WORSHIP

GOSPEL MEDITATION

July 17, 2022

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God’s unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis).” While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the “details” of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us!

St. John's Peru Ministry needs your help!

St. John's supports Santisimo Sacramento (Blessed Sacramento) Parish in Piura, Peru. We do this by sending clothing, shoes, household items, bedding, religious items, school supplies, tools, etc. in two shipping containers twice a year. Our next shipment is scheduled for October 2022. Over the past two years donations have continued to be received but the number of volunteers have dwindled. We now have a situation where we can't reduce our backlog for the next shipment. So we're asking for new volunteers to help. This can be individuals, families or groups and can be for as little as one day or two hours. This would entail sorting, folding and bagging clothes and any help would be appreciated by the Peru Ministry and the 30,000 parishioners of Santisimo Sacramento. If you think you, your family or your group would like to help, please contact Kathy Hatch at 405-625-4911.

Family2Family (F2F) Ministry

Will you answer the cry of the poor?

Pedro (32) & Kari (29) live in Peru and have 2 sons, Federly (4) & Fabian (6 months). Mom takes care of the home & children. Dad is a part-time laborer in the local fields earning about $9.50/day when he has work. They live in a very rural village but do have water & electricity. For $30/month you can sponsor this family and truly make a difference in their lives. Contact Stephanie Simpson at F2F@stjohn-catholic.org or 405-627-6199 for more information.

What should I do if a loved one or friend is homebound and needs to receive Communion outside of the Parish?

St. John's has a central contact for parishioners to reach out to: Kay Sommer, who leads the Communion to the Homebound Ministry. You can call Kay at 405-474-6593 or e-mail her at kaysommer@cox.net not only with Communion needs but also if you have questions about this ministry. She will designate and dispatch a trained and commissioned ministry member in a timely manner and ensure that the needs of the homebound for Holy Communion are met. You may also reach out to Anne Keef in the parish office at 405-340-0691 or Diane Gbone at sjbemhc@gmail.com.

Be still and know that I am God.

Ps. 46:10

Project Gabriel at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Edmond is a pro-life outreach ministry providing spiritual, personal, and material support, and mentoring women experiencing a crisis pregnancy. Trained volunteers provide a close, supportive relationship with any woman needing help through her pregnancy and after delivery. Call Project Gabriel for confidential support if you or a friend are pregnant! 405-888-2372.
