FROM THE DESK OF FR. JUAN GONZALEZ, MSPS

My dear Friends,

"I am among you as one who serves." (Lk 22:27)

It's been five weeks since I officially started my ministry with you, and I like to remind myself of those words our Lord spoke to the disciples on the night of the Last Supper. In the Last Supper, the Lord said those words after the institution of the Eucharist to remind the disciples that their ministry and vocation are always at the service of the Eucharist and also to the People of God gathered around the Eucharist.

With joy and humility, I assumed the responsibility of being the administrator of St. Matthew Church and School. I thank Fr. Peter Arteaga, our Provincial Superior, and Archbishop Alexander Sample for this appointment.

I follow a long line of dedicated priests who have served this Parish for many years of their priestly life. I am grateful to them for their service and dedication to their ministry. They have laid the foundation upon which I stand and continue the work of Jesus – to build and proclaim the Kingdom of God in Hillsboro.

I join many women and men who minister to God's people on behalf of the Church every day by actively serving in the Parish in liturgy, catechesis, and serving the poor and most vulnerable. There are so many of us! Every single one of you encourages and inspires me.

I am thankful to Fr. Rito, my brother, and partner in ministry. We are very fortunate to have him as part of our community. He is generous, cheerful, hard-working, and a man of deep faith. Please, join me in welcoming Fr. Roberto Saldivar, former Provincial Superior, who is in residence with us. You will see him around, helping us with some sacramental community needs while he continues to recover from Covid.

Also, the Parish and school staff have been most welcoming and supportive. Thank you, Friends, for your generous service during these past years, especially getting us through the pandemic.

You know? There is a lot of uncertainties about the future, a lot of things to worry about, many elements that may bring us down or make us weary, but let us hold on to the words of the Lord. Let us not be afraid. Let us keep the faith. As we move forward together, let us remember the words of Jesus to the synagogue official in the gospel, "Do not be afraid, just have faith." (Mk 5:36c)

I look forward to ministry with you. I look forward to serving you along with the dedicated staff of the Parish and the School. I promise you my love, prayers, and the constant invitation to be holy. I ask for your prayers, and I hope to earn your support and trust.

May God bless you all.

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL P. JUAN GONZALEZ, MSPS

Mis queridos amigos,

"Estoy entre ustedes como quien sirve". (Lucas 22:27)

Han pasado cinco semanas desde que comencé oficialmente mi ministerio con ustedes, y me gusta recordar estas palabras que nuestro Señor les dijo a los discípulos la noche de la Última Cena. El Señor pronunció esas palabras después de la institución de la Eucaristía para recordar a los discípulos que su ministerio y vocación están siempre al servicio de la Eucaristía y también al Pueblo de Dios reunido en torno a la Eucaristía.

Con alegría y humildad, asumí la responsabilidad de ser el administrador de la Iglesia y Escuela San Mateo. Doy las gracias al P. Pedro Arteaga, nuestro Superior Provincial, y al Arzobispo Alexander Sample por este nombramiento.

Sigo una larga lista de sacerdotes dedicados que han servido a esta parroquia durante muchos años de su vida sacerdotal. Les estoy agradecido por su servicio y dedicación a su ministerio. Ellos han sentado las bases sobre las cuales me paro y continúo la obra de Jesús - para construir y proclamar el Reino de Dios en Hillsboro.

Me uno a muchas mujeres y hombres que sirven al pueblo de Dios en nombre de la Iglesia todos los días sirviendo activamente en la parroquia en liturgia, catequesis y sirviendo a los pobres y más vulnerables. ¡Somos tantos! Cada uno de ustedes me anima e inspira.

Estoy agradecido con el P. Rito, mi hermano y socio en el ministerio. Somos muy afortunados de tenerlo como parte de nuestra comunidad. Es generoso, alegre, trabajador y un hombre de profunda fe. Por favor, únase a mí para dar la bienvenida al P. Roberto Saldívar, ex Superior Provincial, quien reside con nosotros. Lo verán alrededor, ayudándonos con algunas necesidades sacramentales mientras continúa recuperándose de Covid.

Además, el personal de la parroquia y la escuela ha sido de lo más acogedor y comprensivo. Gracias, amigos, por su generoso servicio durante estos últimos años, especialmente ayudándonos durante la pandemia.

