GOSPEL MEDITATION

In his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis references a thought from Pope Benedict XVI: "Being a Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction." Today we celebrate an encounter with the Person of Jesus Christ! This simple but holy event in time dramatically changes human life, pointing it toward a new horizon and giving it a decisive direction. This is a message and truth that is not meant to be shared with only a select few who qualify but with the entire world. Pope Francis continues saying, "Thanks solely to this encounter or renewed encounter with God's love, which blossoms into an enriching friendship, we are liberated from our narrowness and self-absorption. We become fully human when we become more than human, when we let God bring us beyond ourselves in order to attain the fullest truth of our being."

Look around at people. Where is life heading for them? What gives them direction? Even we who are people of faith can get distracted and lose our focus. God, in all of His fullness, is revealed in Jesus Christ and we can encounter Him! God is tangible, real, vulnerable, poor, and full of wonders, surprises, and opportunities. For those who are struggling and lost, today is a day of great joy. All they have to do is reach out and touch the truth of Christ. This presence is revealed in the poor, exploited, and vulnerable ones who cry out for compassion and love. But it is also found in the faithful ones who see in the Epiphany of God a liberation from structures and systems that hurt us, a narrowness of mind and heart that constricts us, and an absorption in our self-agenda that prevents us from seeing anything other than ourselves as important.

We have been given the charge of preaching this Good News. If only we could find a way to be more effective, it might stand a chance of doing what God intended it to do. There is always tomorrow and our memory of that bright new light that shone so brilliantly that Bethlehem night pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

Sisters of Notre Dame

You are invited to gather for CENTERING PRAYER AND LECTIO DIVINA on TUESDAY, JANUARY 11, 2022 from 7- 8:30pm.

For further information please contact Sister Betty Mae Bienlein at bbienlein@sndca.org if you plan to attend. The purpose of the gathering is to deepen one's relationship with God through contemplative prayer and to explore how God speaks to each of us through the Scriptures. These gatherings take place on ZOOM on the second and fourth Tuesday of the month. The ZOOM link will be emailed to you on the weekend prior to each Tuesday gathering. All are welcome.

Pastor's Corner

My dear Parishioners,

May the wonder of Christmas, the birth of our Savior by the Virgin Mary, bring you and your family glad tidings and renewed hope in life! I also wish you a New Year full of confidence in the promises of the Lord of Goodness and Joy!

I'm looking forward to 2022 as a year for us to renew our relationship with the God, to see Him more clearly, to follow Him more closely and to love Him more dearly. This is possible because God will continue to provide us with His graces along the way. We need only to follow the example of our Blessed Mother who said "Yes" to God and followed through with it by doing the will of God wholeheartedly throughout her life. And for this reason, that I would like to dedicate this month of January sharing with you sermons from the Church Fathers of the middle ages as source of inspiration for us to deepen our love and appreciation for Mary, the Mother of God.

Let me start with this sermon from Saint Anselm, bishop and doctor of the Church, (Canonized in 1494 AD) on the topic: Virgin Mary, all nature is blessed by you.

"Blessed Lady, sky and stars, earth and rivers, day and night—everything that is subject to the power or use of man—rejoice that through you they are in some sense restored to their lost beauty and are endowed with inexpressible new grace. All creatures were dead, as it were, useless for men or for the praise of God, who made them. The world, contrary to its true destiny, was corrupted and tainted by the acts of men who served idols. Now all creation has been restored to life and rejoices that it is controlled and given splendor by men who believe in God. The universe rejoices with new and indefinable loveliness. Not only does it feel the unseen presence of God himself, its Creator, it sees him openly, working and making it holy. These great blessings spring from the blessed fruit of Mary's womb.

Through the fullness of the grace that was given you, dead things rejoice in their freedom, and those in heaven are glad to be made new. Through the Son who was the glorious fruit of your virgin womb, just souls who died before his life-giving death rejoice as they are freed from captivity, and the angels are glad at the restoration of their shattered domain.

Lady, full and overflowing with grace, all creation receives new life from your abundance. Virgin, blessed above all creatures, through your blessing all creation is blessed, not only creation from its Creator, but the Creator himself has been blessed by creation.

