Parishioner's Pen: Wait For . . It!

"Wait for it" is a popular preview phrase in today's media used to highlight a significant newsworthy event that is about to be revealed. A sports event play of the day, an entertainer's punch line, a politician or world leader's bombshell address are trivial examples compared to the amazing season of anticipation we begin today. Wait for IT, indeed! On this First Sunday of Advent (to come, not yet arrived) we wait - with joyful expectation, for the Nativity of our Savior, Jesus Christ - for relief, to be rescued. We light the first candle on the Advent Wreath as we prepare to welcome at Christmas the Light of Christ that overcomes the darkness of the world!

Waiting is part of our Catholic faith that we inherited from the Old Testament, from the Israelites who waited for deliverance. They waited to reunite with their homeland. They waited for deliverance. They waited for the Messiah. Our waiting for Christ may not be as long in comparison to waiting in the desert, in exile, for the Messiah, but it is just as meaningful. Scripture teaches us about waiting. We wait with hope, "I waited patiently for the LORD; he inclined to me and heard my cry." [Ps 40:2] This is a hope that keeps us going, that gives us strength to move forward.

But what do we do while we are waiting? We are patient. We pray. It is the time for preparation, for patience and renewal. These verses are recalled in a favorite Advent hymn, "Patience People" (John Foley, S.J) that beautifully showcases the Scripture message [Jas. 5: 7-8]:

*Patience, people, till the Lord is come.
See the farmer await the yield of the soil.
He watches it in winter and in spring rain.
Patience, people,
For the Lord is coming. Patience, people,
Till the Lord is come.*

Wait for "it" has been commercialized by Prime Days, Blowout Sales, pop-up ads, and flashing decorations. Is "Merry Christmas" being redefined by merchants, ignoring all that is heaven-sent? Mercifully, no! Family reunions and traditions, renewed friendships, and personal moments in adoration define the Christmas season. Unlike (say July 4) one & done holidays, Christmas is the entire Advent season (see p3 Christmas Mass Schedule) of hopeful waiting for joy.

Let our anticipation of Christmas begin with Advent wreaths and Nativity scenes returning to their traditional places in our homes. Many of our family traditions trace back to our childhood and to the joy-filled Christmas celebrations with our children. Now those traditions include our grandchildren, adding to our memories. Joyful Nativity expectations are headed our way to savor and enjoy! Have a blessed Advent season. Tim Logsdon

New Altar Server Training; The 18th Generation

Altar Server training is scheduled for 3 consecutive Sunday mornings (Jan. 7, 14, & 28) - 9:30 to 10:45 AM. Training will take place in the worship area and sanctuary. Required for new Altar Servers: First Communion, 3rd grade.

Parents, your family must strongly support our Server Corp, especially by your regular attendance at Saint Philip. Altar Servers serve weekly. Thus, they will grow and mature in their service.

Our high school acolytes will welcome the new servers and train them carefully in the service of the Mass. Moms and dads are invited to be present at every server training session.

We invite all young persons 3rd grade and up to join our Altar Server Corp and make St. Philip's Mass a welcoming experience as we worship the Most Holy Trinity. Over the years, we've watched many Altar Servers grow and mature into outstanding young Catholic men and women.

Mark your calendars for our fall training program. Pick up your registration forms in the sacristy after Sunday Mass and return them as soon as possible.
