears before him. After eating the food, he is nourished enough for walking 40 days in the desert. Wow! Just imagine all you can do with the Food from Heaven you are able to consume every Sunday – every day if you'd like! The Eucharist, the Body of Christ is that food from Heaven and it nourishes us in a way nothing else can. This week dream about all the good you'd like to do in your life, no matter what age you are. As you receive the Food from Heaven at Mass this coming weekend, believe.

St. Faustina, you are in My Heart!

Saint Faustina wrote this in her diary: During Vespers, I heard these words: My daughter, I want to repose in your heart, because many souls have thrown Me out of their hearts today. I have experienced sorrow unto death. I tried to comfort the Lord, by offering Him my love a thousand times over. I felt, within my soul, a great disgust for sin (Diary, 866).

During prayer, I heard these words: My daughter, let your heart be filled with joy. I, the Lord, am with you. Fear nothing. You are in My heart. At that moment, I knew the great majesty of God, and I understood that nothing could be compared with one single perception of God. Outward greatness dwindles like a speck of dust before one act of a deeper knowledge of God (Diary, 1133).

My Prayer Response: Lord Jesus, I welcome You into my heart. May my heart be a consolation to You today as You fill me with Your joy.

FORMED

PICK OF THE WEEK:

Edith Stein

This is a moving, artistic portrayal of the life of Jewish philosopher, Catholic convert, and Carmelite martyr, Edith Stein. It powerfully captures the interior struggles of this extraordinary woman and her journey toward the Lord. Deeply influenced by the writings of St. Teresa of Avila, she joined the Carmelites, took the name of Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, and was put to death in Auschwitz in 1942. In honor of Teresa Benedicta's feast day, enjoy this film.

Did You Know?

The importance of being a good example

Parents often have an easier time enforcing rules if they are setting good examples for their children. When it comes to drinking, drug use, and other risky behaviors, it is not always enough to tell your children these behaviors are forbidden. Parents should model the behavior they want to see. Drinking in moderation and abstaining from drug and nicotine teaches children about boundaries and responsible behaviors and reinforces the message that dangerous substances really are dangerous. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS article "Ten prevention practices you may not have considered," at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

What's Your Hearth Cake?

"Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you." I've been to a lot of meetings in my years of work in the Church, and you can take my word for it: the ones with snacks just seem to go better.

I don't know what it is exactly. Maybe it's just that people are in a more agreeable mood if you show up with donuts. Or maybe it's about the very real sense of community and camaraderie that is created at a table where people are engaging in that most human of tasks — eating — beside one another. I think a big part of it comes down to the simple fact that we're all just nicer people when we're fed.

This rings true spiritually, too. We simply must remain fed if we, in turn, are to feed others. Think of a time when you have neglected your relationship with God — when you haven't fed yourself with whatever it is that you need to remain committed to the journey of a Christian life. Is it Mass attendance? Is it prayer or Scripture reading? Is it time with your small group, or conversation with a trusted friend who knows your soul? What sustains your ability to be a good disciple, a good steward? What inspires you to give more freely, to love more abundantly?

Whatever it is, that's your hearth cake. That's your jug of water. Don't neglect it. The Angel of the Lord is nudging you in your sleep: "Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you."

KNIGHT'S CORNER

Charity is at the heart of the work of the Knights of Columbus and our faith. Here at St. Peter Claver, we are united in providing charity within our parish and our community. As Catholic men, we lead, serve, protect, and defend our community. We share a common desire to be better husbands, fathers, sons, neighbors, and role models who put charity and community first. This is our path, and our faith leads the way. Expand your faith and become a member of the Knights of Columbus. Together, we are making a difference.

Reconoce a Dios en tus Momentos Ordinarios

¿Cuál es tu pan cocido en las brasas?

"Levántate y come, porque aún te queda un largo camino." He asistido a muchas reuniones en mis años de trabajo en la Iglesia, y puedes confiar en mi palabra: las que tienen bocadillos parecen ir mejor.

No sé qué es exactamente. Tal vez sea solo que la gente está de un humor más agradable si te presentas con donas. O tal vez se trata del sentido muy real de comunidad y camaradería que se crea en una mesa donde las personas se involucran en la más humana de las tareas, comer, una al lado de la otra. Creo que una gran parte se debe al simple hecho de que todos somos personas más agradables cuando nos alimentamos.

Esto también suena cierto espiritualmente. Simplemente debemos seguir alimentados si, a su vez, vamos a alimentar a otros. Piensa en un momento en el que hayas descuidado tu relación con Dios, cuando no te hayas alimentado con lo que sea que necesites para permanecer comprometido con el viaje de una vida cristiana. ¿Es asistencia a misa? ¿Es oración o lectura de las Escrituras? ¿Es tiempo con tu grupo pequeño o conversación con un amigo de confianza que conoce tu alma? ¿Qué sostiene tu capacidad para ser un buen discípulo, un buen corresponsable? ¿Qué te inspira a dar más libremente, a amar más abundantemente?

Sea lo que sea, ese es tu pan cocido en las brasas. Esa es tu jarra de agua. No lo descuides. El ángel del Señor te está dando un codazo en tu sueño: "Levántate y come, porque aún te queda un largo camino."

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

¿Sabia Que?

La importancia de ser un buen ejemplo

A los padres de familia a menudo les resulta más fácil hacer cumplir las reglas si están dando un buen ejemplo a sus hijos. Cuando se trata de beber bebidas alcohólicas, consumir drogas y de otras conductas riesgosas, no siempre es suficiente decirle a sus hijos que estas conductas están prohibidas. Los padres de familia deben modelar el comportamiento que ellos quieren ver. Beber con moderación y abstenerse de drogas y nicotina les enseña a los niños sobre los límites y los comportamientos responsables, y refuerza el mensaje de que las sustancias peligrosas son realmente peligrosas. Para obtener más información, solicite una copia del artículo de VIRTUS en inglés, "Ten prevention practices you may not have considered" (Diez prácticas de prevención que quizás no haya considerado) en <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

Your Donations Made an Impact!

Dear Friends of Sarah's House,
How God has blessed our ministry through the generosity of wonderful friends like you!
Thank you so much for your donations of cleaning supplies, toilet paper, paper towels and gift cards. Your generosity not only benefits Sarah's House, but the women we serve.
It is always inspiring to know that others are thinking about our ministry and are mindful that we have many on-going needs.
May God Richly bless you as you have blessed us.
In His Service, Laura Malinowski, Executive Director

Dear Friends at
St. Peter Claver,
We are pleased to receive your generous contribution of new blankets to the My Stuff Bags Foundation. Thank you for demonstrating compassion and concern for the thousands of children across America rescued from abuse, neglect, abandonment, or homelessness, who often enter foster care and crisis shelters with nothing of their own.
Our Foundation relies solely on a national network of kind-hearted people who provide new children's items and funding to put My Stuff Bags into the hands of these hurting children. Together, with the support of our loyal volunteers, each individual blue duffel is packed with new personal items and necessities, assuring a child in crisis that many people love and care about them.
Thank you again for joining us in our mission to bring new belongings, and new hope, to our country's most deserving youth.
Sincerely,
Janeen Holmes, President/CEO
