GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Nativity of the Lord

“He so loved us that for our sake He was made man in time, through Whom all times were made; was in the world less in years than His servants, though older than the world itself in His eternity; was made man, Who made man; was created of a mother, whom He created; was carried by hands which He formed; nursed at the breasts which He had filled; cried in the manger in wordless infancy, He the Word without Whom all human eloquence is mute (St. Augustine, Sermon 188).” The miracle of what happens at Christmas is truly an awesome mystery. Revealed in the silent ordinariness of life is God’s intimate love for humanity and all that He made. The Word, existing for all time, comes and dwells among us. God kisses us. We can seek and soar with playful delight as a joy never known before fills our heart.

Joy is best expressed through dance. There is just something truly wonderful about the self-abandon a beautiful melodic dance reveals. If we are able to let go and really be free, it celebrates life in a way few other experiences really can. With the birth of Jesus Christ, God takes the Divine Dance to a deeper and more tangible level. We can now not only see what we believe but believe what we see! This most perfect dance is a call to beauty, innocence, truth, purpose, hope, faith, and love. Today we know, beyond doubt, that we are a necessary part of God’s beautifully choreographed masterpiece of life and not just a random happening without real intent or purpose. We are loved, treasured, and blessed.

Accepting the truth of God’s birth in time we also accept an invitation to dance with God. We can let go of what tethers us to anxious concerns and superficial securities. Throw caution to the wind and go with God. We have been blessed with talents, gifts, and life eternal. Follow the rhythm of the dance with joy and listen to what the Word who became flesh tells us about what the next steps can be. Today, heaven remains the same, but earth has been profoundly changed.

Doodles & Ramblings

- With Father Louis

Hello Everyone and happy feast of the Holy Family. It is the day after Christmas so I wish everyone a very Merry Christmas as we celebrate the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. Since now we are in the Christmas season and no longer in Advent I will share another Christmas memory from my younger years. Growing up my mom loved filling up our stockings for Christmas. She would always fill them up with a lot of little things and they were always very full and heavy. This was a very fun part of the Christmas day gift opening festivities in our household. When my siblings and I were younger she would fill it with things such as little trinkets, chocolates, candies, and things of that nature. As we became older she started to fill it with things that pertained more to our age. After becoming adults and moving out of the house, my mom still prepared Christmas stockings for us even as adults. However, now she fills it with appropriate things for us. I remember last year she filled it with things I needed such as chapsticks, socks, and even a mini wine bottle (since I am now well over 21 years old). She still would put in a little chocolates, candies, and trinkets but this is a fun tradition that my mom still keeps to this day, even as all her children grew older.

Everyday Stewardship

Stewardship Ties

There is a lot of imagery around Christmas that has to do with adoption - or, more specifically, with a child being loved by another as if they belonged to that person and loved in such a profound way that in time, they do come to belong to that person.

We see this with Joseph and the infant Jesus. Joseph is not Jesus' biological father. But through a series of actions, and through his faithfulness in small, everyday matters, Joseph becomes the foster father of Jesus.

Perhaps we are parents who have adopted children, or we ourselves were adopted. We have also seen how, through a series of actions of love and sacrifice, someone can become the parent of a person who is not their "blood." A lot of times these families celebrate the day of the adoption. I've heard it called a "gotcha day," and it's marked joyously, like a birthday.

Most of us are not descended from the Israelites, God's Chosen People. But through a series of extraordinary actions of love and sacrifice, God has made Himself our parent, too. And through our own actions, and through faithfulness in small and everyday matters, we are His children.

But in this family, instead of blood ties, we have stewardship ties. It's not about who we look like, it's about how we treat one another. How we take care of one another.

So this Christmas, let's think about how we will celebrate our adoption. As much as it is Jesus' birthday, it's also our "gotcha day" - the day we received the gift of eternal family.

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. Luke 2:51

In today's Gospel Reading, the Holy Family of Mary, Joseph, and Jesus struggle a bit. Did that take away from their holiness? No. Mary and Joseph, the anxious parents of 12-year-old Jesus, asked Him why He did what He did. They talked through what happened, then traveled home together. Jesus, out of love for His Mom and Dad, obeyed them. Mary His Mother, like most parents, kept these memories in her heart. Let the Holy Family remind your family that you too are holy. Talk things through together, children obey your parents out of love, and parents treasure these moments of your holy family.