¿Saben? Hay muchas incertidumbres sobre el futuro, muchas cosas de las que preocuparse, muchos elementos que pueden abatirnos o cansarnos, pero aferrémonos a las palabras del Señor. No tengamos miedo. Mantengamos la fe. A medida que avanzamos juntos, recordemos las palabras de Jesús al funcionario de la sinagoga en el evangelio: "No temas, solo ten fe". (Mc 5, 36c)

Espero poder ministrar con ustedes. Espero poder servirles junto con el personal de la parroquia y la escuela. Les prometo mi amor, mis oraciones y la constante invitación a ser santos. Les pido sus oraciones y espero ganarme su apoyo y confianza.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos.

SEVEN STEPS TO VOCATIONAL DISCERNMENT

Seven Steps to Vocational Discernment

Fr. Fernando Torre, MSpS

One of the biggest challenges in life is finding our place in society and in the Church. If you are looking for your vocation, these seven steps can help you discern the plan that God the Father has for you.

Although here we are dealing with consecrated vocations, to religious life, priesthood, etc., the process described can be useful for making decisions regarding any state of life or profession.

1. Prayer

What shall I do, Lord? (Acts 22:10).

Vocation is not something you invent; it is a treasure you find. It is not the plan you prepare for your life, but the project that the Trinity-God provides for you and invites you to carry out. It is not primarily a decision you make, rather a gift that you receive, a call that you answer. In order to discover what God wants from you, you need to pray. This is what was done by Samuel (1S 3:10), Ezekiel (Ez 2:1 and 3:11), Jesus of Nazareth (Lk 3:21), Mary of Magdala (Jn 20:17), Saul from Tarsus (Acts 9:11), and many others. In prayer you can find Jesus Christ and experience His love; the Holy Spirit will sharpen your ear so that you may listen, and He will give you the strength and courage to respond. When speaking with Jesus you can hear His voice calling to you, "Come, follow me." (Mk 10:21); or you can hear Him telling you, "Return home and tell about what God has done for you." (Lk 8:39) It is not enough for you to remember God only occasionally and ask Him to enlighten you; it is necessary that you dedicate time to formal prayer. You should pray daily (at least fifteen minutes), go on a day of prayer and silence, or spend a few days on retreat. Besides being the first step of the process of searching, prayer is an exercise that will have to accompany you throughout your vocational discernment. By taking this step, you are saying, "I love Jesus Christ." "I want to find God's will for me." "I want to carry out His project".

2. Understanding

But then it becomes like fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones; I grow weary holding it in, I cannot endure it. (Jr 20:9). In order to find out what God wants from you, you will need to create an atmosphere of exterior and interior silence, as noise hinders your perceptions. Observe your feelings, thoughts, concerns, desires. Listen to people who approve of your worries and to those who criticize you. Look at men and women around you. How do you feel about their sadness, their pain, their poverty, their need for God? Look at your personal history. What was the path along which the Holy Spirit led you? What have been the most important events of your life? Which people have been meaningful to you? Why? Become aware of your life today. Who do you relate to? How do you invest your time? What makes you happy today? How is your relationship with Jesus Christ? Think about your future. How do you imagine yourself in ten years? How do you feel when thinking about the possibility of devoting your life to God? You have only one life, how would you like to spend it? With the help of your spiritual director, carefully determine if your answers are signs of a genuine call to the priesthood or to consecrated life, or an indication that God wants you to intensify your Christian life as a lay person. By taking this step you are saying, "I have an intuition that the Holy Spirit is asking something special from me." "I feel the need to devote my life to God and to cooperate with Jesus Christ in the salvation of the world."

SEVEN STEPS TO VOCATIONAL DISCERNMENT

3. Information

Observe what the country and its inhabitants are like, what the cities they dwell in are like, what the land is like. (Nm 13:17-20). The paths for carrying out the consecrated calling are multiple. The will to offer your life to God and dedicate yourself to building the Kingdom is necessary, but it is not enough. You also need to understand where God wants you to serve Him. In order to find your place in the Church, you should get to know the various vocations. Research the spiritualities that different religious congregations or secular institutes practice. Visit them and see how they live. For example, a contemplative order is different from a society of apostolic life. Find out what is their mission and how they carry it out; teaching, ministering in hospitals, praying, giving spiritual direction, missions, media, parish ministry... Ask who are the main recipients of their ministry; the youth, the poor, the clergy, the sick, children, seminarians, indigenous peoples, the elderly, etc. Usually, when one experiences vocational curiosity, he/she is also feeling an appeal for a specific calling. It is important that you dedicate some time to gathering more in-depth information about this vocation and other possible vocations. By taking this step you are saying, "I like the spirituality, lifestyle, and apostolate of this specific community." "Perhaps God is calling me to offer my life to Him or to enter the seminary."

