After the joyful celebration of the festivities of Christmas, this weekend, we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. With this feast, we are introduced to the public ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ. Like the Feast of the Epiphany, the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord is also a theophany, public manifestation of the glory of God and his saving plan for the world.

The baptism of John was not a Sacrament. His was a form of ritual cleansing. People were immersed in water and pulled out. It meant one was willing to let go one's former way of life and become a new person. Other Jewish sects at the time had a form of this ritual. Those who wished to follow St John the Baptist were required to be baptized and change their lives in anticipation for the coming of Jesus, the Messiah. The acknowledgement of one's sin was what was demanded of them.

Jesus had no sin to repent of, why then did he accept to be baptized by John in the Jordan? Right from the start of his public ministry, Jesus chose to identify with sinners. He went down into the water with them, that he may purify it with his presence and lead them out of darkness into his wonderful light. In the words of St Paul: "For our sake he made him to be sin who did not know sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him" (2 Cor 5:21).

Today's liturgy challenges us to recall our own baptism into the Body of Christ, the Church. The liturgy also invites us to reflect on our attitude towards those who have gone astray. Before we condemn them, let us make some effort to understand their situations. May we journey with Jesus into his public ministry in order to become partakers of his glorious resurrection.

"Good and gracious God, you are always present to your people. Grant us the eyes of faith and enlighten our minds to see your goodness in all things. May we be your instruments of encouragement to others."

Rev Fr Mark Thomas Ameh, MSP

I Hope I Am Like Him

"Who is this Christ? Is he like you?"

Perhaps you've heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

"He is nothing like me," the saint is said to have answered. "But I hope I am like him."

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. "One worthier than I is coming," he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God's will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let's examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God's plan?

Gospel Reflection for Families

The Good News

Jesus came to the Jordan River to be baptized by John. At first John objected and said that it was he, John, who should be baptized by Jesus. Jesus indicated a future baptism when he responded to John saying that it was fitting for John to baptize Jesus. John acquiesced and at the conclusion of the baptism, the Spirit came down from heaven in the form of a dove and clearly announced Jesus as his son. God was pleased with His son.

Reflect

Most parents know what it means to be pleased with our children. Even when they do things that annoy, challenge, or disappoint us, we love our children. Although we experience some notion of unconditional love with our own children, it is difficult for us to grasp the magnitude of God's love for us, even when we annoy, challenge, or disappoint Him. Through our Baptism, we are members of God's family and will know the unconditional love of a parent.

Share

Bring out pictures and memoirs of each person's Baptism–even the parents. Recall each baptism and share memories of the day with one another. Continue by sharing ways you have each continued to grow as members of God's family.

Talk

1. As a child of God, I know God is pleased with me because . . .
2. My own Baptism is important to me because . . .
3. One time I can recall that our family lived out our baptismal promises was when . . .
