FROM BISHOP THOMAS

Bishop George Leo Thomas' Statement on Wednesday's Violence at the US Capitol

January 6, 2021

Dear Friends in Christ:

We join our voices with people of good will everywhere, condemning the violence and lawlessness that unfolded today in Washington, D.C.

Along with my fellow Bishops, I strongly condemn the actions of the misguided protesters and anarchists who breached the Capitol chambers today, wreaking havoc and mayhem while lawmakers debated the certification of the presidential election results.

I strongly echo the sentiments of Archbishop José Gomez, President of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, who wrote, "This is not who we are as Americans ... the peaceful transition of power is one of the hallmarks of this great nation."

During these pivotal days, when the nation is already under considerable duress, we turn to the Prince of Peace asking Him to guard and guide the United States, and to keep us true to our ideals as "One nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend George Leo Thomas, Ph.D.

Bishop of Las Vegas

The Baptism of our Lord

Today we celebrate the end of the season of Christmas with the celebration of the Baptism of our Lord Jesus Christ. This marks a significant point in the adult life of Christ; it leads directly to his public ministry. Though the baptism of John was a baptism of repentance for the coming of the Messiah, Jesus chose to be baptized by John to “fulfill all righteousness” and to show that he indeed was the fulfillment of the prophesy of St. John the Baptist. Jesus submitted his will to the Father, he humbled himself and accepted the pain of the cross on our behalf, “For our sake He made him to be sin who did not know sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him” (2 Corinthians 5:21). Jesus was made to bear the pain of the misery of our sin in order that we might become the sons and daughters of God.

Today may also be a good day to recall our own baptism. Through our baptism, we become united with Christ and co-heirs of the kingdom of God. Have we been faithful to our baptismal promises? Have we preferred the light of holiness and grace to the darkness of sin? Have we always stood on the side of truth and justice? As the celebration of Christmas rolls to a close, may we continue to spread the message of peace and joy as we return to the ordinary season of our everyday lives.

-Rev. Fr. Mark Thomas Ameh, MSP

Weekly Gospel Reflection for Families

The Good News

Most of Mark's accounts of the events in Jesus' life are short and to the point. The account of Jesus' Baptism given in today's Gospel illustrates this. In a few brief sentences Mark tells of the Baptism of Jesus in the Jordan River by John the Baptist. The brevity of the final verse of the passage makes it unclear whether Jesus alone heard the voice that came from the heavens, or if everyone who witnessed his Baptism heard the same. What is clear from the words is the special relationship Jesus had with God the Father.

Reflect

The final words of today's Gospel are wonderful words for us to bestow upon our children. Who is not encouraged by the reminder that they are a beloved son or daughter? What child, at any age, does not long to hear from a parent, "With you I am well pleased?" Today is a good day to think about how often you take the time to lavish words of love and praise upon your child. Take time to be still and let your heavenly Father lavish those same words of love and praise upon you.

Share

Set out pictures, candles, white garments, and other reminders of the Baptisms of family members. Recall the celebrations. Remind your family that the promises made at Baptism include: being taught to practice our faith, keeping God's Commandments, and loving God and neighbor. Talk about how family members are living out these baptismal promises today.

Talk

1. My favorite part of the celebration of Baptism is . . . because . . .
2. One of the baptismal promises I need to work harder at is . . .
3. Someone who makes me feel special and loved is . . .