To Mary God gave his only-begotten Son, whom he loved as himself. Through Mary God made himself a Son, not different but the same, by nature Son of God and Son of Mary. The whole universe was created by God, and God was born of Mary. God created all things, and Mary gave birth to God. The God who made all things gave himself form through Mary, and thus he made his own creation. He who could create all things from nothing would not remake his ruined creation without Mary.

God, then, is the Father of the created world and Mary the mother of the re-created world. God is the Father by whom all things were given life, and Mary the mother through whom all things were given new life. For God begot the Son, through whom all things were made, and Mary gave birth to him as the Savior of the world. Without God's Son, nothing could exist; without Mary's Son, nothing could be redeemed.

Truly the Lord is with you, to whom the Lord granted that all nature should owe as much to you as to himself."

And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. Matthew 2:9

The magi from the East were moved to follow a bright star that led them to the Christ Child. The Gospel says that they were overjoyed at seeing the star, then prostrated themselves before the Child. First, they noticed the star, then they left their homes to follow it, and finally they completely humbled themselves before Baby Jesus, laying prostrate on the ground. How is Jesus trying to get your attention? How are you following Him? How are you humbling yourself before Him out of love? Read today's Gospel story as a family or with friends and try to relate it to yourselves today.

RCIA: Why does Baptism for Adults Coincide with Easter?

Baptism coincides with Easter to focus on the connection between Baptism and the death and resurrection of our Savior, Jesus Christ. In the Incarnation, the Word became flesh. In the Paschal Mystery of Jesus' dying and rising, God made possible the forgiveness of our sins and our sharing in God's own unending life and love. Baptism is the first step of this new life, and celebrating Baptism at Easter reminds of our own participation in Jesus' Paschal Mystery.

January 2, 2022 - The Epiphany of the Lord

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. ~Isaiah 60:1

Epiphany

Besides the Wise Men, what is significant about the Epiphany?

Epiphany means "manifestation," or public display. It originates from a story unique to Matthew (2:1-12). Magi from the East come to offer homage to the newborn King, presenting him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

This part of Matthew's infancy narrative differs from Luke's account of the birth of Jesus. In Luke there are no Magi, star, nor gifts. Luke has Jesus being born in a stable after Mary and Joseph's long travel from Nazareth to Bethlehem. Matthew seems to have the family living in a house in Bethlehem, where the Magi find them.

Why these differences? They stem from the needs and concerns of the audience the authors were addressing, as well as the theological stance of each author. Knowing the original intention helps get at the correct interpretation of the text.

Since Matthew was writing primarily to a Jewish community, his concern was to show that Jesus did not come just for Jews, but for Gentiles as well. From his very birth, Jesus not only manifests himself to Jews, but also to Gentiles, who are prominently included in the manifestation, symbolized by the Magi and their journey. This is the most significant aspect of the feast of Epiphany. How do you manifest Jesus to all with whom you come into contact?

January first is the day we honor the Blessed Virgin Mary as “The Mother of God.” This first of January is a Solemnity but this year 2022, the Holy Day of obligation is dispensed since the day fell on Saturday before Sunday. This change was implemented in the early 1990s, but the importance of the day is not diminished.

Let us not forget that Mary, the Mother of our Savior, is the very first Missionary who brought the Good News, Jesus in her womb, to St. Elizabeth, the mother of St. John the Baptist, when Mary visited her. We too are called to be bearers of Jesus to others by as simple as bringing the presence of Jesus to someone we meet each day. May the Blessed Virgin Mary always accompany us then in bringing Christ to others!

Peace,
Fr. Riz

Revisión de seguridad en línea para el nuevo año
Tómese un tiempo este mes para revisar la seguridad en línea de su familia. Asegúrese de tener contraseñas seguras y de que la configuración de seguridad esté actualizada. Compruebe también dónde tiene las contraseñas almacenadas. Los niños que son expertos en tecnología pueden acceder fácilmente a materiales inapropiados en televisores inteligentes y dispositivos donde no es necesario ingresar contraseñas. Considere instalar software de responsabilidad en cualquier dispositivo al que accedan sus hijos. El software como Covenant Eyes u otras opciones pueden evitar que su hijo visite sitios inapropiados o prohibidos. Para obtener más consejos, solicite una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® “Revisit Online Safety Practices” (Revise las prácticas de seguridad en línea) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

Did You Know?

