WORSHIP

GOSPEL MEDITATION

June 26, 2022

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

And to another he said, "Follow me." In every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling us. We can easily get distracted and not hear it or simply ignore it, pretending it wasn't even heard. When we do hear it and favorably respond, there are some conditions that must be met. Jesus makes it clear that once we say yes to his invitation, we must stay focused and forge ahead. We cannot keep looking behind or worry about unfinished business. There are some tasks, and discipleship is one, that require our full devotion.

There are many "masters" vying for our attention. We need something or someone to give us direction. Human nature requires it. Our motives and actions reveal what has our allegiance. It is tempting to give ourselves to masters that lure us with intriguing promises. When given the choice between a "master" that promises worldly success, abundant wealth, status, privilege, and security versus a "master" that asks for self-sacrifice, hardship, suffering, ridicule, and death, to whom do we go? While the promise of immediate pleasure is enticing, there is always a catch. For all that secular masters can promise, they always keep us looking behind, checking on ourselves, second guessing choices, calculating options, and being slaves to excessive worry. Our guard can never come down. Only one master really promises life: Jesus Christ. Hearing his call, we either trust him or we don't.

Saying yes to following Christ does come with a risk. But it also comes with the brightness of future hopes and dreams. There is no need to keep looking behind. Sins are forgiven and regrets serve no effective purpose. God is not there. He's moved beyond all that stuff. God is in the today and the tomorrow and what he can continually do with our daily affirmation to follow Him. All we need to do is be obedient. St. Gianna Molla is credited with saying, "The stillness of prayer is the most essential condition for fruitful action. Before all else, the disciple kneels down." Begin with prayer. We will not only hear God's call but find the courage to trust that He will guide us where we need to be. God uses us in the most ordinary of ways through the simple daily expression of our lives.

Volunteers needed for many different tasks!
 Please call us to see how you can help!

St. John's Peru Ministry needs your help!
 St. John's supports Santisimo Sacramento (Blessed Sacrament) Parish in Piura, Peru. We do this by sending clothing, shoes, household items, bedding, religious items, school supplies, tools, etc. in two shipping containers twice a year. Our next shipment is scheduled for October 2022. Over the past two years donations have continued to be received but the number of volunteers have dwindled. We now have a situation where we can't reduce our backlog for the next shipment. So we're asking for new volunteers to help. This can be individuals, families or groups and can be for as little as one day or two hours. This would entail sorting, folding and bagging clothes and any help would be appreciated by the Peru Ministry and the 30,000 parishioners of Santisimo Sacramento. If you think you, your family or your group would like to help, please contact Kathy Hatch at 405-625-4911.

Every Wednesday
 10am-1pm in the Commons
 Join our weekly program for seniors for fellowship and fun. We meet in the Commons each Wednesday from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm.

Family2Family (F2F) Ministry

Will you answer the cry of the poor?

Pedro (32) & Kari (29) have 2 sons, Federly (4) & Fabian (6 months). Mom takes care of the home & children. Dad is a part-time laborer in the local fields earning about $9.50/day when he has work. They live in a very rural village but do have water & electricity. For $30/month you can sponsor this family and truly make a difference in their lives. Contact Stephanie Simpson at F2F@stjohn-catholic.org or 405-627-6199 for more information.

What should I do if a loved one or friend is homebound and needs to receive Communion outside of the Parish?

St. John's has a central contact for parishioners to reach out to: Kay Sommer, who leads the Communion to the Homebound Ministry. You can call Kay at 405-474-6593 or e-mail her at kaysommer@cox.net not only with Communion needs but also if you have questions about this ministry. She will designate and dispatch a trained and commissioned ministry member in a timely manner and ensure that the needs of the homebound for Holy Communion are met.

You may also reach out to Anne Keef in the parish office at 405-340-0691 or Diane Gbone at sjbemhc@gmail.com.

EVANGELIZATION & COMMUNITY LIFE

Word of the Week

Growing in Relationship with Jesus

The more we get to know Him, the more we want to learn, and the deeper we will love Him. We come to know Jesus more deeply through reading and reflecting on Scripture, active participation in the sacraments (particularly the Eucharist and Reconciliation), finding and becoming involved in a parish community, and personal prayer. A personal relationship with Jesus is transformative and life-giving.

Reflection Question: Which area of discipleship challenges you? Why? How can you grow in it?
