GOSPEL MEDITATION

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.

Pastor's Corner

My dear Parishioners,

The Christmas Season just ended last weekend and now we are in Ordinary Time. Ordinary Time began last Monday, 10 January, and continues through Tuesday, 1 March, the day before Ash Wednesday and the beginning of the Lenten Season. Ordinary Time will resume when the Easter Season ends, that is, on Monday, 6 June, the day following Pentecost.

Ordinary Time is not very ordinary at all. Ordinary Time, the celebration of Sunday, is the identifying mark of the Christian community which comes together, remembering that on this first day of the week the Lord of Life was raised up and creation came at last to completion. Sunday as a day of play and worship is a sacrament of redeemed time. How we live Sunday proclaims to the world what we believe about redeemed time now and for ever.

What happens in our churches every Sunday is the fruit of our week. What happens as the fruit of the week past is the beginning of the week to come. Sunday, like all sacraments, is simultaneously a point of arrival and departure for Christians on their way to the fullness of the Kingdom. This is not ordinary at all. This is the fabric of Christian living.

Our Blessed Mother Mary is our best model of the one who contemplated on the mystery of Salvation which has been fulfilled by Jesus, the Son of God who became one like us and joined our humanity to His divinity. The Word became flesh and now dwells among us. Mary is the one who will bring us to a closer understand and knowledge of her Son who truly became one like us in all things but sin. Mary will always point us to her Son, our Savior and Redeemer!

Here is an invitation for us to meditate on the mystery of salvation focusing on Mary as our model from a sermon by Saint Bernard of Clairvaux, abbot and doctor of the church, born 1090 and died on August 20, 1153.

“The child to be born of you will be called holy, the Son of God, the fountain of wisdom, the Word of the Father on high. Through you, blessed Virgin, this Word will become flesh, so that even though, as he says: I am in the Father and the Father is in me, it is still true for him to say: “I came forth from God and am here.”

In the beginning was the Word. The spring was gushing forth, yet still within himself. Indeed, the Word was with God, truly dwelling in inaccessible light. And the Lord said from the beginning: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. Yet your thought was locked within you, and whatever you thought, we did not know; for who knew the mind of the Lord, or who was his counselor?

And so the idea of peace came down to do the work of peace: The Word was made flesh and even now dwells among us. It is by faith that He dwells in our hearts, in our memory, our intellect and penetrates even into our imagination. What concept could man have of God if he did not first fashion an image of Him in his heart? By nature incomprehensible and inaccessible, He was invisible and unthinkable, but now He wished to be understood, to be seen and thought of.

But how, you ask, was this done? He lay in a manger and rested on a virgin's breast, preached on a mountain, and spent the night in prayer. He hung on a cross, grew pale in death, and roamed free among the dead and ruled over those in hell. He rose again on the third day, and showed the apostles the wounds of the nails, the signs of victory; and finally in their presence he ascended to the sanctuary of heaven.

How can we not contemplate this story in truth, piety and holiness? Whatever of all this I consider, it is God I am considering; in all this he is my God. I have said it is wise to meditate on these truths, and I have thought it right to recall the abundant sweetness, given by the fruits of this priestly root; and Mary, drawing abundantly from heaven, has caused this sweetness to overflow for us.”

To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

1 Corinthians 12:7

His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." John 2:5

In today's Second Reading Saint Paul tells us that within each of us is the manifestation of the Spirit, given to us for some benefit. In today's Gospel Mary is not only telling the servers to do what ever Jesus tells them, but she is telling us. Let's put the two together. We each have been given a gift through the Holy Spirit to use to benefit others for God. Do you listen well? Give good advice? Make people laugh? Do you have a healing touch? Have a heart of faith? Mary is telling you to do what Jesus says, use your gift to benefit others. Each take a turn around your family dinner table or with friends naming your gift.

Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory. ~ Isaiah 62:2

Live the Liturgy

Relationships are hard to clarify. Determining whether people in our lives are simply acquaintances and associates or a deeper level of friend is a journey that takes time. Identifying and celebrating those people who really care about us is a lifelong adventure that involves both moments of intense elation and heartache. Some relationships are more easily definable than others. Two people who are in love must decide whether the love they share has the freedom and depth necessary for lifelong commitments. Other relationships may look like friendship but may harbor grave dysfunction and toxicity. Discernment is needed on all fronts. Our relationship with God also needs definition and discernment. God has taken creation as His spouse and human beings as His children. God delights in us and all that He has made. The wedding feast at Cana demonstrates God's investment in all of this, especially our happiness. Life is a time for celebration and great rejoicing!

