GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Baptism of the Lord

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ."

— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

El Bautismo del Señor

Con la celebración del Bautismo del Señor se da por terminado el tiempo de Navidad. El Bautismo de Jesús es como una nueva epifanía, es decir, una nueva manifestación de Dios por medio de Jesús ahora en el Jordán. "El Espíritu Santo bajó sobre él y se manifestó exteriormente en forma de paloma, y del cielo vino una voz: Tú eres mi Hijo, hoy te he dado la vida" (Lucas 3,22). La revelación del Padre se manifiesta proclamando a Jesús como su Hijo.

El Papa Francisco en una de sus catequesis lo muestra en tres puntos muy importantes para todos los que hemos sido bautizados en Cristo Jesús: "Jesús quiso recibir el bautismo predicado y administrado por Juan el Bautista en el Jordán. ¡Cuánta humildad tiene Jesús! Y al hacerlo, manifestó lo que hemos celebrado en Navidad: sumergirse en el río de la humanidad". Jesús, va con todo a lo que refiere la cuestión humana, menos en el pecado. "El Evangelio subraya que Jesús, apenas salió del agua vio rasgarse los cielos y el Espíritu que bajaba hacia él como una paloma. El Espíritu Santo desciende en plenitud sobre Jesús para darle la fortaleza de cumplir su misión". Por medio de nuestra vocación es que tenemos nuestra misión en la vida. ¿Cómo la estamos cumpliendo? "La fiesta del bautismo de Jesús invita a cada cristiano a recordar su bautismo". ¿Sabes, o recuerdas la fecha de tu bautismo? Hay que preguntar sobre ese día y de cómo se celebró la fiesta de hacernos hijos e hijas de Dios. (Papa Francisco 1/7/2018).

This year we invite you to take part in an old tradition of “chalking the door” to celebrate the Epiphany, the day that marks the arrival of the magi, to the place where Jesus was born! The Epiphany will be celebrated on Sunday, January 2 (typically celebrated on January 6) as the 12th day of Christmas.

What is “Chalking the Door”?

“Chalking the door” is a sign and symbol of asking God’s blessing upon those who live, work, or visit throughout the coming year. In Exodus, the Israelites marked their doors with blood so that the Lord would pass over their homes; but in this service, we mark our doors with chalk as a sign that we have invited God’s presence and blessing into our homes. In Deuteronomy 6:9 God tells the people of Israel: “These words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house... You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.” Chalking the door is a tangible way to honor God in our lives.

How to Participate

Pray: Lord God of heaven and earth, you revealed your only begotten Son to every nation by the guidance of a star. Bless this house and all who live here and all who visit. May we be blessed with health, kindness of heart, gentleness and the keeping of your law. Fill us with the light of Christ, that our love for each other may go out to all. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

After the prayers of the blessing are recited, each room of the home is sprinkled with Epiphany water and incensed.

Using chalk, write on the outside of your house or inside above the front main entrance, above or next to an entrance: +20 + C + M + B + 22+

The letters C M B come from the traditional names for the three kings: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar.
It is also an abbreviation for “Christus Mansionem Benedicat” which means, “May Christ bless this dwelling!”
The first and last numbers simply refer to the current year.

Este año te invitamos a participar en una antigua tradición de “marcar la puerta con tiza” para celebrar la Epifanía, el día que marca la llegada de los magos, ¡al lugar donde nació Jesús!

¿Qué es “tiza la puerta”?

“Tiza la puerta” es un signo y símbolo de pedir la bendición de Dios sobre aquellos que viven, trabajan o visitan durante el año que viene. En el Éxodo, Los israelitas marcaron sus puertas con sangre para que el Señor pasara por encima de sus casas; pero en este servicio, marcamos nuestras puertas con tiza como signo de que hemos invitado a la presencia y bendición de Dios en nuestros hogares.

En Deuteronomio 6:9 Dios le dice al pueblo de Israel: “Estas palabras que yo ...la orden de hoy estará en tu corazón. Los enseñarás diligentemente a tus hijos, y hablarás de ellos cuando te sientes en tu casa... Los escribirás en los postes de tu casa y en tus puertas.”

Escribir con tiza en la puerta es una forma tangible de honrar a Dios en nuestras vidas.

Cómo participar

Reza: Señor Dios del cielo y de la tierra, tú revelaste a tu Hijo unigénito a todas las naciones por la guía de una estrella. Bendice esta casa y a todos los que viven aquí y a todos los que la visitan. Que seamos bendecidos con salud, bondad de corazón, dulzura y el cumplimiento de tu ley. Llénanos con la luz de Cristo, para que nuestro amor mutuo se extienda a todos. Te lo pedimos por Cristo nuestro Señor. Amén.

Después de las oraciones de la bendición, cada habitación de la casa se rocía con agua de Epifanía y se inciensa.

Usando gis, escribe en el exterior de tu casa o en el interior sobre la entrada principal, encima o al lado de una entrada: +20 + C + M + B + 22+

Las letras C M B vienen de los nombres tradicionales de los tres reyes: Caspar, Melchor y Balthazar.
También es una abreviatura de “Christus Mansionem Benedicat” que significa, “¡Que Cristo bendiga esta morada!”
