SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

A voice cries out: in the desert prepare the way of the Lord! Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God! (Is 40:3)

PSALM:

Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation. (Ps 85)

SECOND READING:

The day of the lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a mighty roar and the elements will be dissolved by fire, and the earth and everything done on it will be found out. (2 Pt 3:10)

GOSPEL:

"One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; He will baptize you with the holy spirit." (Mk 1:7b-8)

Excerpts from the lectionary for mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of psalm responses from lectionary for mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, international commission on English in the liturgy corporation. all rights reserved.

2nd SUNDAY OF ADVENT

John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. - Mk 1:4

REFLECT

FIRST READING:

Five hundred years before the birth of Christ, Isaiah prophesied these words of comfort and hope to the Israelites captive in Babylon. What would bring comfort and hope to you in this season of advent?

SECOND READING:

Today we hear how Peter challenged those in his day who denied that Christ would return. Peter argued that our human timeline is not God's timeline. How do you reason with people today who deny the fundamentals of our faith?

GOSPEL:

Mark opens his gospel by presenting the words and activities of John the Baptist in the context of fulfilling Isaiah's prophecy heard in our first reading. Why do you think connecting Isaiah to John the Baptist was important to Mark and his community?

GOSPEL MEDITATION / MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

December 6, 2020

2nd Sunday of Advent

People knew over a year in advance that the Pope was coming for a visit to America and the preparations began. Security, space limitations and requirements, protocols, crowd management, itineraries, invitations, regulations, and so much more was necessary to pull this event off effectively. It's not every day that we get a visit from such a prominent dignitary. Thought, effort, meticulous attention to detail and vision all are necessary to make this thing work. After all, he can't just show up in the ordinary and normal daily routines of life and catch people unprepared! Tickets have to be purchased, buses rented, hotel rooms reserved, and travel arrangements made early because it will be impossible to see him if we wait too long!

We do this kind of preparing not only for prominent religious figures but for political dignitaries, notable sports figures, people of fame, and even actors. If an individual intrigues us, we are going to want to do all we have to do to get a "good seat" in the house. Does Jesus Christ captivate this much of our attention? We are asked to prepare the way of the Lord and to do so not with frantic frenzy but patient enthusiasm. We do not have to stand on a street corner making profound announcements about God's coming or become overly zealous in our embrace of the Good News. Our task is quieter, more interior, captivating, and consuming. We are asked to change. We have to conduct our lives with holy devotion.

Is the cost of that ticket too much for you? Don't you want the "best seat" in the house? You don't want to miss Our Lord's arrival when he comes, do you? After all, if he comes while you are going about your daily routines without you even knowing, he may catch you off guard. Or, he may come in disguise looking like a beggar, a prisoner, migrant, refugee, or someone who is lost. Would you be ready to recognize him then? Preparing for the coming of Christ requires a change of mind, heart, and behavior. It is not adequate to simply do the things we always do. We want our lives to speak of the exciting news of Christ's coming and the joy that the Gospel brings. It has to do with our demeanor, values, priorities, choices, and how we structure daily routines. Of course, it involves sacrifice. All anticipations do! Are you excited, captivated, enthusiastic, and sitting on the edge of your seat eager to celebrate his coming among us at Christmas, and waiting for him to come again? If not, why not?

ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

6 de diciembre de 2020

2º Domingo de Adviento

Una voz clama: "Abran el camino al Señor en el desierto; en la estepa tracen una senda para Dios; todas las quebraduras serán rellenadas y todos los cerros y lomas rebajados; que se aplanen las cuestas y queden las colinas como un llano". (Isaías 40:3-5). El tiempo del Adviento es un tiempo hermoso. La Liturgia nos propone, caminar y avanzar. El camino está trazado, tenemos la confianza de llegar a puerto, llegaremos a un lugar cierto y seguro. Pero, antes debemos de preparar el camino, de enderezar los senderos mal llevados en nuestra vida. Esforzarnos es la respuesta a esta iniciativa del Bautista. Todos estamos expectantes de que algo nuevo surgirá.

El relato de Marcos es breve y conciso, la predicación del Bautista es muy diferente a la del Evangelio de Lucas. Marcos centra el anuncio de la venida del más poderoso, y del bautismo con el Espíritu Santo. "Yo los he bautizado con agua, pero él los bautizará en el Espíritu Santo". (Marcos 1:8). Bueno, entonces, ¿cómo debo preparar el camino del Señor? ¿Cómo pide Dios que viva mi matrimonio? ¿Qué de los vecinos que son de diferente cultura a la mía? La falta de trabajo, de alimento, vivienda y vestido de los demás no es solo su problema. Es también nuestro problema. No hagamos oídos sordos al grito del Bautista, cooperemos con él en su deseo de allanar el camino para que el Señor llegue ahí donde más se necesita su presencia. ¡Ven Señor no tardes en llegar! Especialmente, en este año 2020 tan devastado por el sufrimiento.

FALL APPEAL ~ DONATING STOCK

Donating appreciated securities, including stocks or bonds, can be an easy and tax-effective way to make a donation to St. Matthew. Your gift to our Fall Appeal is very important to us, as it allows us to continue providing catechetical programs, outreach ministries and staff for our church and school to better serve you.

If held for more than one year, appreciated securities are one of the most popular assets to donate. This type of donation offers you the chance to support the important work of St. Matthew while realizing important tax benefits for yourself.

By donating appreciated securities that you have held for more than one year, you can reduce or even eliminate federal capital gains taxes. You may also be entitled to a federal income tax charitable deduction based on the fair market value of the securities at the time of the transfer. You may receive the same income tax savings that you would if you wrote a check, but with the added benefit of eliminating capital gains taxes.

Next Steps:

- Seek the advice of your financial or legal advisor. Some brokerage firms have their own requirements to process a transfer.
- Contact Cece Clitheroe, Development Coordinator at 503-648-1998 ext. 256 or cclitheroe@stmatthewhillsboro.org for additional information and instructions.
- When you include St. Matthew in your plans, please use our legal name, St. Matthew Catholic Church, with address 475 SE 3rd Avenue, Hillsboro, OR and Federal Tax ID #93-0429016

Can Divorced Catholics Take Communion?

Question: Can a divorced Catholic receive holy Communion?

Answer:

Unfortunately, too many people today — Catholics and non-Catholics alike — mistakenly believe that divorce separates one from the Communion of the Church and that divorced persons may not receive Communion. However, as the Church has communicated in a number of places, the issue at hand is not the reality of divorce, but is more often the reality of re-marriage outside of the Church (such as in the case of a Catholic who was previously married within the Church, divorced, and remarried without receiving an annulment).

Divorced persons are called to live chastely as single people and to observe the same call to avoid sin as anyone else who desires to receive the Eucharist. Beyond this, however, Pope Francis has reminded us that the healing power of the Eucharist can be especially significant for those who have “endured separation, divorce, or abandonment ... divorced people who have not remarried, and often bear witness to marital fidelity, ought to be encouraged to find in the Eucharist the nourishment they need to sustain them in their present state of life.” (Amoris Laetitia, no. 242) Moreover, he continues, “The local community and pastors should accompany these people with solicitude, particularly when children are involved or when they are in serious financial difficulty.” (AL, no 242)

As Pope Francis has also reminded us, the Eucharist is “not a prize for the perfect,” but “a powerful medicine and nourishment” (Evangelii Gaudium, no. 47). Because we all stand in need of healing and wholeness, the Church invites all who seek to live their faith in integrity and devotion to come and receive the grace offered in the Eucharist.

Dear parishioners, if you are planning to shop online, we would like you to consider doing the following:

You can make an impact while you shop for Black Friday deals.

Simply shop at smile.amazon.com/ch/93-0429016 and AmazonSmile will donate to St. Matthew Catholic Church, at no cost to you.

The USDA Food Boxes distributed by St. Matthew Catholic Church are distributed on Tuesday afternoons starting at about 2:00 pm, but closer to 1:00 pm if the truck arrives sooner.

You are encouraged to queue in line as early as 12:45 pm because of the demand for boxes and the change to distributing boxes only one day per week instead of the previous two days per week.

The site for distribution is:
Hillsboro High School
3285 SE Rood Bridge Rd.
Hillsboro, OR 97123

Anyone can get receive a box. It doesn't matter where you live, who you are if you are working or not. Just drive up, open the trunk, and the only question they will ask is, "for how many families?" You can receive more than one box if you request it or pick up for other families. We appreciate the people that come and then deliver the boxes to their neighbors or family members who cannot come.

As the COVID-19 pandemic extends into the fall months, more and more Oregonians will continue to struggle to meet their basic need for food security. Many others struggle with isolation and can't travel to their local grocery store. Be kind, be supportive, lend a hand.

I am pleased and grateful that our ongoing discussion with the Governor's office has resulted in a more reasonable percent to capacity policy for the Catholic Church and other faith communities. However, the Eucharist is as essential to the Catholic faith life as going to the grocery store and I will continue to advocate for the faithful. I also pray for the Governor and her staff as we overcome this pandemic together.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Jubilation to Share

Sometimes you have something to share with people that causes you to well up inside with excitement to the point of going crazy. A pregnancy test, a pay raise, a college acceptance, a wedding or engagement are all examples of moments in life when we might be bursting at the seams to tell somebody the good news. When we finally get the chance to tell somebody, joy just seems to flow through us with ease. We literally want the entire world to share in our jubilation.

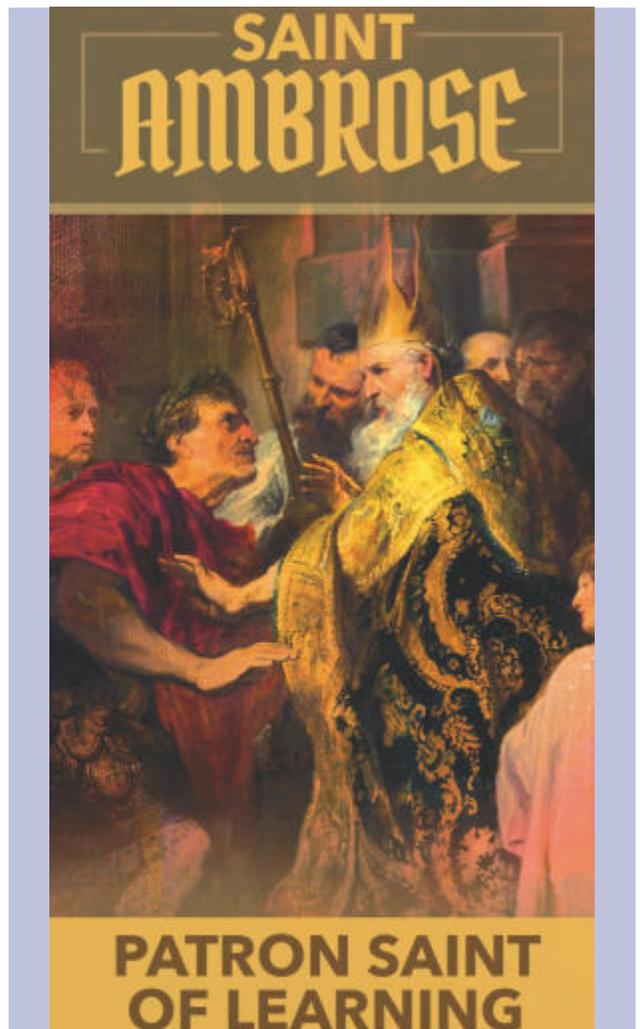

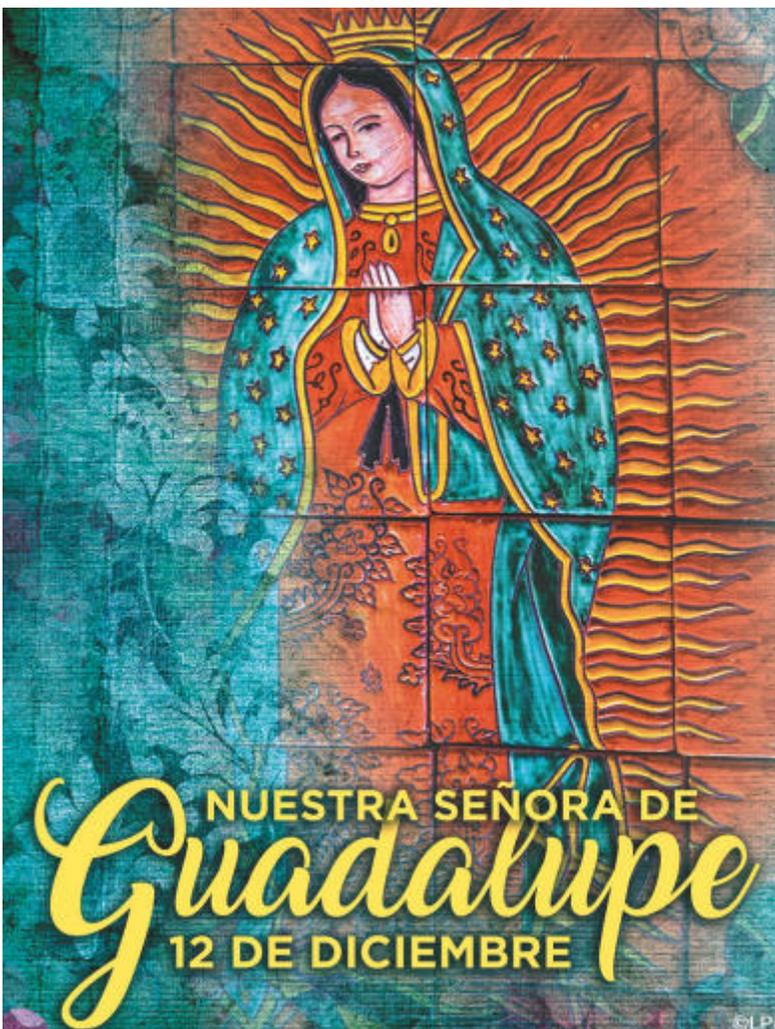

When was the last time you shared with a friend or loved one how much your faith in Jesus means to you? You don't feel the same motivation to share? Are you not overwhelmed with a desire to spread the Good News?

Don't feel bad. You are not alone. As Christians, we often fail to grasp the powerful implications of being a disciple of Jesus Christ. We can become complacent and lose sight of what matters the most. That is when sharing with others about our faith seems uncomfortable.

Faith is a gift. As everyday stewards we are called to share with others what God has given us. Advent is a great time to grow in our faith and love of the Lord. The more we cultivate our faith and the closer we draw to Him, the more we will want to share about Him. We might not have the impact of John the Baptist in the course of human history, but our proclamation of the Gospel to another might be the gift that changes their history.

PRAYER

Prayer for Priests

*Lord Jesus,
present in the most blessed sacrament,
and living perpetually among us through your priests, grant that the words of your priests may be only your words, that their gestures be only your gestures, and that their lives be a true reflection of your life.*

*Grant that they may be men who speak to God on behalf of his people, and speak to his people of God. Grant that they be courageous in service, serving the church
as she asks to be served.*

*Grant that they may be men who witness to eternity in our time, traveling on the paths of history in your steps,
and doing good for all.*

*Grant that they may be faithful to their commitments, zealous in their vocation and mission, clear mirrors of their own identity,
and living the joy of the gift they have received.*

*We pray that your holy mother, Mary,
present throughout your life, may be ever present in the life of your priests.*

Amen.

OUR VISION: One Community Growing in Christ

OUR MISSION: We are a Catholic Community and Christ is the center of our life. Moved by the Holy Spirit, as Christ's disciples, we are sent to bring the Good News of faith and love to all people.

OUR SPIRITUALITY: Through the life of our community we proclaim Christ as Prophet, Priest, and King. In Holy Scripture, the Sacraments, Prayer, and Service we find our spiritual nourishment. We help each other to deepen our personal relationship with Christ, and we foster the spiritual growth of all our community members. With open hearts we embrace the blessing of our multicultural community as we share our many gifts and spiritual heritages. We cultivate the social justice tradition of our Church, especially defending the dignity of every human being, from conception to natural death. We are called to discover Christ in all our sisters and brothers, especially in those who suffer in body, mind or spirit.
