@SaintBrigidSD

WELCOME! We are so glad that you are here with us! At Saint Brigid Parish, we join together in community to encounter and love Jesus and one another, so we can go out and be disciples who serve the world. Come be a part of the mission with us! Whether you're a long-time parishioner, visitor, church shopper, or making your way back to practicing your faith, there is always a place for you here. We hope that by gathering to pray, grow, and love, we all can learn to live like Jesus and become who we are called to be. Follow along with the Mass on pages 8 and 9.

CLERGY CORNER Father Steve Callahan

SIN AND HOW TO OVERCOME IT

Dear friends of Saint Brigid Parish,

Jason Simon, president of Evangelical Catholic, was in town recently and we had a very interesting conversation over dinner about the reality of sin in our lives and how we overcome it.

Our conversation started with Jason asking me this question: "Do you think it is scandalous to believe or say that God does not care about our sins?" We framed the question and our conversation in the context of the very strong disposition in our hearts that we somehow earn God's love, that when we sin in our thinking or acting God is offended, and we can overcome sin in our hearts and in our lives by a strong act of the will.

None of these dispositions are true. We don't earn God's love. That love is pure unmerited gift, given before we ever do anything. We are conceived and come out of the womb as God's beloved children, a priceless treasure in God's eyes. When we sin God is not offended. Quite the opposite. God loves us most of all in our woundedness, in our sinfulness. It may be a total shock to our system to realize: "God doesn't care about our sin." He cares about our healing, about us being reconciled to Him and one another. It is in our deepest wounds and sins that we can experience the depth of God's mercy and love for us.

And we do NOT overcome sin by an act of the will. Sin is overcome when we entrust our weakness, whether in thought or behavior, to the Lord's infinite grace and mercy, and ask His power, not our own, to be at work in us. People in recovery know well the importance of community and a higher spiritual power to overcome addictions and destructive behaviors.

Let the infinite abundance of God's love for us always be the starting point of our spiritual journey. Embracing that scandalous gift in our hearts empowers us to live as God's beloved and seek God's mercy when we don't.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Father Steve Callahan

HOME MINISTRY

Caring for Those Who are Homebound

The Home Ministry Team, along with our clergy, support, care for, and reach out to parishioners who are challenged, sick and/or homebound. The Home Ministry's main goal is to ensure that every parishioner who wants Communion, but physically cannot attend Mass, receives the Eucharist weekly. In addition, they call homebound parishioners, send greeting cards, and pray for them in several ways. These prayers include the prayers of the faithful at Mass, prayers for the sick from our parish book of intentions, and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy prayed on their behalf every Thursday in front of the Blessed Sacrament. The Home Ministry currently serves eighty-two parishioners who are challenged physically, emotionally, and/or are homebound. Twenty-four of these parishioners reside at Oakmont, Sunrise, or Nazareth House assisted-living facilities.

Take a look at the Home Ministry's recent stats to see all the great work they do:

- 27 of the 30 volunteers are Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHCs) who bring Communion. A primary and backup EMHC has been established for each person receiving Communion.
- When parishioners moved outside our parish boundaries (9 so far), the team identified and contacted the new neighboring parishes and arranged for homebound visits.
- Over 600 greeting cards are distributed annually. This includes Christmas and birthday cards signed by Fr. Steve and Fr. Sebastian.
- During the prohibition of in-person visits due to COVID, team members continued to reach out through numerous "Check-In" phone calls.
- Working with Nancy Wesseln, they assist in preparing the mailings of the "Senior Newsletter."
- Team members delivered dinners on Fridays during Lent and Christmas stockings in December. In collaboration with the Music Ministry, they arranged Christmas caroling visits to the homebound.

Bev and Gerry Greer, who have been coordinating the Home Ministry for six years, are stepping down from their role (see page 6). They have "passed the baton" to Donna Young. Donna and her team will continue to grow this thriving ministry. Please keep the ministry team and all the people they serve in your prayers.

If you know of someone who could benefit from the Home Ministry, or would like to get involved in the ministry, please contact Donna Young, 858.692.6575, or Father Sebastian.

THE WAY OF A DISCIPLE

UNWRAPPING YOUR SPIRITUAL GIFTS

Do you know what your spiritual gifts are? Spiritual gifts, or charisms, are special abilities given to us by the Holy Spirit that enable us to be powerful channels of God's love and presence in the world. Over the next several weeks, we are exploring 23 charisms. Stay tuned for more information about our "Called & Gifted" 5-week small group series coming this October.

ENCOURAGEMENT

- Function: empowers a Christian to be an effective channel of God's love by strengthening and healing individuals in remarkable ways through his or her presence and words
- What it looks like: Encouragers are exceptional nurturers of the personal and spiritual lives of individuals. They are more interested in the unique needs of the individual than the group and by simply listening and talking, they can be catalysts of personal healing and growth in others.

EVANGELISM

- Function: empowers one to be an effective channel of God's love by sharing the faith with others in a way that draws them to intentionally follow Jesus as His disciple in the midst of His Church
- What it looks like: People with this charism are often drawn to and befriend non-Christians. They are supernaturally gifted at helping others develop a thirst for God and His Church, a yearning for a relationship with Jesus, and desire to become new or more dedicated Christians.

EXTRAORDINARY FAITH

- Function: empowers one to be an effective agent of God's purposes through a radical trust in the love, power, and provision of God and an extraordinary freedom to act on that trust
- What it looks like: People with this charism live joyful lifestyles of exceptional trust in God's provision and care. They routinely tackle big visions with little or no visible means of support because they are confident that God will provide all that they need.

