PRAYER OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if You have already come, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you.

Amen

The Baptism of the Lord End of Christmas Season

This weekend, we come to the celebration of the Baptism of the Lord, we arrive at the end of the Christmas Season. As I was putting away some of the decorations, I was a bit sad as my office seemed bear compared to the lovely Christmas things I had up. I think this happens to many of us because most of us have our homes looking beautiful and from one day to the next, it is all gone, everything is back to normal, or so it seems. I say this because things are not back to normal. We continue to struggle with the pandemic and the many other worries and problems we have been facing. At the same time, things are not normal because we have a God who has come to save us all! Thus, the Christmas joy should continue to resound in our lives and our hearts.

The Christmas joy of the newborn child in Bethlehem should give us all the courage we need to continue on this challenging journey we find ourselves. We must also realize that we need God's help to continue along this journey. But what are some of the ways in which we can receive God's help? An important one is prayer. Maybe during this new year, we can increase our prayer life, if even just a bit. Perhaps we can live out the sacramental life of the Church ever so more by receiving the sacraments more frequently, especially reconciliation and the Eucharist, for it is through the sacraments that we are drawn ever closer to God.

Another way in which we can draw closer to God is through us, nurturing our faith. This past Christmas, our parish provided a gift to everyone who attended Mass, Matthew Kelly's new book. This year, the book is titled "Life is Messy" and our hope is that this book will, in one way or another, help you grow in your faith. We are also putting together small groups to discuss the book. If you are interested in being part of these small groups which will meet virtually, please contact Kelly McGeehan via email at dynamicparish@corpuschristicatholic.org. I invite you to consider being part of these small discussion groups so that together we can grow in our faith!

Thank you for wearing a mask or face coverings.

We invite you to become a registered parishioner!

Your Parish Needs You and You Need Your Parish!

By registering at a parish, you are declaring your desire to be part of a Catholic faith community. If you have recently moved to the area or if you are a long-time resident, please consider registering at the parish where you participate. You are welcome to visit our parish office and fill out a simple form or register online.

Top Reasons to Register at a Parish

- A sense of belonging and identity in a parish community.
- It is a commitment to practice your faith.
- Registration enables the parish pastor and staff to get to know you better, to welcome you and to minister to you. This is especially important during a time of crisis so that the pastoral staff can attend to your spiritual needs and the needs of your family.
- Registration helps you stay connected with your parish and helps your parish stay connected with you. Providing your contact information is important so that parishes provide you timely updates via email, direct mail, phone, etc. Also, if you use offertory envelopes or online giving, you will also receive a year-end statement of your donations for income tax purposes. Once you are registered, please notify the parish office of any changes in address or phone number.
 - Registered active members are eligible for sponsor/godparent validation.
 - Registered active members are sometimes eligible to rent parish facilities.
 - Census numbers may determine how many priests are assigned to a parish and how many Masses and enrichment programs are planned and scheduled.

The Baptism of the Lord

“We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ.”
 — Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear. ©LPi

Prayer for the Troops

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need and bring them home safely. May their sacrifices bring about a lasting and just peace in those lands. We ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Oración por las Tropas

Oh, Dios, Todopoderoso y Eterno, Tú, que cuando Abraham dejó su patria y su familia, lo guiaste en todo su peregrinaje; protege con ese mismo amor, a los hermanos y hermanas que hoy defienden la patria. Se Tú su compañía constante, su fuerza en la batalla, y su refugio en cada momento de adversidad. Guíalos, Señor, para que ellos regresen a sus hogares con vida y salud. Te lo pedimos por Cristo nuestro Señor.

El Bautismo del Señor Fin de la Temporada Navideña

Este fin de semana, llegamos a la celebración del Bautismo del Señor, llegamos al final de la temporada navideña. Mientras guardaba algunas de las decoraciones, estaba un poco triste porque mi oficina se sentía vacía en comparación con las hermosas cosas navideñas que tenía. Creo que esto nos pasa a muchos de nosotros porque la mayoría de nosotros tenemos nuestras casas hermosas y de un día para otro, todo se ha ido, todo ha vuelto a la normalidad, o eso parece.