4. Reflection

Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion? (Lk 14:28). Vocation is a very big undertaking and it is for a lifetime. Therefore, to throw yourself into it, you must have seriously thought about yourself and the lifestyle you intend to embrace. Analyze your capabilities and limitations. Think about whether you will be able to live the demands that your vocation implies - counting, of course, on the grace of the Holy Spirit. What is your belief that God is calling you based upon? What are the pros and cons of your taking up this path? What circumstances or individuals may help or hinder your response? What attracts you towards this kind of life and what do you dislike? God asks you to commit yourself responsibly in the discernment of your vocation. He wants you to use your spiritual sensitivity and your intelligence to seek His will. Inspired by the Holy Spirit's light, you will be able to understand what God the Father wants from you. Don't think of receiving the absolute certainty of what God wants from you, something like having a contract signed by Him. What you will find will be signs through which God will reveal to you the project He has in mind for you. By interpreting these signs, you will be certain of His call. By taking this step, you are saying, "Jesus Christ is calling me to follow Him. With the power of the Holy Spirit, I can answer."

5. Decision

I will follow you wherever you go. (Lk 9:57). Having discovered what God wants from you, make up your mind to carry it out. Making such a decision is difficult. You will feel afraid. Your limitations will seem like mountains to you. The prophet Jeremiah, knowing what God wanted of him, tried to avoid his vocation saying, "Ah, Lord GOD! See, I don't know how to speak; I am too young." (Jr 1:6). However, being aware of your limitations and relying on God's grace, answer with Isaiah's words, "Here I am, send me!" (Is 6:8), or Mary's, "May it be done to me according to your word." (Lk 1:38) Saying 'yes', thus committing all of your life, is a grace. Ask the Holy Spirit to give you the ability to respond. Avoiding this decision would mean wasting your life. As you begin on your vocational road, do not expect to have absolute certainty of God's calling ("the signed contract"). Your decision will be a step in faith, an act of trust in your friend Jesus. When you decide to radically follow Jesus Christ, it is normal to have doubts about whether you are able to meet the requirements, or if you can reach the goal. However, you cannot doubt that you freely made the decision to follow Him. By taking this step you are saying, "I want to answer the call of Jesus Christ." "I want to devote my life to God in this institute." "I want to be a sister." "I want to be a priest."

A MESSAGE FROM OUR YOUTH MINISTRY COORDINATOR

After some time of prayerful discernment, I have decided it's time for something a little different. So, in January I will be leaving the United States! I will be gone for a year on mission in Honduras!

If you haven't heard of the Franciscans Friars of the Renewal, you should totally check 'em out, they are AMAZING!

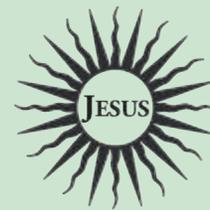

Well, the friars run an orphanage for boys in Honduras, and help out with an orphanage for girls a couple blocks down, and I will be going to serve there. For the year, I will be helping love these beautiful girls in the home and will help with their daily duties. Specifically a lot of tutoring, faith education, and daily activities like helping in the kitchen or in recreation.

I am beyond excited for this new season in my life! It might seem to some that this is so sudden, but I've actually been praying about this since July. I applied at the end of August, and was officially invited to join several weeks ago. Up til then, I was keeping it mostly on the down low in order to have a proper discernment, so only few people knew. But I am happy to now share the news with everyone!

It's been a long time since I have truly felt like I am doing God's will for my life, but I have been affirmed in little beautiful ways these last few months that this is absolutely what He wants of me. And I desire nothing else than Him, so I am honored to be able to serve in this capacity for a year. I'm looking forward to all that I am going to learn and I hope to grow so much this year, not only spiritually, but also emotionally and in maturity! I know I am going to fall in love with these girls and can't wait to share our Heavenly Father's love for them.

—Esme Herrera

Esme's last day in our parish will be December 17th, 2021. We will soon begin a process of hiring a new Youth Ministry Coordinator. We wish Esme the very best and thank her for her enthusiasm and the spirituality she kindly shared with our youth.
