FIRST READING - SIR 27:30-28:7

RESPONSORIAL PSALM PS 103:1-2, 3-4, 9-10, 11-12

R. The Lord is kind & merciful, slow to anger, & rich in compassion.

Bless the LORD, O my soul; and all my being, bless his holy name.
Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits.

R. The Lord is kind & merciful, slow to anger, & rich in compassion.

He pardons all your iniquities, heals all your ills. He redeems your life from destruction, crowns you with kindness and compassion.

R. The Lord is kind & merciful, slow to anger, & rich in compassion.

He will not always chide, nor does he keep his wrath forever. Not according to our sins does he deal with us, nor does he requite us according to our crimes.

R. The Lord is kind & merciful, slow to anger, & rich in compassion.

For as the heavens are high above the earth, so surpassing is his kindness toward those who fear him. As far as the east is from the west, so far has he put our transgressions from us.

R. The Lord is kind & merciful, slow to anger, & rich in compassion.

SECOND READING - ROM 14:7-9

GOSPEL - MT 18:21-35

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, “Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?” Jesus answered, “I say to you, not seven times but seventy times seven. That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the accounting, a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt. At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said, ‘Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.’ Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan.

When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount. He seized him and started to choke him, demanding, ‘Pay back what you owe.’ Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him, ‘Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.’ But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt. Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair.

His master summoned him and said to him, ‘You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you? Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart.”
WHAT I CHOOSE—AND WHY

I have a habit of going to bed with my laptop. Often I do this with the intention of watching some silly show, which I rarely get through before falling asleep. Lately, in my quest for personal, peaceful living, I’ve decided to watch things I find to be inspirational. Like, listening to a talk by Fr. Greg Boyle or a mini-series about someone making a difference - or one of a few other subjects I find inspiring. I still rarely make it through an entire 45 or 50 minute talk before nodding off for the night, but something is different about having the last words I hear in the day to be inspirational over comedic nonsense.

I began writing this series shortly after the last time the death penalty was on the ballot in California – in 2016. Barely defeated, it was a stunning blow to those of us who have worked for years to abolish the death penalty in our own state - and nationally. Shortly after that, there was an article in the Angelus in which Fr. Chris Ponnet was quoted as saying…we need to do a better job of educating people about the right to life. I took that as a challenge to start the article on The Right to Life and Catholic Social Teaching.

I have learned that in my wondering why the world is the way it is, I cannot change or control anyone’s behavior but my own. I cannot make the entire world a better place - I can only make my own space better. Where I live - in my home and in my work space - it depends on what I choose to listen to, who I choose to talk to and what I choose to talk about. How I choose to address a problem - or not address it - but pray about it and pray for a change - a change in me.

A quest to soften my own heart - not the hearts of others.

Peace

TELL ME WHY...

WHY IS MARY CALLED “THE MOTHER OF MERCY”?

By Marty L. & Samantha L. — (Mary Undoer of Knots Junior Praesidium)

“I am not only the Queen of Heaven, but also the Mother of Mercy and your Mother.”

-Diary of Saint Faustina, 330

Mary is referred to by many titles by the Church, relating to her actions of forgiveness that she has performed on Earth. One of these titles is Mary, Mother of Mercy. Many people do not fully understand the concepts and meaning behind her referred titles, but there is always a reason for them. In this article, we will be focusing on the title “Mother of Mercy,” and how she attained this title. There are at least four ways in which Mother Mary can be truly called our merciful Mother.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION - Since Mary was conceived, God has created her without original sin knowing that she will become the mother of Jesus. Being born without original sin means one does not have the intent of doing bad things which traces back to the actions of Adam and Eve. Thus, having this quality, Mary never had any unkind intentions which therefore deems her as merciful. This will also lead her to become the right person to become the mother of Jesus.

ANNUNCIATION - Mary was asked by the Angel Gabriel to become Jesus’ mother. She took the opportunity and willingly accepted it. She knew that she was the only one to become the mother of Jesus. Mary had a choice that decided her fate, which is a merciful act for all of us, because if she did not give birth to Jesus, we would not have all been saved from our sins.

