HOLY WEEK

As we prepare now for Holy Week and Easter, we are reminded by the readings of God's merciful forgiveness and his desire to create us anew in his love. Part of the process of opening our lives to the healing presence of God is our desire and willingness to step away from where we have been.

A powerful part of the process is the Sacrament of Reconciliation. To acknowledge our weaknesses, our sins, and give voice to them and to hear God's love expressed in forgiveness can be life transforming. We have dedicated this next week to be available to pray with you and share in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. On Monday through Thursday evenings from 7 pm until we are done, our priests will be in the church hearing confessions. This past year with the pandemic, we are all off-balance and struggling and we encourage you to take advantage of this gift of God's healing love in your life.

Please see the whole schedule of services in this bulletin for all of the services from now through Palm Sunday, Holy Week and Easter. Please note that some services are in the Church and others are outdoors at our school on Anza in Torrance, so check the schedule carefully. On Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday all our morning Masses will be at the school where we have plenty of room for everyone to gather without concern for the 25% occupancy limit for the church. Bring your own chair and dress comfortably as we celebrate these most holy days together.

Blessings,

Msgr. Mike

Fr. Emmanuel

Act of Contrition (traditional)

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest all my sins because of thy just punishments, but most of all because they offend Thee, my God, who art all good and deserving of all my love.

I firmly resolve with the help of Thy grace to sin no more and to avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.

Act of Contrition (alternate form)

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things.

I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin.

Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.

Q: Saint John Paul II called The Catechism of the Catholic Church, “a special gift.”

The word “catechism” means “instruction” and among the holy and instructive elements echoing throughout this catechetical map of a spiritual journey, we can mark lessons from the Bible, the sacraments, Church tradition, and the lives of the saints. For all who seek to persevere in hope, faith, and prayer, with a loving, zealous spirit, how does the catechism gift us with insightful guidance for the challenges of today and tomorrow as reflected in the exemplary lives of the saints?

A: St. Paul is quoted in the Catechism: “Pray at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert with all perseverance making supplication for all the saints. Pray without ceasing.”

The Catechism goes on to reference 2 Corinthians, about walking by faith and not by sight, yet observing that sometimes our life experiences seem to contradict the Good News, thereby possibly shaking one’s faith.

One avenue of Catechism guidance is presented here: “It is then we must turn to the witnesses of faith...to “so great a cloud of witnesses.”

Amid that cloud:

St. Thomas Aquinas-“The principle act of courage is to endure and withstand dangers.”

St. Catherine of Siena- “Nothing great is ever achieved without much enduring.”

St. Padre Pio- “Pray with perseverance...calmness, and serenity.”

Is such faith, as exemplified by the saints, possible for those who may be wearied by the often challenging vicissitudes of life?

Pope Francis gives us this perspective:

“To be a Saint is not a privilege for the few, but a vocation for everyone.”

Augmenting the Catechism in this area is Reverend Alban Butler in Lives of the Saints:

“Beg of God, through the intercession of these holy martyrs, the gift of perseverance. Their example will supply you with an admirable rule for obtaining this crowning gift. Do not hesitate; do not look back; do not listen to suggestions against faith or virtue, but advance, day by day, along the road which you have chosen to God ...”

Or as St. John Paul II advised: “Become a saint, and do so quickly.”

As we look to withstand our own present dangers, may we find that calmness and serenity so often exhibited by such an amazing litany of Catholic saints, adding ourselves to the catalog of those who persevere, as part of an enduring effort to finish the race; to fight the good fight; to keep the faith. A saintly vocation, indeed.

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Thank you to all the families around the parish who are participating in our Feed the Needy Drive! For those who don't know, the Feed the Needy Program provides lunches to the hungry in our community every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 1pm, helping the parish live out our call to love and serve God by loving and serving one another. This year, the Religious Education program is joined in its efforts by all those who work with children in our parish, including the Sunday School, Children's Liturgy of the Word, the Preschool, Saint James School, the Mom's Group, and Confirmation and Youth Ministry. Drop offs continue this week outside the Office of Religious Education on Tuesday and Wednesday from 10am -5pm. Any group is welcome to use our drop bins if that is easier for your family. If you have any questions, please feel free to call the office at 310.379.3221.

Please keep our parish children who are preparing for First Communion in your prayers. They will be gathering with their families this Sunday at 1pm on the St. James School field for their final preparations for the reception of the Sacrament. First Communion will be held during regular parish Masses over two weekends in April.

Finally, please remember that there will be no Religious Education classes next week on March 30th and 31st due to our Teacher In-Service Meeting.

As we enter this fifth week of Lent, may you and your family experience a deeper awareness of the love of God reaching out to you through the Sacraments, through nature, and through one another! God bless!

God bless!

Andrea Sullivan,
Director of Religious Education

Sunday School

Would you like your children to learn about God's love for them? Would you like them to be familiar with favorite Old and New Testament bible stories? Would you like them to know basic Catholic prayers, but also to feel comfortable just talking to God in their own words? Do you wish there was a way for a preschool aged child to understand the message in the gospel reading?

If you have any questions or would like to enroll, please contact Sheila Kelly at 714.391.3949. Please text me first and let me know you are asking about Sunday School. You may also email me at slkelly3156@gmail.com.

SAINT JAMES YOUTH MINISTRY

Week 3 of our Year 2 Confirmation retreat has just completed!

This week, we heard some powerful testimonies from a few of our Teen Disciples & participated in an activity where we recognized the barriers we put between ourselves & God.