The Faith Formation Office will be closed for Christmas Break from December 24th through January 1st. May 2022 be blessed by your kind words, actions, and thoughts!

RCIA

RCIA: Parish Sponsors

The sponsor is the one who connects the catechumen/candidate to the parish community. The sponsor helps the person to be part of the life of the community by introducing her/him to members of the parish and inviting them to parish events. The sponsor needs to be a practicing Catholic and is a companion on the journey to becoming fully Catholic.

Never been Baptized? Baptized in a different faith? Baptized Catholic but never Confirmed and/or received first Communion? Then the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) is just for you!

Call the Faith Formation Office at (805) 526-0680 to be a Sponsor or for more information. Welcome!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Holy Family

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

Advent and Christmas 2021

Greetings to all this Christmas season, and to visitors from far and near.

May you be able to safely enjoy time with your relatives and friends.

Welcome also, to those who may not have been with us for a while!

In this season of great joy, may you, your families, loved ones and homes be filled with the blessings of Peace, Joy, and Love. May you rejoice in the miracle and promise of Christmas, and the gifts that has been given to us in the child Jesus, who has come to destroy fear, dispel loneliness, and who brings us courage, hope and peace; and may these blessings follow you throughout the New Year.

Many thanks to all who worked so hard on the Advent and Christmas Liturgies and all who contributed their time and talents to help make our worship together so prayerful and meaningful.

Our gratitude goes out to all the choirs, cantors and leaders; all coordinators; lectors and eucharistic ministers who shared Christ in word and flesh; our altar society; the youth of our parish; all the altar servers; environment decor ministry; the liturgy team; ushers; and all people who work quietly behind the scenes in every activity during each special season.

What you do is so important - and it makes such a difference!

Thank you for your commitment, love and care.

Did You Know?

Check Christmas presents for button batteries - Many parents will be spending the next few days and weeks assembling (and reassembling) their children's gifts, and it's important to be on the lookout for potential hazards, including button batteries. Button batteries are small, round discs used in anything from toys to key fobs to watches. If these batteries end up being swallowed or placed in a child's nose or ears, they can cause serious damage – from electrical currents to tissue burns. Keep an eye on the power sources for the toys your children get this Christmas, and consider taking extra safety measures for anything with a button battery. For more information, visit <https://www.nsc.org/home-safety/safety-topics/child-safety/button-batteries>.

TAXES AND GIVING AT YEAR'S END

Many people enjoy using year's end as a special time to give to their favorite Catholic institutions and also positively impact their federal and state income taxes. Year end giving provides many advantages to you, the donor. All gifts made on or before December 31st are tax deductible for the tax year in which your gift was made.

¿Sabia Que?

Revise los regalos de Navidad para ver si hay baterías de botón - Muchos padres de familia pasarán los próximos días y semanas ensamblando (y reensamblando) los obsequios de sus hijos, y es importante estar atentos a los peligros potenciales, incluidas las baterías de botón. Las pilas de botón son discos pequeños y redondos que se utilizan en cualquier cosa, desde juguetes hasta llaveros electrónicos, conocidos como "key fobs" en inglés, y relojes. Si estas baterías terminan siendo tragadas o colocadas en la nariz o los oídos de un niño, pueden causar daños graves, desde corrientes eléctricas hasta quemaduras de tejidos. Esté atento a las fuentes de energía de los juguetes que sus hijos reciben esta Navidad y considere tomar medidas de seguridad adicionales para cualquier cosa que tenga una batería de botón. Para obtener más información en inglés, visite <https://www.nsc.org/home-safety/safety-topics/child-safety/button-batteries>.

Everyday Stewardship

All in the Family

At first glance, we can often find the image of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph and the Christ Child intimidating - who are we to aspire to that level of discipleship? How could we ever hope to conform ourselves to that mold? Sometimes, it can even be painful - perhaps we hail from a broken family or struggle with a broken relationship within our family, or perhaps we long to be a mother or a father ourselves and that state in life has eluded us.