WORKS THROUGH SAINT FAUSTINA - Mary did many works of mercy throughout her years on Earth and even in Heaven. One of her prominent works was shown to Saint Faustina. She showed the way to be true disciples of Jesus Christ. Mary gave to Saint Faustina a message which focused on the importance of the virtues of humility, purity, and love of God. Mary directly gave Saint Faustina prayers and she wrote them all in her diary. These prayers are still known and used by many people to this day in order to ask for forgiveness from God through Mary.

ASSUMPTION - Even after Mary was assumed into Heaven, she still aids us on our journey. People consider her as a link to God, so that in praying to her, she will answer our needs and necessities with miracles and salvation. Her mercy is unsurpassed compared to anyone, because she will always be the forgiving mother that Jesus loved when He was on Earth. She holds no grudges to mankind despite their sins and she is merciful to all.

“Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope...”

GROWING WITH THE GOSPEL

My Church, My Family and Me

SHARING THE GOSPEL:

You sin, just like everybody else does. God forgives you even if your sin is very bad. God washes all your sins away and treats you with kindness. The next time someone hurts your feelings, remember how God forgives you. Follow God’s example.

PRAYER:

God, teach me to forgive other people the way you forgive me.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK:

Name one person you are angry with. Pray to God. Ask God to help you let go of your anger and really forgive.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA
- INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA -

Decidir recorrer el desafiante camino del perdón es elegir un viaje hacia una mayor libertad. El resentimiento, la ira y el aferrarse a lastimaduras del pasado no solo mantienen las heridas abiertas que anhelan la curación, sino que nos llevan por caminos que eventualmente son autodestructivos. Albergar rencores y retener el perdón no solo cierra las relaciones con los demás, sino también con Dios y conmigo. Elegir perdonar a otra persona, independientemente de cuán grave sea el error, es una opción para liberarse de la esclavitud a las heridas y cicatrices pasadas y perseguir el regalo de la vida y el amor nuevamente. ¿Quién de nosotros no se ha equivocado ni ha pecado contra otro? Ciertamente queremos que Dios nos entienda, perdone y muestre misericordia sobre nosotros. Es hipócrita de nuestra parte no extender esa misma gracia a nuestro prójimo.
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Should I Stay or Should I Go?

Life is not always easy on us and it can be hard to figure out the next step to take in our journey. We can even become immobilized by indecisiveness and fear about making the wrong move or choosing the incorrect path. I think of the song Should I Stay, or Should I Go, as a mantra for many times in my life. Should I stay in this house, this job, or this car? Should I go here or there? When those times of decision surface, I usually turn to my wife, my friends, or even my children. Talking it out can help, and their perspectives give me more data to consider. When I lean on others to help me make a decision, it helps me become more confident in my choices.

Discerning the will of God is not easy either. Rarely do we understand God’s calling clearly at first. God’s calling is always more easily discerned within a community of faithful disciples. Our stewardship way of life can suffer greatly if we refuse to allow others to assist us in the process of discernment. What gifts or talents are needed for the task at hand? Where do I fit best into God’s plan? Where is God leading me? No one should have to decide the answers to these questions alone. We need to always lean on the Body of Christ to help us see the path that God has laid before us. Without a little help along the journey, over time we might find ourselves stuck in the same place where we started.

- Tracy Earl Welliver

Deciding to travel the challenging road of forgiveness is choosing a journey toward greater freedom. Resentment, anger, and clinging to past hurts not only keep open wounds that long for healing but bring us down paths that are eventually self-destructive. Harboring grudges and withholding forgiveness not only shut down relationships with others, but with God and myself as well. To choose to forgive another person, regardless of how grave the wrong, is a choice to be released from bondage to past wounds and scars and to pursue the gift of life and love again. Who among us has not wrong or sinned against another? We certainly would want God to understand, forgive, and show mercy upon us. It is hypocritical of us to not extend that same grace to our neighbor.