Digo esto porque las cosas no han vuelto a la normalidad. Seguimos luchando contra la pandemia y las muchas otras preocupaciones y problemas que hemos estado enfrentando. ¡Al mismo tiempo, las cosas no son normales porque tenemos un Dios que ha venido a salvarnos a todos! Por tanto, la alegría navideña debe seguir resonando en nuestra vida y en nuestro corazón.

La alegría navideña del recién nacido en Belén debería darnos todo el valor que necesitamos para continuar en este desafiante trayecto en el que nos encontramos. También debemos darnos cuenta de que necesitamos la ayuda de Dios para continuar en este camino. Pero, ¿cuáles son algunas de las formas en que podemos recibir la ayuda de Dios? Uno importante es la oración. Quizás durante este nuevo año, podamos aumentar nuestra vida de oración, aunque sea solo un poco. Quizás podamos vivir la vida sacramental de la Iglesia cada vez más recibiendo los sacramentos con mayor frecuencia, especialmente la reconciliación y la Eucaristía, porque es a través de los sacramentos que nos acercamos cada vez más a Dios.

Otra forma en que podemos acercarnos a Dios es a través de nosotros, alimentando nuestra fe. La Navidad pasada, nuestra parroquia proporcionó un regalo a todos los que asistieron a la misa, el nuevo libro de Matthew Kelly. Este año, el libro se titula "La Vida es Complicada" y esperamos que este libro, de una forma u otra, le ayude a crecer en su fe.

¡Los invito a que consideren estas sugerencias para que juntos podamos crecer en nuestra fe!

~ P. Efraín

El Bautismo del Señor

Con la celebración del Bautismo del Señor se da por terminado el tiempo de Navidad. El Bautismo de Jesús es como una nueva epifanía, es decir, una nueva manifestación de Dios por medio de Jesús ahora en el Jordán. “El Espíritu Santo bajó sobre él y se manifestó exteriormente en forma de paloma, y del cielo vino una voz: Tú eres mi Hijo, hoy te he dado la vida” (Lucas 3,22). La revelación del Padre se manifiesta proclamando a Jesús como su Hijo.

El Papa Francisco en una de sus catequesis lo muestra en tres puntos muy importantes para todos los que hemos sido bautizados en Cristo Jesús: “Jesús quiso recibir el bautismo predicado y administrado por Juan el Bautista en el Jordán. ¡Cuánta humildad tiene Jesús! Y al hacerlo, manifestó lo que hemos celebrado en Navidad: sumergirse en el río de la humanidad”. Jesús, va con todo a lo que refiere la cuestión humana, menos en el pecado. “El Evangelio subraya que Jesús, apenas salió del agua vio rasgarse los cielos y el Espíritu que bajaba hacia él como una paloma. El Espíritu Santo desciende en plenitud sobre Jesús para darle la fortaleza de cumplir su misión”. Por medio de nuestra vocación es que tenemos nuestra misión en la vida. ¿Cómo la estamos cumpliendo? “La fiesta del bautismo de Jesús invita a cada cristiano a recordar su bautismo”. ¿Sabes, o recuerdas la fecha de tu bautismo? Hay que preguntar sobre ese día y de cómo se celebró la fiesta de hacernos hijos e hijas de Dios. (Papa Francisco 1/7/2018). ©LPi

Prayer for the Priest:

I pray for your faithful and fervent priests; For your unfaithful and tepid priests; For your priest laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields. For your tempted priests; For your lonely and desolate priests; for your young priests; for your dying priests; for the souls of your priests in Purgatory. But above all, I recommend to you the priests dearest to me: The priest who baptized me; The priests who absolved me from my sins; the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion; The priests who taught and instructed me; All the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way (especially.....) O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart, And bless them abundantly in time and in Eternity. Amen . By St. Therese of Lisieux
