springs up and becomes the largest of plants and so that the birds of the sky

can dwell in its shade."*

Prayerful Support

We all look forward with excitement to fully re-opening our parish once again. Though it has been a long and challenging moment in the life of our parish, we are grateful to God for His love and compassion towards each and every person in it. We thank Him for sustaining us through this long period of waiting. May the Lord grant success to all our pastoral plans for the year. This is a great opportunity to get back to our proposed plan to begin a Stewardship Committee in our parish.

What is a parish Stewardship Committee? This Committee plays a positive role in the development of a parish by encouraging parishioners to practice stewardship as both an expression of gratitude to God and a way of life. The Committee supports this through some key areas of responsibility that help to foster a sense of belonging to and "ownership" of the parish. It will promote evangelization as essential to stewardship and assist with evangelization efforts in the parish. It will encourage all committees, groups, families, and individuals to center themselves in prayer and gratitude. It will aim to provide education about stewardship to parish leadership, committees, and all parishioners. It will be the image-maker of the parish. It will foster community and help to promote the stewardship of time, treasure, and talent in both our parish and everyday life.

The Lord has blessed us in various ways. We all are called to utilize these gifts for the growth and development of our beloved parish. It is my prayer that the Parish Stewardship Committee will assist us in realizing these big and exciting goals! Therefore, I would like to call on everyone to pray for the success of this committee here at St. Joseph, Husband of Mary. I firmly believe that together, we can do great things for our church community.

-Rev. Fr. Mark Thomas Ameh, MSP

*"We plough the fields, and scatter
The good seed on the land,
But it is fed and watered
By God's almighty hand;
He sends the snow in winter,
The warmth to swell the grain,
The breezes and the sunshine,
And soft refreshing rain.
All good gifts around us
Are sent from heav'n above,
Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord
For all his love."*

-Hymn, "All good gifts around us are sent from heav'n above" — Wir pflügen

St. Anthony Can Find Anything — Even You

"Tony, Tony, come around! Something is lost and it must be found."

Did you learn this one when you were a kid? In my experience there are even a lot of lapsed Catholics — or people who were never Catholic at all — who know that when you lose something, St. Anthony becomes your best friend. Missing keys? Pray to St. Anthony. Can't find your favorite sweater? St. Anthony. Forget where you parked your car in the mall lot? St. Anth— okay, you get the idea. Whatever it is, large or small, important or trivial, Tony has a reputation for finding the lost things.

It's a devotion that can seem a little like superstition — witchcraft, even? — if you don't really understand it. Mumble an incantation to a dead guy and you're guaranteed to find your sunglasses. But as with most traditions that are old, beloved and effective, looking a little closer reveals the truth of the matter.

When we lose something really important, what do we do? We make the whole household stop what they're doing to join the search. Having St. Anthony as a friend means you ask him to stop what he's doing to help, too. And how he helps is by taking the matter exactly where all matters need to go — straight to the feet of Christ.

Here's the real genius of St Anthony: he takes the most mundane, commonplace occurrence — misplacing socks — into an encounter with the divine and truly all things great and small are gifts from God. He grabs our hand and points to the cross. "That's what you're looking for," he tells us.

In the end, Tony doesn't really find the lost things. He finds the lost people.

Weekly Gospel Reflection for Families

The Good News

The fourth chapter of Mark's Gospel focuses entirely on parables. In the first part of the Gospel, Seed Grows of Itself, Jesus is pointing out that the growth of the Kingdom of God is a hidden reality that operates under God's power rather than through human work and effort. In the second part of the Gospel, the parable of the Mustard Seed, Jesus is offering the crowds words of encouragement. What at first might seem small and insignificant will, under God's power, become "the largest of plants."

Reflect

In the parables, or simple stories that Jesus told, he used everyday objects such as salt, light, coins, yeast, and even a father and his sons to teach moral lessons. Jesus wanted people to relate to the stories he told, and to understand his teachings about the ways in which children of God are called to live. Children of all ages love to hear good stories, especially those they can relate to because the situations, settings, characters, or objects are familiar to them. How long has it been since you've shared a good story with your children? What books are on your family bookshelf? Be mindful of making story and reading choices that reflect and reinforce the kingdom values that Jesus taught.

Share

Place a small, empty bowl and a container of various kinds of seeds on your family prayer table or kitchen table. Remind your family that every person can plant seeds of goodness, kindness, thoughtfulness, generosity, thankfulness, and love in the lives of family members, friends, and those in need in the world today. Share ideas about ways to do this. Invite family members to put one seed in the glass bowl for every seed of God's love they plant in the coming week. At the end of the week, reread the parable of the Mustard Seed and—if possible—plant your seeds and be surprised by what grows!

Talk

1. Someone who planted the seed of love in my life this past week is . . .
2. One seed I want to plant this week is . . .
3. One way our family can help the Kingdom of God grow is . . .