Hail Mary, full of grace; the Lord is with you, intercede for us your children, that we may become worthy brothers and sisters of your Son Jesus.

Everyday Stewardship

It Takes All Kinds

If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

¿Sabía Que?

Las ventanas son peligros ocultos - ¿Sabía que las ventanas son uno de los principales peligros ocultos en su hogar? Miles de niños pequeños se lesionan cada año por caerse de las ventanas. El Grupo de Trabajo de Seguridad de Ventanas recomienda mantener las ventanas cerradas y con llave en las habitaciones donde pueden estar los niños, y solo abrir las ventanas que estén fuera del alcance de los niños. Evite colocar muebles o estantes cerca de las ventanas para que los niños no puedan subir para tener acceso. Para obtener más consejos, visite nsc.org/community-safety/safety-topics/child-safety/window-safety.

Did You Know?

Windows are hidden hazards - Did you know that windows are one of the leading hidden hazards in your home? Thousands of young children are injured each year from falling out of windows. The Window Safety Task Force recommends keeping windows closed and locked in rooms where children may be, and only opening windows located out of children's reach. Avoid placing furniture or shelves near windows so that children cannot climb up to gain access. For more tips, visit nsc.org/community-safety/safety-topics/child-safety/window-safety.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO

2º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Con la fiesta de la Epifanía y el Bautismo del Señor se cierra el Tiempo de Navidad, que siempre es precedido por el Adviento. Ahora, comenzamos el Tiempo Ordinario. Serán siete domingos de este corto periodo, que termina el día anterior al Miércoles de Ceniza. La segunda etapa de este Tiempo es más larga, da comienzo después del domingo de Pentecostés y termina hasta el sábado antes del primer domingo de Adviento. ¿Para qué sirve a los cristianos este Tiempo Ordinario? ¿Qué nos pide la Liturgia de este tiempo? Pues, es muy sencillo, nos pide meditar en el misterio de Cristo. En su invitación de participar en su Reino con alegría y compromiso verdadero. La Iglesia tiene diversidad de carismas, donde podemos entregarnos al servicio de los demás.

Por ejemplo, hoy el Evangelio nos invita a participar junto con María y Jesús en las bodas de Caná. Y es ahí en esa boda, donde Jesús hace su primer milagro a petición de su Madre María. El diálogo de ambos viene a ser a causa de la falta de vino. Por lo tanto, los novios estaban en apuros por esta razón. Este relato es muy profundo, el hecho de que Jesús participa en la boda, tiene como significado la boda de Dios con la humanidad, que más adelante será la Sangre de Jesús derramada para la salvación de la humanidad. "Alegrémonos, regocijémonos démosle honor y gloria, porque han llegado las bodas del Cordero" (Apocalipsis 19,7). También, el profeta en la primera lectura lo pone claro: "No te llamaran más 'Abandonada', ni a tu tierra 'Desolada', sino que te llamaran 'Mi Preferida' y a tu tierra 'Desposada'. Porque Yavé se complacerá en ti y tu tierra tendrá un esposo" (Isaías 62,4).

Si decide estar con nosotros en persona, queremos asegurarle que su seguridad y bienestar son nuestra prioridad principal. El Centro de Convenciones de Anaheim y los hoteles tienen protocolos de COVID-19 que han sido cuidadosamente planificados, los cuales hemos tomado en cuenta al planificar el Congreso.

Por lo tanto, estamos exigiendo un comprobante de vacunación para asistir en persona al Congreso 2022. También se requerirá el uso de mascarillas faciales durante todo el evento. Para los días de adultos, la asistencia en persona se limitará a 12,000 personas y para el Día de la Juventud se limitará a 7,500 personas.

Para aquellos que se unan a nosotros virtualmente, los talleres, los conferencistas y las liturgias estarán disponibles en línea y por transmisiones en vivo. Podrá asistir a los talleres cuando guste y al mismo tiempo tendrá la oportunidad de reunirse virtualmente en vivo para la Misa y otras presentaciones especiales de forma remota. Nuevamente, nuestras decisiones se han tomado teniendo en cuenta la seguridad de nuestros participantes y esperamos que se una a nosotros para un emocionante Congreso 2022. ¡Le recomendamos que se inscriba a tiempo para poder estar con nosotros, especialmente si está interesado en asistir en persona!

Lo mantendremos informado de todos los detalles a medida que avancemos en nuestra planificación.