Candidates then engaged in discussions about how we can slowly break down those barriers and entrust our hearts to God just as Jesus did.

Our teens are allowing themselves to be transformed by the Holy Spirit, especially as they prepare to be Confirmed in the next few months.

Continue praying for them as they navigate through their faith journey!

Please contact us at one of the options below for any questions or details on any future Youth Ministry events.

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,
Los Angeles is in the Red Tier!

That is good news for schools that will now be able to open for grades 7 – 12 and continue on the road to bringing students back to the classroom.

We will welcome back our Junior High, grades 6, 7, & 8 tomorrow, March 22nd!

This week we celebrated St. Patrick's Day with both our Roomers (In Person Learners) and Zoomers (Distance Learners). A little bit of fun and whimsy was added to our days as we wore green and searched for pots of gold.

We are accepting registration for the 2021- 2022 school year.

New Student registration is available on our website SJScatholicSchool.org. Please email the school office@sjscatholicSchool.org or phone 310.371.0416 to reserve to schedule a Virtual tour or a meeting with the principal.

Kindergarten leprechauns, their Teacher Mrs. Spencer (center) and Mrs. Blee, Teacher's Aid (in back), proudly display their Saint Patrick's day art as they learn about this famous Saint. He was not Irish! He was born in Roman Britain and when he was fourteen or so, he was captured by Irish pirates during a raiding party and taken to Ireland as a slave to herd and tend sheep. At the time, Ireland was a land of Druids and pagans. He often used shamrocks to explain the Holy Trinity and entire kingdoms were eventually converted to Christianity after hearing Patrick's message.

He wrote "The Breastplate," Patrick's poem of faith and trust in God: "Christ be within me, Christ behind me, Christ before me, Christ beside me, Christ to win me, Christ to comfort and restore me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ inquired, Christ in danger, Christ in hearts of all that love me, Christ in mouth of friend and stranger." are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.*

*I love You above all things,
 and I desire to receive You into my soul.*

*Since I cannot at this moment
 receive You sacramentally,

Gospel Meditation

Any good teacher or parent will tell you that once a lesson is really learned it doesn't need to be taught again.

When we internalize things we have learned, they become a part of who we are and influence how we perceive and interact with our world. The same is true for the law God has written upon our hearts. Once humanity learns this lesson, we will simply know it to be true and act accordingly. Sometimes, it is hard to get people to learn the lessons they need to learn. They are often distracted, disinterested, conflicted, misdirected, or just too stubborn and unable or unwilling to see what is right before their eyes. Understanding that God is in a loving and committed relationship with those fashioned and formed in God's own image, seems like such a simple lesson to learn. But history and experience has proven that it is not.

We struggle with faith, especially when that faith asks us to learn something very particular about ourselves. We must, like a grain of wheat, fall to the ground and die. Because God's DNA is at the very core of who we are, there are specific pearls of wisdom that must be acquired before we can live a full life. One very powerful lesson is that it is not the task of the world to tell us who we are and what has meaning, but God. For many, death is not an opportunity for greater life but a permanent ending to the life they have known. Jesus knew every dimension to what it means to be fully human because he was! He knows the joys, limitations, sorrows, frustrations, wonders, suffering, opportunities, and joys of the human experience. Jesus can teach us a wealth of knowledge and life's lessons from his example, especially obedience.

When we accept the law God has placed in our hearts and gain wisdom from it, then when we suffer we learn to listen more attentively to the Voice behind that law. We naturally flee to our Creator for inspiration, consolation, hope, direction, and comfort as we navigate through this time of darkness. We will not need to run from it, subdue it, fight it, or be overcome by it because we will know, having internalized this profound lesson before, that God will bring new life. God's law is love and love never fails. Even in the moments of Jesus' deepest despair, he glorified the name of his Father. What he learned allowed him to put everything in perspective and be obedient to the tender, loving Voice that echoed within.

As Lent quickly winds down, may we learn the same!

Then, may we gain the fortitude and wisdom to help others see what is right before their eyes. ©LPi

The Power of Confession

All priests of God's holy Church have an incredible gift to give each parishioner: forgiveness of the sins if they have at least imperfect contrition for their sins, by the merits of our Lord, through the sacrament of reconciliation.

If imperfect contrition hasn't yet to be obtained, as long as there is some desire to stop the sin, this sacrament still sends fantastic grace to help move souls to obtain the contrition needed to accept forgiveness and then into perfect contrition for the salvation of their souls. There is nothing more important than saving the souls of God's people. Everything we do is in vain if we can't prevent God's children from dying with unrepentant mortal sin on their soul. Truly loving each person is realized by showing them how to obtain the gift of eternal life. Nothing else can be of greater importance. Even the Holy Eucharist cannot save the soul of a man who has broken his relationship with Christ. The sacrament of reconciliation is the only ordinary means to bring purification to the soul. Outside of growing into perfect contrition, this sacrament restores our souls back into sanctifying grace—even if only for a moment and sends us unspeakable grace to help us achieve and maintain a saving faith for the salvation of our souls.

Into the Breach

Inspired by Bishop Olmsted's vision, the Knights of Columbus and the Diocese of Phoenix have joined together to produce a 12-episode video series, also titled Into the Breach. Each episode focuses on a different aspect of authentic Catholic masculinity and features interviews with well-known Catholic commentators and follows the personal story of a man whose life illuminates each theme.

The series can also be used for individual reflection and a study guide is available. By joining together in brotherhood, men receive the support they need to grow in virtue and to take action to serve Christ and others.

We hope that this series help you and all of us to step into the breach. To preview the video:
