15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them. - Mk 6:7, 13

MISSION STATEMENT

We, at The Church of the Resurrection, are a Catholic community of people from all walks of life who foster acceptance, love, and the hope of resurrection. Our call is to nourish our love of God through Jesus Christ under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Centered in the Eucharist, we are nurturing a faith community through education, prayer, worship and Christian fellowship. As stewards we receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, and share them lovingly, thereby bringing Jesus into the daily lives of our brothers and sisters in Christ.

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR:

Attachment in Detachment.

Here is a piece by Sudha Murthy, the wife of Narayana Murthy the founder of Infosys, a prominent IT company of India. Though the title may appear to be an oxymoron, the story could be an eye opener for many of us. She writes:

When my daughter, the elder of my two, wed and left home, I felt a part of me gone. With a daughter and a son, I know what both mean, differently. When she was in her teens I felt as if she was my "physical extension!" So, when she left home to set up her own, I felt I lost a limb. Next time she came to stay with us, I was astonished how her priorities had changed. We too must have given the same shocks to our own parents! When she said Amma (mom), she meant her mother-in-law, not me! I felt she was always in a hurry to go back to her house and not stay with me for a few more days. That was the first time it dawned on me that I must start practicing detachment with attachment.

Two years after my daughter's marriage, my son left for higher studies to the US. Having experienced a child's separation once, I was better equipped emotionally. I plunged head long into various classes held in the city, starting from Vedanta to healing to Ikebana... I just wanted to be away from home since my husband was a 24/7 workaholic. My son used to write how he was missing my home cooked food, how he was waiting to come back to live in Chennai with us. After a few years he did come back, and we got him married. He started living in a separate house with his wife, and we were also happy that they wanted to be independent from the beginning. But now, it was all changed! When in the U S, he missed my cooking; now if I called him to come over with his wife for a meal, it was always some excuse like "oh mom, we have other plans for the day, please don't misunderstand us if we don't drop in today!" I could see that his priorities had also changed completely.

We talk so many things and give so much advice to others, but when it comes to our own children, acceptance comes very late. Our next step is to just leave them undisturbed in every way. It was at that time, that I made the following, my 'new profile.' In all my relationships, rather interactions, I give my best and do my best to live up to what I say. My attachment with them is complete. However, I remain detached in the sense that I do not expect them to reciprocate my affection. Most importantly, I make a conscious effort not to interfere or pass judgement on the lives they choose to lead. My concern for my near and dear ones will not fade with my detachment. If you let go of the ones you love, they will never go away. This is the beauty of 'attachment with detachment!' I have learnt to love and let go. This dictum has developed tolerance in me. When I let the people live the way they want to, I learn to accept them for who they are. Most importantly, I learn to tolerate the world around me, and this tolerance brings in me a sense of peace and contentment. Since both my children live in Chennai, I follow this very strictly, you know why!

Now I realize that we start growing mentally much more only after the children leave the house, as we tackle the emotional vacuum that arises, along with age-related problems. I specially dedicate this piece to my friends, who are totally dependent on their children's lives, to nurture their own selves emotionally. Please develop your own interests, hobbies etc. however mundane they may seem to be. We must learn to love whatever we do, instead of doing whatever we love! As we age, it is very important to learn "attachment with detachment."

DEVELOPING BABY—Month Two

"I can suck my thumb now!" The developing baby is now called a "fetus" (Latin for "little one"). She is making rapid progress developing all her external and internal organs. During the second month baby teeth form, and fingers and toes are developing. Her ears, nose, lips and tongue can now be clearly seen. Brain waves can be recorded. The skeleton changes from cartilage to bone. The central nervous system is now functioning, and so forty muscle sets begin their first exercises. By 8 weeks all body systems are present. This little one can now suck her thumb and is about two inches long. Thank you for praying for this precious little baby!
