GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"What do you wish me to do for you?" Whether we realize it, this is a question God is always asking. It's an important question because the answer we provide will reveal a great deal about where our hearts lie. Our requests of God can often appear very noble and altruistic. They consist of requests for healing for someone in need of prayers, successful resolution of a personal conflict, assistance in overcoming a disease and myriad other desires for both ourselves and others. We are especially concerned about those we love and can easily find ourselves bringing their struggles to God for a hearing in our prayer.

Is that really all that prayer is about? The woman in today's Gospel, having been put in her place by Jesus, was only looking out for the wellbeing of her sons. She was doing what mothers do, protecting and securing the livelihood of her children. But she was sadly mistaken, her request was not granted. We all make this same misguided mistake from time to time. The goal of prayer is not to convince God of the worthiness of our agenda or to gain a hearing. Sometimes we believe that the more we multiply our prayers or discover the right combination of supplications that we will receive more of God's attention. That's not how it works. Even though God desires to hear, know, and be an intimate part of what is on our minds, it goes much deeper.

What we need from God is a relationship. It's a relationship that guides and immerses us in the very stuff of life and in the direction of the Gospel. This relationship sees God's kingdom and agenda, not our own, as what is most important. It builds the strength of character necessary to bring God's Gospel into a world that may not receive it with open arms. It may cause us discomfort and suffering. We are asked to heroically journey with God through suffering, hardship, ridicule, and even death! Ultimately, our desire from God must become our desire for God. It is only when this happens that the powerful words "thy will be done" will be found with sincerity and humility on our lips. Whatever God wishes becomes what we wish as we see this glorious union of wills. Our humble lives will then become powerful witnesses, and what happens to us in God's eternal kingdom the result of his mercy. We become true servants and find ourselves discovering God's definition of success. That definition has nothing at all to do with status, income, or privilege.

Hello Everyone and happy 29th Sunday of Ordinary Time. Last week I was talking about some of my favorite anime shows that I watched during my past. I will continue doing so this week. One of the most famous and popular anime shows, even to this day, is 'Naruto'. It is about ninjas that use super-powered ninja moves such as jumping across buildings and controlling fire. This anime was very popular while I was growing up and many of my friends watched this as well. I starting watching this when I was early middle school and for many this anime, Naruto, defined this era of anime coming to America. This anime had over 500 episodes and so it was a very long running one. I would often draw Naruto characters for fun during middle school and this is one of my favorite animes growing up. The idea of a young ninja outcast training hard everyday to become a powerful ninja hero was a very entertaining and inspiring concept. And the anime was full of action and cool fight scenes. These ninjas did not look like the traditional ninjas that we know today but nonetheless were very popular.

Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all.
~ Mark 10:43-44

Wow is what Jesus is saying here counter-cultural today! Think of the people our society deems great – are they servants or working to care for others? Do those qualities come first for our leaders? Celebrities? Professional athletes? Bishops and Pope? What about those you consider great in your own lives? Your teachers? Parents? Co-workers? You? This week's topic for your family: How are you a servant or caring for others needs? Who does that for you?

- ✠ Year 1 First Reconciliation, Year 2 First Communion, Older Children's First Reconciliation & Holy Communion and 3 To 5 Club Sessions begin October 24. Registered families be sure to check your emails for information.

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments

What's in it for me?

I think we've all been guilty of looking at a situation and wondering what's in it for us. It doesn't matter if it's a particular work assignment, someone at the parish asking for help with the mission trip bake sale, or your spouse asking if you'll take over the grocery shopping this week. Often, our first reaction to one of these requests is a heavy sigh and the thought: "If I do this, what will I get?"

Sometimes it surprises us to realize that the Apostles were no different. We tend to idolize these contemporaries of Christ as giants who walked with the Savior. But in reality, these individuals were merely human beings struggling to commit to the task of everyday stewardship.

In the Gospels, we see glimpses of them longing for praise and affirmation. We see them jockeying for positions of power within the group of twelve. We see them expect earthly rewards like honor and admiration. We see them acting a lot like us.

But in the end, we see them transformed by the grace of God. Like all the saints, their holiness stems from their commitment to their call. They stumble through, and as they stumble, they keep trusting God. They keep turning to Him. They keep asking for help. They don't give up just because they keep failing at it.

We are defined by what we give when we have no hope of being reimbursed, rewarded, or recognized. The Apostles understood this, eventually, and they gave accordingly. Most of them gave their very lives.

Remember, they're just like us. If they can do it, we can too.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
LPi

Did You Know?

Escalating red flags in an adult's behavior

In most abuse cases, the victim knows the offender. Offenders go to great lengths to ensure that they are not strangers, often spending months or even years hiding in plain sight. Parents should be aware of a few red flags that range from obvious to subtle, and usually indicate a more sinister relationship at work between an offender and potential victims. Some obvious signs include telling children dirty jokes or showing them pornography. More subtle signs could be an adult who wrestles or tickles often, wants to be alone with children, gives gifts frequently, or encourages children to keep secrets. For more red flags, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "The Rationale of Warning Signs" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

¿Sabia Que?

Manténgase atento al aumento de señales de alerta en el comportamiento de un adulto

En la mayoría de los casos de abuso, la víctima conoce al agresor. Los delincuentes hacen todo lo posible para asegurarse de que no sean considerados extraños, y a menudo pasan meses o incluso años ocultos a la vista. Los padres de familia deben estar al tanto de algunas señales de alerta que van de obvias a sutiles y, por lo general, indican una relación más siniestra de un delincuente con respecto a las víctimas potenciales. Algunas señales obvias incluyen contarles chistes sucios a los niños o mostrarles pornografía. Los signos más sutiles podrían ser un adulto que lucha o hace cosquillas a menudo, quiere estar solo con los niños, les da regalos con frecuencia o anima a los niños a guardar secretos. Para obtener información sobre más señales de alerta, solicite una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® "The Rationale of Warning Signs" (El fundamento de las señales de alerta) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

St. Peter Claver Adult Faith Formation

Essentials of the Catholic Faith

Monday, October 18, 2021

The Creed, pt. 2: “God, the Father Almighty”

Every Sunday at Mass Catholics proclaim the Creed. Who is this God in whom we proclaim to believe? Do we realize the meaning, the power, the radical implications of what we proclaim? With superb insights, clarity and compelling visuals, Bishop Robert Barron helps us rediscover the priceless treasure, the great intellectual and spiritual depths of Christian belief and reclaim the unity, clarity and conviction of the Christian faith. Come not only to listen and to learn, come also for stimulating, inspiring in-person conversation and community!

Come even if you missed part 1