Online safety review for the new year -Take some time this month to review your family’s online safety. Make sure you have strong passwords in place, and that your security settings are updated. Check where you have passwords stored as well – children who are tech savvy can easily access inappropriate materials on smart TVs and devices where passwords do not have to be entered. Consider installing accountability software on any devices that your children access. Software like Covenant Eyes or other options can keep your child from visiting any inappropriate or forbidden sites. For more tips, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Revisit Online Safety Practices” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

Everyday Stewardship

The Light of the Moon

If you own a television that has been turned on at any point in the last month or so, chances are you've caught at least a scene or two of the 1946 classic film "It's a Wonderful Life."

If you're not familiar with the movie, it follows the life of George Bailey from childhood through adulthood. A dreamer by nature, George has big plans for himself that involve world exploration and adventure — but family and community obligations keep him tethered to the same spot on the map, leading an altogether ordinary life.

One of the most memorable scenes from that movie is of George dancing with his sweetheart Mary while they sing "Buffalo Gals — Won't you come out tonight/And dance by the light of the moon?"

That lyric always catches my ear. Of course, the moon doesn't have any light of its own. All the moon has is the ability to reflect the light that shines upon it.

The same holds for us, doesn't it? Our stewardship is purely a reflection of the grace granted to us by another. "Upon you the LORD shines," writes Isaiah, "and over you appears his glory." Every good action we will ever take begins in the mind of God. The fact that we have the honor of carrying it out on His behalf is a beautiful gift. It is God that makes our ordinary lives extraordinary.

In the end of the movie, George Bailey realizes that he had a far greater life because, instead of being the hero of his own story, he allowed himself to reflect goodness onto others.

Remember — the magi didn't chart their own course. They merely followed the star.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO

La Epifanía del Señor

Aun en estos tiempos, la humanidad continúa buscando la estrella, esa estrella que muchas veces se pierde entre la injusticia, el odio y la discriminación. Sin embargo, hay que seguir el camino y alzar los ojos al cielo para encontrar el centro de su luz. "Levántate y brilla, que ha llegado tu luz y la Gloria de Yavé amaneció sobre ti (Isaías 60,1). La Gloria de la Manifestación de Jesús en su Evangelio y en la Eucaristía se hace presente entre nosotros en la Liturgia de hoy. El Papa Francisco nos explica acerca de la belleza de esta celebración. "La manifestación de Jesús, simbolizada por la luz: Levántate y resplandece, Jerusalén, porque llega tu luz; la Gloria del Señor amanece sobre ti". Él nos exhorta al movimiento, a no quedarnos ahí fijos como estatuas sin hacer nada.

También, nos explica sobre la participación de los magos del Oriente y lo que ellos representan. "Los Magos, venidos de Oriente, representan a todos los pueblos lejanos de la fe judía tradicional: se dejan guiar por la estrella y se enfrentan a un largo y arriesgado viaje; se postran ante Jesús y le ofrecen regalos simbólicos: oro, incienso y mirra; la búsqueda del Señor implica también la generosidad del corazón" (1/6/2019). ¿Qué le estoy ofreciendo a Jesús en esta etapa de mi vida? ¿Qué tipo de manifestaciones he tenido de Dios a lo largo de mi vida? Pidamos, en esta Eucaristía, que la luz de Cristo se manifieste en estos tiempos turbulentos y oscuros que experimentamos en el mundo entero. Sigamos vigilantes, caminemos por sendas nuevas, sigamos el ejemplo de los Magos. Ellos, regresaron a su país por otro camino.

The Creed, Part 3: “Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son”

Every Sunday in the Creed we proclaim Jesus is “true God from true God,” and that “he came down from heaven and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the virgin Mary.” Do we realize the meaning, the power, the radical implications of what we proclaim?

With superb insights, clarity and compelling visuals, Bishop Robert Barron helps us rediscover the priceless treasure and the great intellectual and spiritual depths of this central Christian belief. Come not only to listen and to learn, come also for stimulating, inspiring in-person conversation and community!

Come even if you missed Parts 1 & 2!
