WORSHIP

GOSPEL MEDITATION

May 22, 2022

6th Sunday of Easter

Jesus tells his disciples, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you." The peace that Jesus gives is far different than the kind that comes from the absence of war, conflict, or affliction. The peace that God offers is found alongside suffering and hardship, not necessarily in their absence. St. Teresa of Avila offers us a bit of wisdom regarding peace: "May today there be peace within. May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be. May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith. May you use those gifts that you have received and pass on the love that has been given to you. May you be content knowing you are a child of God. Let this presence settle into your bones and allow your soul the freedom to sing, dance, praise, and love. It is there for each and every one of us."

bones! It is only when this happens that we can be truly taught by the Holy Spirit to discern the true path to peace and find ourselves with untroubled hearts. The world and our lives are so unpredictable and changeable. If we look for a source of lasting and real peace only there, our search will never be satisfied. Something will always unsettle and disturb us. The Jewish disciples could really relate to what Jesus was saying about peace (shalom). They already knew that it was more a matter of achieving wholeness and wellbeing than anything else.

Wholeness and wellbeing are precisely what is uncovered when we begin to really see and know the height, depth, and breadth of God's presence and promise. The elegance of God's Divine life flows through our blood and the marrow in our bones. It is that close and deep. As we breathe in and exhale God's life, peace becomes what we know within and what is exhaled out. This remains in the midst of intense conflict, persecution, suffering, rejection, and even death.

In order for us to experience the divine peace that Jesus offers, we have to allow God's presence to settle into our

Perpetual Adoration
Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration has returned to St John the Baptist Parish! We are thankful that God has provided the graces to allow us to proceed forward. In order to achieve this, each Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration is filled with a minimum of one Adorer. While that is the minimum acceptable, we know that we can do better. The goal is to have a minimum of at least two Eucharistic Adorers in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel for each Holy Hour. If two Adorers are scheduled in each Holy Hour then it will virtually assure that at no time is Our Lord, as truly present in the Blessed Sacrament, left unattended. Emergencies can happen for any of us and if we are each able to depend on a partner to be with us during our designated Adoration Hour then our ministry will be strengthened and any one that must be absent will be able to arrange to have their partner cover the hour where we cannot be present. In addition, we have a need for more individuals who are willing to serve as substitutes in case they are needed. It would be a huge blessing to have a robust number of substitutes to back up our volunteers. If interested, contact Janet Barresi, Eucharistic Adoration Coordinator, janetbarresi@mac.com.

Please pray for vocations and support our seminarians. www.OKCVocations.com

Remember in your prayers, those currently serving our Country.

Quilts for the Homebound

These are just a few of our Homebound who have received "prayer quilts". Our St Teresa's Guild makes the quilts, and we see that every Catholic we visit and bring Communion to receives one of their beautiful quilts. They are made with much love and many prayers and are blessed by one of our priests before they are given out. They bring comfort and joy to those who receive them, and we are blessed to have such talented ladies making these wonderful gifts for our Homebound.