But the image of the Holy Family is, in reality, a beautiful invitation to us all, no matter our vocation or our state in life, and the example of Mary, Joseph and Jesus is rich with the symbolism of stewardship.

You need not be a biological mother who has carried a child in her womb to be a mother in spirit. Who in your world needs you to love them with the heart of a mother?

The same goes for fatherhood. The Church and the world are crying out for the courageous witness of Christian men like St. Joseph. Who can you love with the steadfast, selfless protection of a father?

Who in your life needs you to love them with the faithful, unconditional love of a son? Who needs your gentle and constant love as a daughter?

We are the Body of Christ, friends. Those of us rejoicing in heaven, those of us suffering in purgatory, and those of us struggling here on earth. We are the great family. Let us love each other well.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO

La Natividad del Señor

¡Feliz Navidad a todos los hombres y mujeres del mundo, que aún creen a pesar de todo lo que han sufrido por la pandemia, Dios está presente entre nosotros! “Juan dio testimonio de él; dijo muy fuerte: Del yo hablaba al decir: El que ha venido detrás de mí ya está delante de mí, porque era antes que yo” (Juan 1:15). Uno de tantos regalos que la Navidad nos trae es muy peculiar: dar testimonio y ser testigos del amor de Dios en este tiempo que estamos viviendo. Otro regalo es la paz, sí, esa paz que tanto necesitamos en la familia, en la sociedad y en nuestro corazón, para poder cantar como los ángeles y los pastores: “Gloria a Dios en lo más alto del cielo y en la tierra paz a los hombres; ésta es la hora de su gracia” (Lucas 2:14).

Cada Navidad, Dios nos habla por medio de su Hijo, y esta no es la excepción. Felices todas las personas que de buen agrado y con el corazón abierto aceptan todas las gracias. Felices todos los que en esta Navidad son mensajeros de la Buena Nueva de Dios, en la familia, en la escuela, en el trabajo y en la sociedad. “Qué hermoso es ver correr sobre los montes al mensajero que anuncia la paz, al mensajero que trae la buena nueva, que pregona la salvación” (Isaías 52:7). ¿Qué gracias y regalos recibiste en esta Navidad? ¿Qué anuncias tú, y a quién se lo anuncias? ¡Feliz Navidad y un abrazo de paz!

26 de diciembre de 2021

La Sagrada Familia

Hoy es un día para celebrar a la familia - a la nuestra y a las familias de todo el mundo, de celebrar y gozar a los hijos, nietos y parientes cercanos y lejanos. Dios quiso nacer en una familia y por medio de ella, se nos ofrece una oportunidad para conocerle mejor y amarle más. Recordemos que es en la familia donde se forjan los santos y santas de Dios. Y es también en ella donde están los vicios y malas acciones. ¡Cuidado padres de familia! Aprender de la familia de Nazaret es importante.

Cada día del año es una oportunidad para continuar la búsqueda de Dios, de Jesús, en nuestro hogar. Podemos vislumbrar, en la Liturgia de hoy, a tres figuras importantes del hogar de Nazaret: una mujer con su pequeño y su esposo, listos para hacer la voluntad de Dios, para orar y platicar en familia. El papa Francisco nos dice que: “Realmente, hoy es un día hermoso... hoy celebramos la fiesta de la Sagrada Familia de Nazaret. El término sagrada coloca a esta familia en el ámbito de la santidad, que es un don de Dios, pero, al mismo tiempo, es una adhesión libre y responsable al plan de Dios” (12-29-2019). Sé, y busco cuál es el plan de Dios para mi hogar o ¿ni siquiera me importa ese diálogo entre esposa, esposo e hijos? El tiempo de confinamiento debió ser una oportunidad para crecer en gracia y sabiduría en la familia. ¿Lo ve usted así? Padres de familia, la mejor herencia para sus hijos y nietos es fomentar la fe, la educación, el amor y la unidad en el hogar.

THE HOLY FAMILY

After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. ~Luke 2:46-47
