SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

Ezra read plainly from the book of the law of God, interpreting it so that all could understand what was read. (Neh 8:8)

Psalm:

Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life. (Ps 19)

Second Reading:

For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit. (1 Cor 12:12)

Gospel:

He said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." (Lk 1:21)

ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

[GOSPEL MEDITATION]

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor... and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord."

-Lk 4:18a, 19

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God's special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God's word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that he is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God's timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God's word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit. We realize the truth in what God speaks and become open to God's love. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God's power. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means "beloved of God," a name that can be used

BECOME A MEMBER OF THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The Knights of Columbus council of St. Philip the Apostle would like to invite you to become a member of our local council. If you are a man 18 years of age or older and are a practicing Catholic in communion with the Holy See, you are eligible to join. By joining our council, you become a part of the largest Catholic men's fraternal organization in the world with nearly two million members. Our common bond is our devotion to the Catholic faith and our brotherhood in Jesus Christ. We join together to become better Catholics, better husbands, better fathers, better providers for the financial protection of our families and better citizens in the communities in which we live. We place special emphasis on charity, which is the first principle of the Order.

For information on becoming a member, please contact James Stevens at jstevens@002@sprintmail.com or Efren Rodriguez at efrenalva@yahoo.com.

St Philip the Apostle's Next 100 Years Survey Results

There are three opportunities for parishioners to come hear the results of our recent parish wide survey and discuss how this and other parishioner input continues to shape the vision for the next 100 years of St Philip the Apostle Parish.

- Tuesday Jan. 25th at 7PM
- Sunday Jan. 30th – Rolling presentations will occur after each mass
- Thursday February 3rd at 6PM

Please plan on joining Fr Tony and the steering committee as we work together to shape the next 100 years of our parish story. You don't need to RSVP in advance – but we look forward to seeing you there!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
IS IT RIGHT TO SUE?

Question:

Is it right to sue someone? Isn't it a way of getting revenge?

Answer:

Revenge is inflicting harm for harm's sake, the idea of an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, and then some. There is often a fine line between justice and mercy, between compensation and forgiveness. Unfortunately, things can happen to us that cause harm, suffering, and damage, regardless of people's intentions. When someone is hurt, especially in such a way that special care or treatment is required, the cost of that care needs to be paid.

In a perfect world, those with special needs, handicaps, or disabilities would find the help and care they need, including those who are injured or hurt. But justice is not always forthcoming, and people are not always fair. So, using the legal system to right a wrong is sometimes the only option.

In some cases, it is the only way that people can get the help they need and deserve. However, frivolous lawsuits, or 'fishing for money' is not only unfair, but immoral as well. The law is there to protect people and making use of it when necessary is a good thing.

WHAT DO THEY DO?

- Assist the priest(s) and deacon(s) at Mass
- Prepare the altar (e.g. light candles, prepare and use special tools for Mass)

Service - Formation - Unity

WHY WOULD YOU WANT TO BE AN ALTAR SERVER?

- You don't have to sit with your parents at Mass
- You get a front-row seat, in the middle of the action
- You look really cool in the white robe

BUT MORE SERIOUSLY...

- It is an important and sacred ministry
- Learn more about Mass and what it means for your Catholic faith
- It is a great leadership opportunity
- It leads you to a deeper relationship with God
