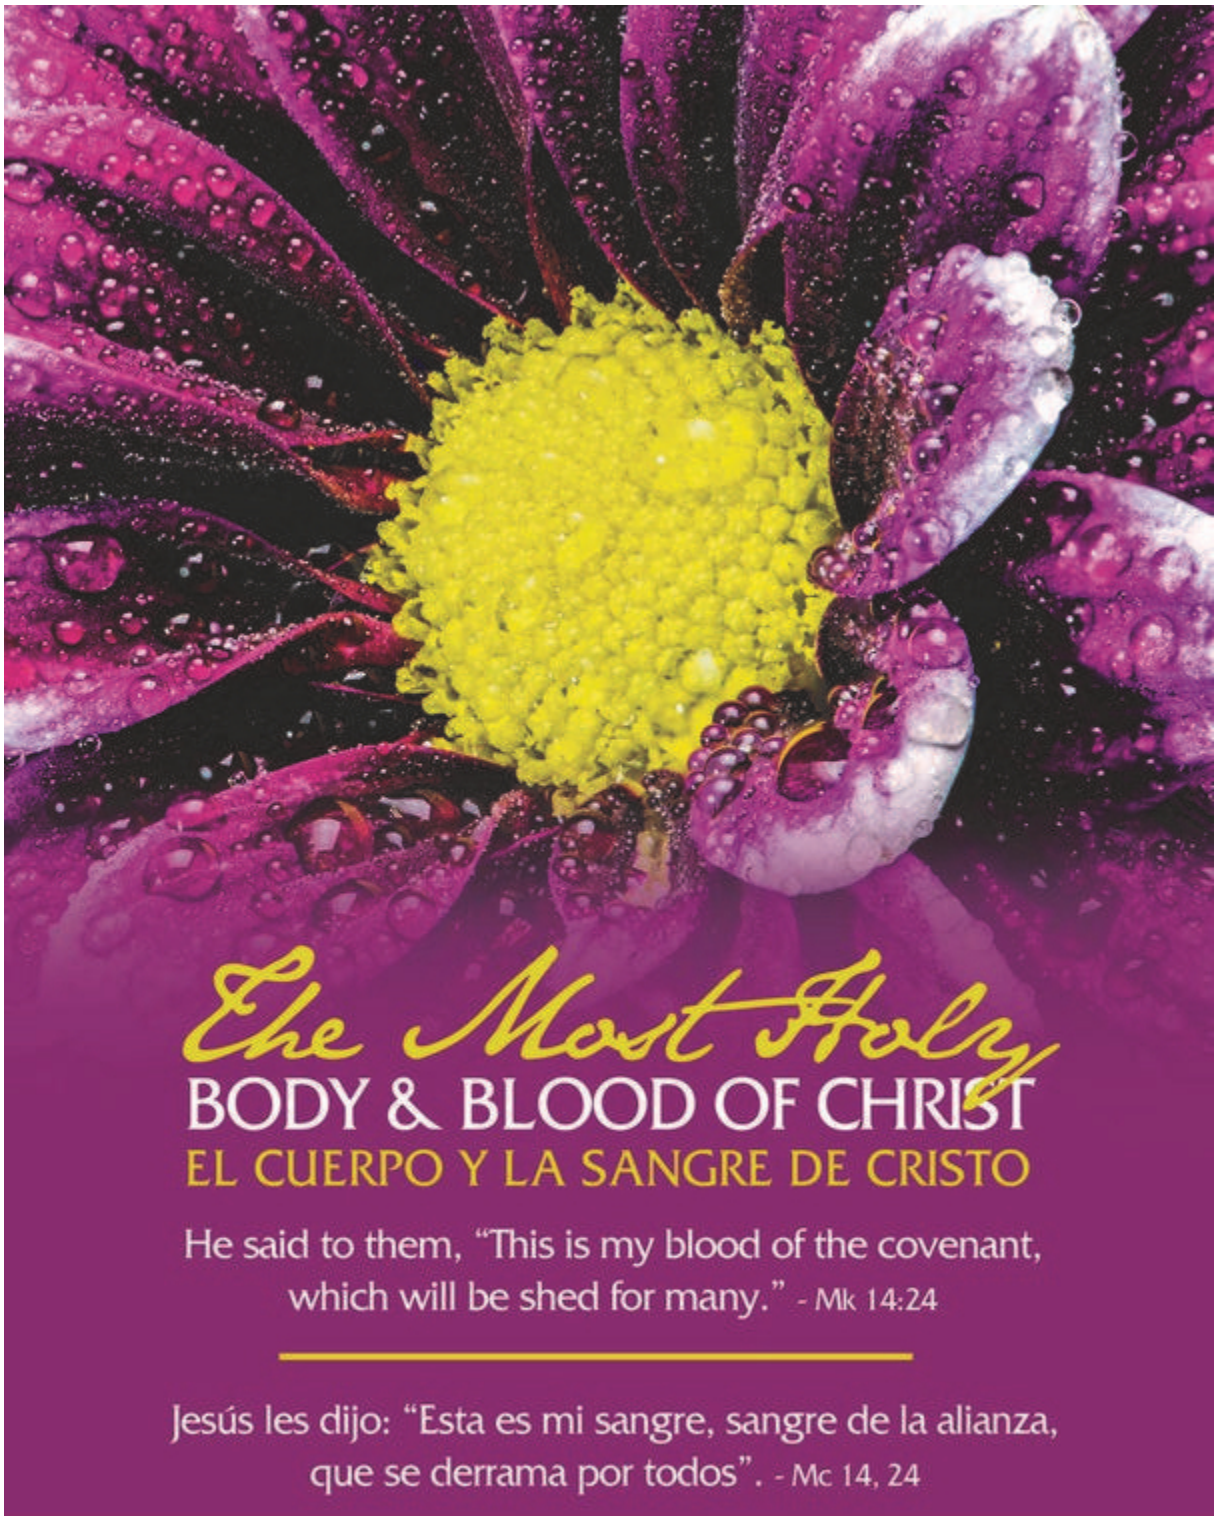
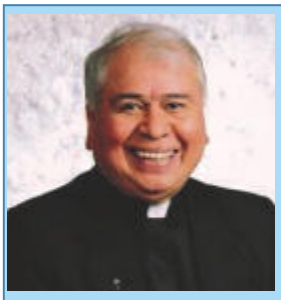
The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ ~ El Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo

Sunday, June 6, 2021~ Domingo 6 de Junio del 2021





Mensaje del Padre Jesús Camacho

FESTIVIDAD DEL CUERPO Y SANGRE DE CRISTO. Papa Francisco: El Cielo comienza en la Eucaristía. El Papa Francisco reflexionó sobre el significado de "comer la carne y beber la sangre de Jesús", y aseguró que el Cielo comienza en la Eucaristía. El Santo Padre explicó que "vivir en comunión real con Jesús sobre esta tierra nos hace ya pasar de la muerte a la vida. El cielo comienza precisamente en esta comunión con Jesús". "El discurso de Jesús sobre el Pan de Vida, que es Él mismo y que es también el sacramento de la Eucaristía" dijo, y hace referencia a algunos entre la gente que se escandalizan porque Jesús dice: 'El que come mi carne y bebe mi sangre tiene Vida eterna, y yo lo resucitaré en el último día'". El Papa destacó que "el estupor de los que lo escuchan es comprensible". "Ante todo preguntas: ¿qué significa 'comer la carne y beber la sangre' de Jesús?, ¿es solo una imagen, una forma de decir, un símbolo, o indica algo real?", indicó. Francisco destacó que "sabiendo que deberá morir sobre la cruz por nosotros, Jesús se identifica con aquel pan partido y compartido, y eso se convierte para Él en el 'signo' del Sacrificio que lo espera. Este proceso tiene su culmen en la Última Cena, donde el pan y el vino se transforman realmente en su Cuerpo y en su Sangre". "Es la Eucaristía, que Jesús nos deja con una finalidad precisa: que nosotros podamos convertirnos en una sola una cosa con Él". Francisco lamentó que "a veces, con respecto a la santa Misa, se siente esta objeción: '¿Para qué sirve la Misa? Yo voy a la iglesia cuando tengo ganas, y rezo mejor solo'". Ante esto, el Santo Padre respondió que "la Eucaristía no es una oración privada o una bella experiencia espiritual, no es una simple conmemoración de aquello que Jesús ha hecho en la Última Cena". "Decimos, para entender bien, que la Eucaristía es 'memorial', o sea un gesto que actualiza y hace presente el evento de la muerte y resurrección de Jesús: el pan es realmente su Cuerpo ofrecido por nosotros, el vino es realmente su Sangre derramada por nosotros". El Papa subrayó que "la Eucaristía es Jesús mismo que se dona totalmente a nosotros. Nutrirnos de Él y vivir en Él mediante la Comunión eucarística, si lo hacemos con fe, transforma nuestra vida, la transforma en un don a Dios y en un don a los hermanos". "Nutrirnos de aquel 'Pan de vida' significa entrar en sintonía con el corazón de Cristo, asimilar sus elecciones, sus pensamientos, sus comportamientos. Significa entrar en un dinamismo de amor y convertirnos en personas de paz, personas de perdón, de reconciliación, de compartir solidario. Lo mismo que Jesús ha hecho".

A Message from Fr. Jesus Camacho

FEAST OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST. Pope Francis: Heaven begins in the Eucharist. Pope Francis reflected on the meaning of "eating the flesh and drinking the blood of Jesus", and assured that Heaven begins in the Eucharist. The Holy Father explained that "living in real communion with Jesus on this earth already makes us pass from death to life. Heaven begins precisely in this communion with Jesus ". "Jesus 'discourse on the Bread of Life, which is Himself and which is also the sacrament of the Eucharist," he said, and refers to some among the people who are scandalized because Jesus says:' He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal Life, and I will raise it up on the last day. ' The Pope stressed that "the astonishment of those who listen to him is understandable." "First of all you ask: what does it mean to 'eat the flesh and drink the blood' of Jesus? Is it just an image, a way of saying, a symbol, or does it indicate something real?" Francis stressed that "knowing that he must die on the cross for us, Jesus identifies himself with that broken and shared bread, and that for him becomes the' sign 'of the Sacrifice that awaits him. This process culminates in the Last Supper, where the bread and wine are really transformed into his Body and his Blood ". "It is the Eucharist, which Jesus leaves us with a precise purpose: that we can become one with Him." Francis regretted that "sometimes, with regard to Holy Mass, this objection is felt:' What is the Mass for? I go to church when I feel like it, and I pray better alone. ' Given this, the Holy Father replied that "the Eucharist is not a private prayer or a beautiful spiritual experience, it is not a simple commemoration of what Jesus did at the Last Supper." "We say, to understand well, that the Eucharist is' memorial ', that is, a gesture that updates and makes present the event of Jesus' death and resurrection: the bread is really his Body offered for us, the wine is really his Blood poured out for us ". The Pope stressed that "the Eucharist is Jesus himself who gives himself totally to us. Nourishing ourselves with Him and living in Him through Eucharistic Communion, if we do it with faith, transforms our life, transforms it into a gift to God and a gift to our brothers. "Nourishing ourselves with that' Bread of Life 'means getting in tune with the heart of Christ, assimilating his choices, his thoughts, his behaviors. It means entering into a dynamism of love and becoming people of peace, people of forgiveness, of reconciliation, of sharing in solidarity. The same thing that Jesus has done ".