WHICH SPIRITUAL GIFTS ARE YOUR SUPERPOWERS?

Administration	Giving	Leadership	Service
Celibacy	Healing	Mercy	Teaching
Craftsmanship	Helps	Missionary	Voluntary Poverty
Encouragement	Hospitality	Music	Wisdom

The 30 Somethings Summer Party was a hit!
Thank you Deacon Mitch and Mrs. Rennix!

CELEBRATING OUR COMMUNITY—THANK YOU GREERS!

We are grateful to Bev and Gerry Greer for all the ways they serve our parish community. Today, we are especially thankful for their six years of service as coordinators of our Home Ministry. Thank you Bev and Gerry for bringing God's love and provision to so many!

A NOTE FROM BEV AND GERRY:

What a Blessing it was for us when Father Sebastian asked us 6 years ago to coordinate Saint Brigid Parish's efforts to our Homebound, which we refer to as "Home Ministry."

Both of us turn 82 years old this summer and realize it is time to "Retire From Retirement" to pursue travel and have more time with family who now live in New York, California, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Florida, and Scotland (we have 7 children and 8 grandchildren). We know God has more work for us to do—we certainly will NOT be bored.

We are humbled, as we look back on these very special years, by the many opportunities we had to receive INSPIRATION from those we called and visited (when we thought we would GIVE inspiration, not get it). Never was there a month where we didn't feel "we were making a difference." There were so many times we felt God's Holy Spirit giving us the right words to say at the right time. And YES, we saw miracles—and always felt a sense of accomplishment. However, we never thought we would meet and work with so many (30-plus) dedicated and amazing Volunteers who made things happen.

Thank you volunteers and Parish Staff for being an integral part of Saint Brigid's Home Ministry!

Blessings,
Bev and Gerry Greer

THE MASS We gather together to pray and celebrate Jesus' sacrifice and love for us. We invite you to join us in prayer. These pages will take you through the Mass, whether you are new to our community, our Faith, or want to participate more fully. The italicized sections explain posture, plain text is the priest's or leader's part, and bold text denotes our response as the gathered Body of Christ.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

During this part of the Mass, we hear God's Word proclaimed. We listen to preaching, which makes Scripture come alive again today, and we express our Catholic faith.

INTRODUCTORY RITE

Please stand for the entrance and opening hymn.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The grace of our Lord...be with you all.

And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL RITE

Brothers and sisters...celebrate the sacred mysteries I confess to almighty God, and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask the blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Repeat after the priest:

Lord Have Mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord Have Mercy.

OR Kyrie, eleison. Christe, eleison. Kyrie, eleison.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You, we bless You, we adore You, we glorify You, we give You thanks for Your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For You alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

READINGS FROM SCRIPTURE (see page 9)

Please sit to receive the Word of God.

First Reading...The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: * Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Second Reading...The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please stand to receive the Gospel.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to ...

Glory to You, O Lord.

...The word of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

Please sit as we listen to a reflection from the clergy.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please stand as we proclaim the creed together.

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, *and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. *(please bow during this profession) For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

UNIVERSAL PRAYER

Please stand as we pray for our community, united with the entire Body of Christ.

After each intention, repeat the response said by the reader.

Cover Photo: "Simon Peter answered him, 'Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God.'" John 6:67

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

In this part of the Mass, we re-experience Jesus' sacrifice. We acknowledge that He is present in the consecrated Bread and Wine—Communion. We pray together and take what we have received in Mass home and into the world.

THE OFFERTORY

As we bring up the bread and wine, we also offer our prayers, gifts, and even ourselves to be placed before God and be transformed.

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

Blessed are You, Lord... the bread of life.

Blessed be God forever.

Blessed are You, Lord... become our spiritual drink.

Blessed be God forever.

Pray...to God, the almighty Father.

Please stand and reply:

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of His name, for our good and the good of all His holy Church.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right and just.

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord, God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of Your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Please kneel in reverence for Christ coming in His Eucharist.

...The mystery of faith.

We proclaim Your Death, O Lord, and profess Your Resurrection until You come again.

OR When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim Your Death, O Lord, until You come again.

OR Save us, Savior of the world, for by Your Cross and Resurrection, You have set us free.

THE GREAT AMEN

Amen.

COMMUNION RITE

Please stand as we pray together.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Deliver us, Lord ... Jesus Christ.

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are Yours now and forever.

THE SIGN OF PEACE

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

And with your spirit.

Let us offer each other the sign of peace.

At this time we usually exchange a sign of sharing God's peace by offering a handshake, hug, or similar gesture with those around us. However during these days of COVID protocols, please offer a wave or a nod of the head or other socially-distant expression of peace.

LAMB OF GOD

Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. 2x

Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Please kneel as we prepare to receive the Body of Christ.

Behold the Lamb of God...the supper of the Lamb.

Lord, I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

COMMUNION

Christ's Body and Blood are truly, fully present as He offers Himself to us in Communion. Catholics prepared to receive the Eucharist approach the minister as the ushers guide you. Non-Catholics or those choosing to abstain from Communion are welcome to come forward for a blessing (please indicate this by crossing your arms over your chest) or may remain in the pews to pray.

CONCLUDING BLESSING

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Go in peace. Thanks be to God.

*The Responsorial Psalm may vary.
